BORROWED MIRTH.

"Is it wrong to cheat a lawyer?"
 "No; but it's next to impossible."

Teacher—What does your father work at, Johnny? Johnny O'Shea—He don't work at nuttin'; he's a policeman. See?
 —Brooklyn Eagle.

He—Why are you forever roasting Charley Fenderson? Sue—Simply because he isn't half baked.—Boston Evening Transcript.

The new parlor maid—Miss Alice says she's not home, sir. He—Oh—er—really! Then tell her I didn't call.—Boston Budget.

She—You say you love me, but I doubt it. What you take for love is merely a disease. He—I wish it were contagious.—New York World.

Jackson—Say, old man, you're looking well. By the way, I was out to the races yesterday. Jones—I'm sorry, but so was I.—Cincinnati Tribune.

Pawson—Why does De Smythe hesitate so when he is talking? His he an impediment in his speech? Dawson—No; in his mind.—Brooklyn Life.

Debtor—I can't pay you anything this month. Collector—That's what you told me last month. Debtor—Well, I kept my word, didn't I?—Tid-Bits.

"The young man with Miss Millions is the one she is in love with." Flo—Yes, and now where is the one she intends to marry?—Chicago Inter-Ocean.

"Alas!" sighed the sack coat, as it looked up humbly to the silk hat towering above it on the street. "I fear I was not cut out for a gentleman."—Indianapolis Journal.

The gas—You and I don't stand much of a snow when there are a pair of spoony lovers around, do we? The lamp—No; get turned down every time.—Buffalo Courier.

"That fortune teller must have thought I was an heir." "Why, dear?" "She said I was to marry a poet and live happy ever afterward."—Indianapolis Journal.

Fanning—Great Scott! You a lady-killer! Manning—Yes. Why, a lady on the street ran up to-day, kissed me, and then cried because I was not her husband.—Life.

Mr. Hicks—Are you sure that you married me for myself alone? Hicks—Of course. Having your mother to live with us was not strictly an idea of mine.—Harlem Life.

Hubby—Well, I guess I'll have a shave. Willy—Wait till Willie leaves the room. It is so hard to break him of bad words when once he gets started on them.—New York Herald.

Author—I'm troubled with insomnia. I lie awake at night, hour after hour, thinking about my literary work. Friend—Why don't you get up and read portions of it?—Tid-Bits.

Conductor (stumbling in the aisle)—Are these your feet, sir? Passenger—Yes, sir. Conductor (sarcastically)—You should have had them checked.—P. & S. S. C.'s Bulletin.

Little Girl—You will have to buy me a new waterproof, some overshoes and an umbrella. Mother—What's the hurry? Little Girl—I'm invited to a picnic next week.—Good News.

"Are you going away for the summer?" asked the New York reporter. "Why?" exclaimed the prominent politician, anxiously, "who's getting ready to investigate now?"—Washington Star.

First sweet young thing—How can you endure that horrid Will Emptyn? He is such a dullard. Second sweet young thing—Yes, he is a dullard, but he is also dollared.—Indianapolis Journal.

"Do you believe that animal life undergoes constant changes in the process of evolution?" "Certainly. Haven't all the young women you knew last winter become summer girls?"—Chicago Record.

"Why do you say 'Drop down?' No, thing can drop any other way." "Yes, my dear fellow, but only two days ago you asked me to drop 'up' and call on you at your apartments."—Philadelphia Call.

Philanthropist—If I were to give you this half dollar, what would you say? Everett West—I'd say nothing and—Gee! But I come mighty near putting my foot in it that time.—Indianapolis Journal.

Blobbs—I know a man who has no time to eat, and yet he isn't doing anything. Slobbs—How's that? Blobbs—He argues that time is money, and as he has no money he has no time.—Philadelphia Record.

She—George, on thinking it over, I've come to feel sure that I was the one to blame in our quarrel. He—Yes, dear. Sue (testily)—Oh, you think so, do you? Who told you so much?—Chicago Record.

Johnny—Pop, what does this 'go to mean in Shakespeare? Mr. Briggs—That's the only way the old-time printers could set it up. The two-er dash was not invented in these days.—Cincinnati Tribune.

"There is more pleasure in giving than receiving," was the proverb that a mother was trying to instill into a youthful mind. "That's true about castor oil, mother," was the answer she got.—New York Advertiser.

This is an amendment added in the senate, intended to have special reference to the stumpage regulations in the Dominion.

All wool is made free.

Peculiar to Itself.

So eminently successful has Hood's Sarsaparilla been that many leading citizens from all over the United States furnish testimonials of cures which seem almost miraculous. Hood's Sarsaparilla is not an accident, but the ripe fruit of industry and study. It possesses merit "peculiar to itself."

Hood's Pills cure Nausea, Sick Headache, Indigestion, Biliousness. Sold by all druggists.

Intercolonial Conference.

One of the most interesting paragraphs in Her Majesty's speech closing the British parliament on Saturday, had reference to Canada. "I have learned with satisfaction," Her Majesty said, "that the proceedings at the Ottawa conference were of a character calculated to strengthen the union of the colonies concerned, both among themselves and with the mother country." It is significant that in Imperial documents having reference to colonial affairs, Her Majesty's possessions in America, once treated as of little consequence, now play the most prominent part.

Toronto, Ontario.

As Well as Ever

After Taking Hood's Sarsaparilla

Cured of a Serious Disease.

"I was suffering from what is known as Bright's disease for five years, and for days at a time I have been unable to straighten myself up. I was in bed for three weeks; during that time I had leeches applied and derived no benefit. Seeing Hood's Sarsaparilla advertised in the papers I decided to try a bottle. I found relief before I had finished taking half of a bottle. I got so much help from taking the first bottle that I decided to try another, and since taking the second bottle I feel as well as ever I did in my life." GEO. MERRETT, Toronto, Ont.

In Dreadful Condition

Almost a Complete Wreck After the Grip

Can Hardly Express Sufficient Gratitude to Hood's Sarsaparilla.

"C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.:"

"Dear Sirs—I felt it my duty to let you know the good Hood's Sarsaparilla has done for me. I have been troubled with summer complaint for years, unable to do anything. I tried everything but seemed to get no relief. Then I became a victim of the grip and was left in a dreadful state, so weak I could scarcely work and when I did I worked in misery. The doctor said I had Bright's disease. My kidneys were in dreadful condition. I found one of your papers at my door, and on reading it decided to give Hood's Sarsaparilla a trial, thinking at the time it was not much use as nothing helped me before. But, thank God, I got relief after the first bottle. I kept on taking it and used five bottles; am now a cured man; never felt better. I have loudly recommended Hood's Sarsaparilla, for I owe my life to it and hope this may be the means of leading others to give it a fair trial." JOSHUA SMITH, Norwich Ave., Woodstock, Ontario.

Hood's Pills cure liver ills, constipation, jaundice, biliousness, sick headache, indigestion.
