formerly presided over the Richibucto Episcopal congregation and whose conversion to the Baptist faith was announced a short time ago, there are unregenerate men even among preachers. At a meeting he related his experience, in substance as follows:—

I was a clergyman ten years before I was converted, although I was zealous as I then saw the truth, being a regular high churchman. During the last summer I was at Old Orchard Beach and in company with a fellow clergyman I chanced to go to the camp meeting ground. I was deeply impressed, although there were many things said to which I could not respond amen. After listening awhile my friend said, "this is blasphemous; let's go back."

A Remarkable Event.

An event which has been the talk of the town for some weeks is the cure of Mr. Edward White, whose sufferings from Salt Rheum (Eczema) were well known. Mr. White's statement is as follows: For 12 years previous to the last few months I have been a sufferer of the worst kind from Salt Rheum. I tried twelve different doctors, besides many patent medicines but received no benefit, but gradually became worse.

Greenville, Maine.

OCT. 14.—As I have not seen any Greenville notes, I take this opportunity to send a few items. Times have been very dull here for the last year, but we must remember it is Democrat rule.

Building has been quite brisk in this town this summer. John Jardine has built a fine house, E. McEachern has built a very large house, and also Mack Rioley. They are all from New Brunswick.

I am glad to note that Allen P. McKendrick has arrived from Bangor where he has been learning the barber trade. He is running a fine shop of his own now and is doing quite well.

I hear that the new bar-tender in West Cove, D. Barnes, has got disgusted with the business and has gone back to his old trade in the bush.

There are a number of girls in this town from Kent, and I take notice that Miss T. from Main River has learned to say "how" since she came to Maine. The steambot captain appears to be a favorite of hers.

Our boarding master, of West Cove, is about to part with his only daughter who is expected to be married soon to Mr. McD. of Main River.

Some of our young men got a New Hampshire fever this fall, but in the course of a day the fever cooled down and we have them with us yet.

Our enterprising school teacher from Bass River has changed his occupation and is going to flee to the bush before long.

There is quite a large stroke of lumbering here this winter owing to the hard times. P. G. Bursley & Co., started a large force a few weeks ago. They left Greenville with a crew of twenty men and thirty tons of supplies.

Mr. William Wilbur has a lot of extra hands employed in his shop to fill a large order for boots, harness, &c.

There is a great demand for clams. Some parties are doing a good thing at it. Miss Maggie McEachern leaves for Boston on Monday. O. K.

THE MODEL WIFE AND DIAMOND DYES.

A model wife can realize Great benefits from Diamond Dyes; No matter what her family's size; She dollars saves by Diamond Dyes; She happy makes her children's lives; By using often Diamond Dyes; Her home is bright as cloudless skies; Because she uses Diamond Dyes; All other brands she must despise; When she can choose the Diamond Dyes; Her faded dress she deftly tries; To renovate with Diamond Dyes; Her husband's coats, vests, pants and ties are soon renewed with Diamond Dyes; At Fair this year she took the prize; For goods dyed with the Diamond Dyes; She causes wonder and surprise; By tinting walls with Diamond Dyes; She with the artist often vies; By coloring maps with Diamond Dyes; She's economical and wise; This comes through using Diamond Dyes; Good-nature sparkles in her eyes; Because she's helped by Diamond Dyes; On those grand colors she relies; She knows the best are Diamond Dyes.

Buctouche Notes.

OCT. 22.—Last week the schools were closed two days to enable the teachers to attend the county institute.

Oliver V. White has the contract for building new out-buildings for the school. There is to be a social dance at Mrs. McManus' to-night.

Messrs. A. J. Gorman, and Rusk, were in town to-day.

Messrs. Jas. Grattan, and C. White, of Pt. du Chene, spent Sunday in Buctouche.

C. S. Webster has finished his summer's work on board the tug "Victor," and has returned home.

Mrs. J. D. Murray of Redbank, is visiting Mrs. H. C. Murray.

