RICHIBUCTO, N. B., AUG. 31, 1893.

THE LEADER OF THE LOCAL GOVERNMENT, AND THE CONSERVATIVE PARTY.

Mr. Blair, the provincial premier, has lately blossomed out into a full-blown leader of the Liberal party. He attended the Ottawa convention, consistently lent his invaluable services towards the formation of the new platform of Economy, Political Purity and Electoral Reform, and successfully wire-pulled to secure the selection of his chief commissioner, Emmerson, as the vice-president and nominal leader of the Liberal party for this province, to the exclusion of Mr. Weldon and Mr. Ellis, older and better men, while quietly arranging that Mr. Blair himself should be recognized by the Faithful as the real provincial leader. He has since entered more vigorously into the crusade then inaugurated against the Dominion government, and has had himself put forward at Moncton and St. John as one of the principal speakers in loud denunciation of the policy of the Conservative party, invective against individual members of the Ottawa government and criticism of their public utterances. Now it may well be said that no reasonable objection can be raised against Mr. Blair, as Mr. Blair cherishing strong opinions, and if necessary expressing them on the trade and other party questions, which enter into Dominion politics, and to that extent no further importance would be attached to his opinions than would be given to those of any other public man, but when it is sought to add importance and weight to his deliverances by the fact that he is the leader of the Local government, and that his influence as such is thrown in the scale with the Liberals, one may fairly ask what Messrs. Mitchell, Tweedie and Connell, so called Conservatives in the administration, have to say or purpose doing about it. If they are really friends of the party and supporters of the Conservative policy, and not mere hangers on, for the sake of the leaves and fishes, it would reasonably be expected that they would have manliness and independence enough to resent the use that is being made of the Local government and its patronage, by their leader, to discredit their political friends at Ottawa and overturn the administration of which they pretend to be supporters. Mr. Blair has hitherto claimed no little credit to himself for good generalship and political management because he has continued to lead a composite government of Conservatives and Liberals, and he regards as absurd the proposition that the provincial governments should be run on Dominion lines. To what extent he has modified his views we are not aware, but he has evidently resolved that so far as he can accomplish it with the assistance of his Chief Commissioner who controls the principal spending department of the government, the "aid and comfort" of his administration shall be given to Mr. Laurier and if necessary to their mutual friend Mercier. Mr. Emmerson is vigorously aiding in this little scheme, and using his department "for all it is worth" for the encouragement of Liberals in the different constituencies with fat contracts and little jobs which will, no doubt, be gratefully remembered when a Dominion election comes round. Mr. Mitchell and Mr. Tweedie sit with folded arms and look on with indifference while the little scheme is being worked out by their leader. Mr. Foster and Mr. Costigan on behalf of the Dominion government may possibly continue to smile approval upon their conduct, but if so, the situation will undoubtedly become somewhat more interesting and the Liberal-Conservatives in the Local Legislature, especially those in the Opposition ranks, may feel called upon to take a course which will indicate their dissatisfaction with such a time-serving policy. If Mr. Blair wants to enter Dominion politics by all means let him do so, but his Liberal-Conservative colleagues, if they have any political backbone, should at once intimate to him that his conduct does not meet with their approval, and if he continues to pursue the course that he has apparently mapped out for himself, their portfolios will immediately be placed at his service, and Mr. Connell and the noted Labillios will be left as the representatives of the Liberal-Conservatives in his composite government. If they remain, the sincerity of their attachment to their avowed Conservative principles may well be doubted.

Vigilant Care.

Vigilance is necessary against unexpected attacks of summer complaints. No remedy is so well-known or so successful in this class of diseases as Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry. Keep it in the house as a safe-guard.

Mr. LeBlanc and Mr. Barnes.

An incident connected with the Liberal rally recently held in Moncton, and the attendance from this section, seems worthy of a passing notice. It was reasonably expected and generally supposed that O. J. LeBlanc, as the Liberal standard bearer at the last election, and the ex-officio leader of the party in this county, would be in attendance at the public meeting when his old leader Mr. Blair, and the other prominent orators of the party met to discuss and explain the new platform adopted at Ottawa. And Mr. LeBlanc, no doubt, fully intended to be present, and had made arrangements for that purpose. It appears, however, not to have suited the little scheme of the newest aspirant to the county leadership that Mr. LeBlanc should be present, and a plan was quietly arranged to keep him at home.

Mr. James Barnes, of oyster-bed fame, caused the announcement to be made that he intended chartering a train on the railway to leave Buctouche in the evening and arrive at Moncton in time for the meeting. Mr. LeBlanc was informed of this, and made his arrangements accordingly. Mr. Barnes, however, quietly abandoned the special train scheme, and in company with another ardent grit, slipped off to Shediac on Monday morning, and went through to Moncton to attend the convention as a Kent County delegate, without ever advising Mr. LeBlanc of the change in his plans. Mr. LeBlanc relying upon the Barnes railway programme, and desirous of meeting the wishes of his friends and supporters, drove down from St. Mary's to Buctouche in the afternoon, arriving about six o'clock, only to find that there was no train for Moncton, and that Mr. Barnes had quietly given him the slip. It was of course then too late to drive to Moncton, and the county Liberal leader was compelled to return home through the storm of Monday evening, leaving to Mr. Barnes the duty of acting as the Kent County Liberal Standard Bearer.

