—Miss Sarah Scott visited St. John last week. Rev. Fr. Ouillet, of St. Mary, was in town Monday. —Mr. Robert Foley, of Buctouche, was in town, Thursday. —Captain Richard McLaughlin, left for Boston last Wednesday. —Miss Agnes White, who has been home on a visit to her parents, returned to Boston last Wednesday. —Send for latest circular of the St. John Business College. See advt. —Miss Janie Dickinson, and Miss Minnie Gifford, returned to Boston Thursday. —Mrs. George W. Robertson returned last Wednesday, from a visit to Doaktown. —Miss Mason of Amherst, who has been visiting at Mr. H. M. Ferguson's, Kingston, returned home Thursday. —Barque Valona arrived at this port from Liverpool, last Thursday. She has been thoroughly overhauled and refitted. —Mr. James Johnson, representing Thomas L. Bourke, wholesale liquor dealer of St. John, was in Richibucto and Kingston, Friday. —The safe of Alexander Gibson, the lumber king, was blown open Monday night and $3,300 in bills stolen. There is no clue to the miscreants. —Fresh sausages Saturday morning, by express, from St. John. We also expect some quinces last of this week or first next week. W. W. Short, Richibucto. —The surveyors who have been for some time at work at the mouth of the Richibucto Harbor, have engaged Mr. Geo. W. Robertson's steam yacht the Caluna to complete their survey. —It is rumored that there are two divorce cases to come up in Fredericton shortly. One is instituted by the lady, who is prominent in social circles, and the other is on the application of the husband. —Gleaner. —The case of McIntyre vs. Bell which appears on the docket for trial this Circuit has been settled, and the record withdrawn. This case arose out of a dispute as to the ownership of a certain piece of land near Jardineville. The terms of the settlement gives a portion of the land to each party. —This is the season for coughs and colds —we have in stock all the popular remedies. Short's Cherry Chlor is becoming more and more popular each season. Also Scott's Emulsion, large and small, Hawke's Tulu, Sharp's Balsam, Johnson's Liniment, etc., etc. W. W. Short, Richibucto. —The old McEwen house between Richibucto and Buctouche was burned to the ground last Tuesday evening. Most of the household furniture was saved. The McEwens have purchased another dwelling house in Black River about five miles from Buctouche, and will no doubt be able to minister to the wants of the travelling public as in the past. —Wm. A sencau and Ernest Fagan, two lads from Kingston were arrested Tuesday, by Constable Philip Woods, on a charge of breaking the windows of the Episcopal church, Kingston, and interrupting the services. They were taken before Stipendiary Richardson and remanded to jail till to-day, (Wednesday), at three o'clock, when their hearing will take place. —Richibucto Division, No. 42, Sons of Temperance. The officers for the ensuing quarter are as follows:—Florence A. Caie, W. P.; Odber K. Blaak, W. A.; Dot Phinney, R. S.; Nina L. Frecker, A. R. S.; Robert Phinney, Treasurer; Allan Hains, Sr., F. S.; Robert W. Beers, Chaplain; Jessie White, C.; Sophie Thompson, A. C.; Alfred Beers, I. S.; John Scott, O. S.; J. Milton O'Brien, P. W. P.; Miss Allen, Organist. —A Moncton despatch says: Injunctions are the order of the day in the vicinity of the Times office. It will be remembered that some time ago H. T. Stevens had injunctions served on his partners, Messrs. Boyd and Toole, and yesterday, by way of reciprocity, Mr. Boyd had injunctions issued by Judge Barker and served on H. T. Stevens and T. C. Toole and their employes, preventing them from in any way interfering with plant, etc., and, as a consequence, the Daily Times is not issued this morning. The injunction extends to Oct. 10. The sale of the Times office and plant, advertised to take place this morning, has been postponed till October 3 at two o'clock, p. m. in accordance with instructions issued by judgment creditors, the property to still remain levied on. —The preliminary hearing of Jephthah Sherwood, Neil Sherwood and Donald Sherwood charged with maliciously setting fire to the barn and buildings of Ebenezer Sherwood at McLaughlin Road, took place before Stipendiary Magistrate Richardson, Thursday. It appears there has been some trouble between Ebenezer and Jephthah which resulted in two lawsuits. In consequence of this, the feeling between the two families has not been very friendly and Jephthah on one occasion was heard to threaten Ebenezer with punishment. This was the only evidence adduced to connect the accused with the crime. The Stipendiary decided that this evidence was insufficient to put the accused on their defence and he accordingly dismissed the case. The general opinion around the vicinity appears to be that the fire was purely accidental. H. C. Hannington conducted the prosecution and H. H. James the defense.

