

A Mother's Beautiful Child

Dragged Nearly to Death's Door by Severe Nervous Disease—Suffered Extreme Pain in the Head—Doctors Could Do Nothing—South American Nervine Called in at the Eleventh Hour and Restores to Health Little Annie Joy, of West Toronto Junction—The Great Remedy is Reducing the Death Rate of All Canadian Cities.

MISS ANNIE JOY, WEST TORONTO JUNCTION.

A bright little lad, or golden-haired girl, is the delight of your home. Whether you revel in riches, or know something of the privations of poverty, that child is all the world to you. It is no wonder that mother and father become anxious when sickness overtakes the little one.

The remedy, fathers and mothers, is near by. South American Nervine has been the means of giving back the bloom of youth to thousands of suffering little ones. It is not a medicine that buoys up the parents' hopes, only to have them in a short time dashed down again lower than ever. Whether with child or adult, it promptly gets at the seat of all disease, which is the nerve centres. From this fact it is peculiarly efficacious in the treatment of nervous diseases of man, woman or child.

A recent case is that as told by Mrs. M. A. Joy, of West Toronto Junction, whose little daughter Annie, aged 15 years, had been a sufferer from severe nervous depression for about two years. As with all mothers, no trouble and expense was spared in the effort to bring relief to the child. The little one suffered extreme pains in the head, so distressing at times as to render her completely helpless, sapping all her strength. The best skill of the most skilled physicians was called into request, but little Annie steadily grew worse. Becoming more hopeless and discouraged as the weeks went by, Mrs. Joy decided on trying South American Nervine as almost a last resort. Employing her own words she said: "I determined to give it a trial, although I felt it was useless."

To-day it is all happiness around that home, for before one bottle of the medicine had been taken, the mother tells us Annie commenced to show decided signs of improvement. The child has taken three bottles and has practically regained her natural health and vigor. There is nothing surprising in the fact that Mrs. Joy cannot speak too highly of South American Nervine.

Much was at stake, but this wonderful discovery proved equal to the emergency, and so it does in every case. Thousands of letters on file from well-known citizens prove this. For nervous diseases of young or old, from whatever cause, it is an absolutely infallible cure.

The Cider Stumbling-Block.

J. K. Osgood, Esq., of Maine, the man who organized the first Reform Club, said recently, in a public address, that nine out of ten of the reformed men who have gone back to their cups have done so through cider.

A letter from New England tells of three reformed men who had joined a Good Templars' lodge. The men were industrious, and earned good wages, and their families were rejoicing in the possession of many comforts to which they had long been strangers. In the summer they went out into the country to work for a man who had a large orchard and makes plenty of cider. A brother Good Templar went out and told this farmer of the danger which would come from offering cider to these men, but he was one of those who think cider harmless, placed the tempting glass at their plates, and urged them to partake. They resisted for a time, but the constant temptation was too much for them. They drank the cider there, and when they returned to the city they went headlong into continued dissipation.

A brother in a Good Templars' Lodge said: "Strong as I feel, I would not dare drink even a wineglass of sweet cider." Another reformed brother present rose and said: "If you have any regard for us, pray, do not set the example of drinking even sweet cider."

Six years ago, an efficient Son of Temperance who believed sweet cider an innocent beverage, used it; then currant wine, then lager beer, then anything that would intoxicate. Now he is a confirmed inebriate. Rev. William Thayer, who gives some of these cases, says the whole Temperance Reform is strewn with wrecks of our brothers whose latent appetite was aroused in many cases by partaking of a small quantity of so called sweet cider, or domestic wine.

Why do not the reformed men know enough to avoid such drinks, and why do not other people know better than to present them?

It is simply because they do not understand how the alcohol is made, and under what circumstances it makes its appearance in previously harmless substances. And because it is always disguised with water, and often with various kinds of flavors, they do not realize that its nature and its effects are always the same; nor will they know until they make a point of carefully studying about them. If we wish to vanquish our enemy we must study his tactics, and understand him thoroughly.

How Much is Your Boy Worth?

A tall Kansan said: "Put me down for $20; I have six boys, and if necessary will make my subscription more; to save them, a $100 bill would be a small amount." He was a hard-working farmer but he loved his boys, and as a consequence hated the liquor traffic.

A New York merchant said: "To my astonishment I found out that my eldest boy had taken a drink of beer." That was enough: every energy of that business man is brought into active service to protect his son from the ravages of the liquor trade.

How much is your boy worth?

First: He is worth asking to sign the total abstinence pledge.

Second: He is of sufficient value to be sent to a Band of Hope, or a Temperance School, to be instructed as to the effects of alcohol upon the human system, and the sin of intemperance.