Mr. LeBlanc and his friends naturally feel somewhat disgusted with the trick and the trickster. Mr. Barnes, however, whose remarkable run at the foot of the poll in the last local election has filled him with enlarged political aspirations, seems well pleased with the success which has so far attended his efforts to pose as the Kent County Liberal Standard Bearer, and now claims that "Oliver" must step aside in the next contest for a stronger man in the person of the said K. C. L. B. E.

Mr. LeBlanc failed to attend the Ottawa convention and now overlooked the opportunity given him by his appearance on the Liberal platform to indulge in a little self-glorification and, contrary to the facts, to claim that he has as the leader of the Local government, reduced the controllable expenditure and conducted provincial affairs with economy. This he does in the face of many Liberals who have lost all faith in Mr. Blair's government and its policy, and they must necessarily feel annoyed that he should as a Liberal orator seek to bolster up an administration which they believe is opposed to the best interests of the province.

at the Moncton rally, seems in a fair way of being snuffed out politically. D. Buctouche, Aug. 28th. Piles! Piles! Itching Piles. Symptoms—Moisture; intense itching and stinging; most at night; worse by scratching. If allowed to continue tumors form, which often bleed and ulcerate, becoming very sore. SWAYNE'S Ointment stops the itching and bleeding, heals ulceration, and in most cases removes the tumors. At druggists, or by mail, for 50 cents. Dr. Swayne & Son, Philadelphia. To the Editor of The Review:

DEAR SIR:—Having seen a very flattering account of our settlement in a recent issue of your paper, I take the liberty to correct a few statements made in connection with the financial standing of our place. The writer of the article, no doubt, was prompted by the kindest of motives, which I, for my part, appreciate, but things were somewhat misrepresented to him. For instance, he says it was the opinion of the people, or lone individuals, that if parties that went to the United States would work as hard here as they did there they would make a competency much sooner—which would imply that some of us did not work hard here. When those very parties are contemplating going to the United States in the near future to work, why don't they stay at home and work. The fact is they have never been anywhere outside the province of New Brunswick, except for a short time, and do not know the difference. I have nothing to say against our country, but it is a stubborn fact that the United States is the best place for the laboring man in the world, or, at least, within our reach, or else so many of our men would not be there at the present time. I have recently returned from there, and contemplate going back again. I am well contented with our country, but we have not the money in circulation, or the means to earn it, to pay our liabilities, therefore, we have to go where we can. Let some of these people that howl about their loyalty to the British flag answer these questions. It is not the lack of the kind of capital spoken of in your issue, but the lack of the real cash that is the trouble. The British flag is all right, but loyalty will not feed a man nor pay his debts. This may smack somewhat of Liberalism, but I have always voted the Conservative ticket, not because I wanted to be in the swim like a great many, but because I did not understand the situation as I do now, having learned it by experience. Hoping you will find space for this in your next issue, I remain, yours truly, W. N. BORD.

Rheumatism Cured in a Day.

South American Rheumatic Cure for Rheumatism and Neuralgia radically cures in 1 to 3 days. Its action upon the system is remarkable and mysterious. Acadiaville.

AUGUST 28th.—It is time for Novus Homo to wake up, or Mr. Old Man will think that he has surrendered. Although the news is getting scarce since Mr. O. M.'s notes, yet a little is left. The bush-fires have done great damages to the farms of North Fork. Messrs. C. Robichaud and J. Francoeur's crops are completely ruined, and the former's barns are burned to the ground.

We are happy to report the marriage of one of our popular young widowers, Mr. B. J. Babineau, to a Rogersville lady. And one of our widows is to be married to-day. The writer tenders congratulations and best wishes.

The schools are all opened again, and attended by a great number of children. They all appear pleased to take up their classes again after their vacation. We hear that the families who have left the place these last few years, for the States, are wishing that they were still in dear old mother Acadiaville.

We had a very heavy storm on Monday night of last week. Very few of our interested farmers slept soundly during the night. NOVUS HOMO.

One of the best known and ablest physicians in New Brunswick has said: I regard GRODER'S BOTANIC DYSPEPSIA SYRUP as an excellent remedy and one destined to attain a large sale.

One who has used above remedy has this to say: SALISBURY, N. B., May 3rd, 1893.

This is to certify that after suffering for about seven years with Dyspepsia, I was induced by a friend to give your remedy a trial. I had tried so many with such indifferent results that I felt skeptical of so called Sure Cures and remedies. However, I am glad to say that I tried your Groder's Syrup to the extent of two bottles and have never had a twinge of dyspepsia since last November. Yours, J. E. FOSTER.

The harmonious testimony of many witnesses should convince you that GRODER'S SYRUP CURES DYSPEPSIA.
