Cocagne Notes.

SEPT. 19.—Fishery Inspector Chapman was here officially a few days ago. This tour along the coast was rather uneventful, until our own gay shores were met. Judging from the "big surprise" he gave the Bar people, his presence was in nowise uncalled for, viz, the lobster fishing industry is worthy of protection. Report says that at the time of the gallant officer's appearance the sly fleet, although drawn up in loose order, was waging a mighty and successful attack upon the ricko-cated denizens of the deep. The love of gain, however, was suddenly overshadowed by the desire of escape, and then as the poet Byron said was there "hurrying to and fro, etc., and cheeks all pale, which but an hour ago blushed at the praise," not of their own loveliness—but possibly of their own remunerative lawlessness. The strategic skill of Chapman was soon made manifest, and the enemy brought to terms, calculated to inspire sentiments of remorse and wisdom together.

Our local sportsmen are enjoying themselves hugely at present. Forest game is plentiful, more so in fact than it has been for some years. From the almost continuous reports of old muskets and fowling pieces around the outskirts of the village, one would imagine sometimes that a cloud of skirmishers were coming to an attack.

The proprietorship of the Bay View Hotel has again gone into new hands. Mr. Wood has decided to quit the business and try farming. Mr. John Elliott is the new owner of the Bay View.

Mr. John Brooks was rather dangerously injured this morning by a fall from his wagon.

Mr. Frank Smith of the "Ocean Bride," received injuries lately which may lay him up for some time. It was thought at first his leg was broken, but this is happily not the case.

Miss Emma Goguen who presides over the Cape school is seriously ill. We trust that a speedy recovery is in store for one of our most popular teachers.

Prominent amongst our latest visitors are Mrs. S. E. McManus, and Miss Lizzie Bourque, of Buctouche, the former person being the guest of her uncle Mr. Hugh Dysart, and the latter of her sister Miss Mary Bourque.

Mrs. Malcolm Cormier, of Notre Dame is here visiting her parents Mr. and Mrs. Elzior Bilodeau.

Miss Belle and Master Barney Connors, of Grand Digue, are home on a short vacation—Miss C. from Boston, and Master C. from Amherst.

Mr. Chas. Connors has returned to his home in Brooklyn. Mrs. Connors intends remaining for some weeks yet.

Miss Bertha Chapman has left to fill a position secured in one of Moncton's leading millinery establishments.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen and children, of Tignish, are visiting Mrs. Chas. Lucas.

With the coming of Autumn new life seems to have been infused in the hearts of our young people. Parties are much in vogue, and a number of merry evenings have been spent in this manner since your last correspondence.

DIXIE.

Harcourt.
SEPT. 18th.—Mr. S. M. Dunn, who has been spending some months in Hyde Park, returned home on Tuesday. His many friends are pleased to see him in his old stand in the post office.

In the absence of the pastor, the pulpit of the "Wesley Memorial" church was filled last evening by Rev. Mr. Marr of Mount Allison.

Mrs. H. Wathen returned home on Tuesday accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. S. Williamson of Greenwich, Kings Co.

Miss Keith of Havelock, who has been visiting her cousin, Dr. Keith, returned to her home to-day.

We are pleased to learn that the Harcourt band is about to be renewed. A number of the old bandmen have returned and the prospects for a first class band are favorable. We hope ere long to hear their familiar and melodious strains again floating on the evening breeze.

Miss Marion Miller will leave for Pennsylvania on Wednesday.

H. W. B. Smith of Grangeville, left for Boston on Saturday. He will be joined there by Mrs. Smith, where they expect to spend the winter months.

We hear another bicycle party is being talked of. We do not know what direction they will take this time, however, we feel sure their course will not be so circuitous as the last taken by the club, having (as they tell it) sighted Newfoundland ere their return.

Miss Marion Wathen returned from an extended visit to Chatham and other points on the Miramichi on Saturday.

DAISY.

Buctouche Notes.

SEPT. 15th.—Mr. B. H. Foley, with his usual energy and enterprise, is pushing to completion his new store and dwelling house, which he expects to occupy in a few weeks time.

Mr. J. A. Irving is having erected on the site of his store which was destroyed by fire last fall, a large one and a half story building, the same being under the workmanship of Mr. Chase.

Miss Rose D. Bourque has commenced the erection of her new "Millinery Establishment." It is being built on the old stand.

The "Bay View," which was destroyed by fire this summer, is now being replaced by a larger, more convenient and modern building, and will be, when completed, one of the very best on the North Shore.

Mrs. N. Hutchinson, of Richibucto; Mrs. Patton, of Truro, and Mrs. D. Stevenson, of Moncton, visited Mrs. J. Hutchinson last week.

Sheriff and Mrs. Wheten were in town on Friday last.

Two of our young men while out walking on Thursday evening thought they had really captured the "fire bug" (who has been burning up our village lately) crouching down alongside of a barn, preparatory to setting it on fire. On their approach the unknown person started on a run, the young men following; but as it was a very dark night he soon eluded his pursuers. Some of the citizens the next day presented them with "wooden medals" in honor of their achievement.

Buctouche Notes.

During the past two summers he has made numerous friends around Buctouche, who are sorry for his departure, but are satisfied as he goes but to continue his studies.

To-day about an hundred boats can be seen out upon Buctouche Bay fishing oysters. Mr. James Baines is building another oyster house in which to store oysters, and he intends going into it on a more extensive scale than ever.

It is glad tidings to Buctouche to hear that Dr. DeBertram and Mr. McInerney have been successful in their mission to Ottawa, and soon the Buctouche railway bridge will be resting on firm iron butments.

New York, Sept. 1st.—Directum broke the world's stallion race record at Fleetwood on Wednesday in one of the greatest free-for-all trots ever held. Five heats were trotted in the average time of 2:10 1/2-20, the best average time for five heats. The great performance was in the fifth heat of the race. Directum had previously broken the stallion record in the third heat in 2:10, and to stimulate fast driving, a special prize of $500 was offered to any horse beating this mark in the last heat. It was Directum's heat all the way. He went to the quarter in 0:32 1/2, the half in 1:04 1/2, the three-quarters in 1:37, and the mile 2:09 1/2. I respect the Catholic church as I respect all sincere and conscientious opinions and beliefs, but I feel it my duty to join the Presbyterian church. It is perhaps the most rational of the numerous sects which divide Christianity, and best suits the religion of my late wife, and is that of my little children.