Third: He is of sufficient importance for you to know where he spends his evenings and who his associates are.

Fourth: He is of more value than many household pets, and is entitled to more of your time and attention.

Fifth: To say nothing of the value of your boy's good character, he has cost you for food, raiment, and education more than what the average saloon-keeper pays for his license.

Sixth: "As the twig is bent the tree is inclined." It will be of great importance to you whether your boy is a valuable citizen or a curse to you and the neighborhood in which you reside. If he turns out good he will be worth his weight in gold; if otherwise better he had never been born.

Seventh: Being immortal, he is worth a life's work to prepare him for a happy hereafter.

No license was ever made high enough to cover the lowest estimate that you can put on your boy if there's a spark of Christianity or humanity in your heart.

Nebraska virtually says its city boys are worth $1,000; altogether too low. New York City puts the price of her boys at $75; less than the price of a city railroad horse. An insult to every mother!

What is your boy worth? Tell me the value of his soul, and I'll name the price of the privilege to sell intoxicants.

My Daughter Cured.

Mrs. George L. Hicks, 76 McGill St., Toronto, Ont., writes: "It is with pleasure that I testify to the wonderful merits of K. D. C. My daughter has suffered severely at intervals for the past two years and was steadily getting worse. She tried three of the best doctors in the city, but obtained no relief, also every remedy that friends would recommend with the same results and continued to grow worse all the time. She was recommended by a friend to try K. D. C. and sent for a sample package. Before taking all of the sample the symptoms of dyspepsia were gone and though she has since taken only one $1 package the symptoms have not returned. She has also gained considerably in weight, and her friends are surprised at the change in her appearance. If any person in Toronto suffering from the same disease would like to call on me, I could tell them more fully what K. D. C. has done for my daughter."

Restigouche Notes.

The trustees of Armstrong Brook School Restigouche, have a case of litigation on hand. The teacher who taught their school in 1893, has sued them for damages sustained on the assumption of illegal dismissal. It is difficult to ascertain the facts of the case. The same teacher obtained damages from a magistrate for illegal arrest when opening the school; also from a trustee for circulating statements affecting his character. During the last few months Armstrong Brook has been kept very lively with school affairs.

The Division of the Sons of Temperance of Dalhousie, visited the Division of River Charles on Thursday last, and had a royal reception with feasting and singing.

Dr. Desbrow, of Dalhousie, has been confined to his room for many weeks by ill health. His recovery is very doubtful. He has many sympathizers in the county.

AN ODE TO DIAMOND DYES.

AIR: BONNIE DOON.

O! Diamond Dyes, ye colors fair,
Prepared with scientific care,
Ye joy of every woman's heart,
From our lov'd homes, oh, n'er depart.
Ye are our choice, our joy and pride,
Forever in our homes abide,
That ye may show your marvellous pow'rs,
When time brings on our dyeing hours.

In vain have speculators tried
To mar thy worth, thy fame deride;
But women's hearts so warm and true,
Forever loyal are to you.
Shine on! shine on! ye stars of light,
Ye Diamond Dyes so fast and bright,
Ye gems of true economy,
May millions yet be bless'd by thee.

She Said Grace.

An Englishwoman of rank—a duchess—was very apt to forget to pay her bills. A milliner, whose large bill had been repeatedly ignored by the duchess, at last determined to send her little girl, a pretty child of 10 years, to beg for the money which was so much needed. "Be sure to say 'your grace' to the duchess," said the anxious mother, and the child gravely promised to remember. When after long waiting, she was ushered into the duchess' presence the little girl dropped a low courtesy, and then folding her hands and closing her eyes, she said softly: "For what I am about to receive may the Lord make me truly thankful." As she opened her eyes and turned her wistful gaze on duchess that light-hearted person flushed very red and without delay made out her check for the amount due to the milliner.

Sound as a Dollar.

Some people are lucky in finding the right remedy at the right time. A case in point follows, and is worth reading:

About three months ago I was all used up with Rheumatism, suffering more than torture from it. I took three bottles of your valuable medicine, Burdock Blood Bitters, and now feel all O. K. Some six years ago I took a few bottles of B. B. B. and found it the best medicine I had ever used. I had the very best of health until this attack of Rheumatism, but now I am glad to say that B. B. B. has made me as sound as a dollar.

E. G. SCOVIL, AGENT PELEE ISLAND GRAPE JUICE.

MARCH 15th, 1893.

DEAR SIR—My family have received great benefits from the use of the PELEE ISLAND GRAPE JUICE during the past four years. It is the best tonic and sedative for debility, nervousness and weak lungs we have ever tried. It is much cheaper and pleasanter than medicines. I would not be without it in the house.