AYER'S THE ONLY Sarsaparilla ADMITTED READ RULE XV. "Articles that are in any way dangerous or offensive, also patent medicines, nostrums, and empirical preparations, whose ingredients are concealed, will not be admitted to the Exposition." Why was Ayer's Sarsaparilla admitted? Because it is not a patent medicine, not a nostrum, nor a secret preparation, not dangerous, not an experiment, and because it is all that a family medicine should be. At the WORLD'S FAIR Chicago, 1893. Why not get the Best?

McLeod went to St. John, last week. —Mr. Charles Barnett, of Chatham, was in town, Monday. —Mr. Aldran Allen returned from Sackville, Monday. —Mr. T. F. Curran, of Kingston, returned from St. John, Saturday. —Mrs. Humphrey, and Miss Nellie Harnett, left Tuesday for Los Angeles, California. —Mr. John Taylor, of Kingston, has been confined to his house for some days by sickness. —Mr. Frank Allen left Thursday for Fredericton, to begin his fourth and last year at the U. N. B. —Miss Janie McKinnon, Miss Lizzie Micheau, and Miss Kate Tweedie, left Monday for Portland, Maine. —Mrs. John Cameron and Mrs. Wm. Bowser, of Kingston, who have been visiting Chatham, returned home Monday. —The simplest way to get a ladies' coat, "press the button and we do the rest." See Daniel & Robertson's advertisement. —Robert Caie, formerly of Richibucto, has been called in a Director in the Yarmouth Steamship Co., in place of J. W. Moody, deceased. —Mr. James D. Sowerby, of Oak Bay Mills, P. Q., was in town last Monday, as a witness in the case of Wheten vs. Starrak before the Circuit Court. —Rev. Mr. Robinson preached in the Presbyterian churches, Sunday, in Kingston and Richibucto in place of Rev. Mr. Hamilton who is ill with fever. —Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Curwin were called to Tabusintac last week, by the sad intelligence of the death of their child, a boy three years of age. The little fellow had gone to visit his grandmother, Mrs. Russell of that place, and the first news his parents received of his illness was the report of his death. He died of croup. His remains were brought to Richibucto and interred in the Episcopal burying ground, Tuesday. —P. J. Lannagan, an employe of the St. Lawrence Lumber Co., who was returning to Bathurst from Rimouski by Sunday morning's Quebec express met with a serious accident at Campbellton. He was in the act of stepping off the train which was moving when he slipped and fell between the cars, two cars passing over the right ankle, also cutting off the great toe on the left foot. The unfortunate man was picked up unconscious and medical aid summoned. The right foot was subsequently amputated. —Mrs. George Gould who lives on the South side of the river, received a severe gash in the back of the head with an axe one day last week. She and another woman, Mrs. Joe Doucett, engaged in a quarrel which they proceeded to fight out according to Marquis of Queensbury rules. Mrs. Gould proved to be the more muscular of the two, and having knocked her antagonist down, was proceeding to give her a severe thrashing when Doucett's daughter, a girl of about fifteen, seized an axe and took a hand in the combat. Mrs. Gould is nursing an ugly cut in the back of her head. —A young man named Jos. Robichau from Shippegan, Gloucester Co., was arrested at the I. C. R. Station yesterday afternoon by Marshal Forster for stealing various articles in Bathurst. The arrest was made in accordance with a telegram received from Sheriff Blanchard. The youth was evidently a novice in the business for he was arrested standing in a very unconcerned position at the gentlemen's waiting room door. A constable arrived on the Quebec express this morning and took him back to Bathurst. The young fellow has been working at the Keary House, Bathurst, for several months, and notwithstanding that Mr. James Keary's gold watch and a revolver disappeared he was not suspected. He had a best girl and one night recently showed her the watch, and before leaving the house took an overcoat belonging to a man named Boudreau. The girl, it appears, gave the theft away. The prisoner admits his guilt and says he will have to suffer for the wrong he did. —Transcript. —On the evening of Sept. 26th, a number of guests assembled at the residence of Mr. D. Crocker, Derby, to witness the marriage of his niece, Miss Rosina Gray, (daughter of the late Jas. Gray, of Chatham) to Mr. Wm. Allison, of Derby. Rev. T. G. Johnston tied the nuptial knot. Miss A. G. McIntosh, of Chatham Head, acted as bridesmaid and the groom was ably supported by Mr. J. Betts. The bride looked charming in a gown of pearl grey crepon and satin, and carried a beautiful bouquet of sweet peas and chrysanthemums. The bridesmaid was becomingly attired in pink cashmere and satin trimmings. After a recherche supper had been served the happy pair repaired to their residence followed by showers of rice and the good wishes of all. The esteem in which the bride is deservedly held was amply shown by the number of handsome and useful presents of which she was the recipient. Among them was a cheque for $50.00 from her uncle, Mr. Peter Gray, of Boston. The groom presented both bride and bridesmaid with handsome gold pins. —Com.