Miss Bertie Curren is visiting her mother Mrs. Abbott, of Kingston.

Messrs. Hall and Johnson of Cocagne, spent Sunday at the Bay View.

Miss Marie Bourque spent Sunday with her parents Mr. and Mrs. V. Bourque.

Miss Oulette, of Shediac, is visiting Miss Fannie Gouard.

Gilbert Bourque has left for Moncton to work in the machine shops.

Mrs. Boudreau has her fall stock of millinery on hand and her shop windows present a fine appearance.

The Presbyterians are to hold a goose supper in Barnes' Hall on Thursday evening.

Rev. Mr. Hackenley preached very acceptably on Sunday morning in St. Lawrence Church.

D. P. Gallant is building a new barn.

The southern approach to the draw-bridge which was repaired this Spring, should be attended to, as it now has a vertical drop of six inches.

The train is expected across the river this week or first of next.

Other changes on the B. & M. railway are being talked of, but not yet made public.

Adam T. Coates has handled 1200 cords of bark this summer, the largest amount ever handled by one man from this port.

Poor Digestion

Leads to nervousness, fretfulness, peevishness, chronic Dyspepsia and great misery. Hood's Sarsaparilla is the remedy. It tones the stomach creates an appetite, and gives a relish to food. It makes pure blood and gives healthy action to all organs of the body. Take Hood's for Hood's Sarsaparilla CURES.

Hood's PILLS become the favorite cathartic with every one who tries them. 25c.

Dixon's Point & Vicinity.

OCT. 19.—The tug Alice towed the schooner Minnow up to the bridge where she loaded with bark. The captain and helping hands were amazed to see the way the bark was put aboard. It went down to them faster than they could handle it.

There has been quite a lot of building done around here this summer Mr. John Sheridan built a fine barn, and Mr. Peter Nowlan put up a barn eighty feet long. Mr. Dennis Ryan has moved one of his barns around in a better position, which makes quite an improvement in his place.

The bay has been pretty clear of boats lately owing to the high wind which is blowing every day.

Mr. Matthew Smith had a very enjoyable visit to Pictou lately.

Mr. Frank Burke has purchased the stand formerly owned by H. E. Robicheau and is keeping store in it.

Mr. William Wilbur has a lot of extra hands employed in his shop to fill a large order for boots, harness, &c.

There is a great demand for clams. Some parties are doing a good thing at it. Miss Maggie McEachern leaves for Boston on Monday. O. K.

Kent County Teachers' Institute.

The Teachers of Kent Co., convened in annual session in the schoolroom at Kingston, Oct. 18 and 19, 1894. The following teachers enrolled:—

- Mr. H. T. Colpitts, Richibucto. Miss Isabelle J. Caie, " Mary J. McRoberts, " Teresa A. McDonald, " Mina Belle Farrer, "

- " Ella McNairn, Wellington. " Mary R. McLean, Richibucto. Mrs. Agnes Girvan, " Miss Sarah Jane Aresnault, " " Vitalie J. Maillet, " " Lizzie F. McLean, " " Eliza A. Oulton, Harcourt. " Elizabeth Sutton, Kingston. " Celine Bourque, Wellington. " Christina E. Fraser, Richibucto. " Annie Foster, Weldford. " Sadie E. Masterton, Harcourt. " Grace A. Warman, Weldford. " Lucy Chrystal, " " Marie C. Barrieau, St. Louis. " Marguerite Barrieau, Acadiaville. " Marie E. Richard, Richibucto. Judson B. Clarke, " W. V. Goodwin, Harcourt. " Chas. O. Main, Weldford. " Martin L. Richard, Acadiaville. " Mary Chrystal, Richibucto. Mrs. Allanach, " A. E. Pearson, Wellington. " Geo. Smith, Inspector.

The chair was taken by the President, Inspector Smith, who in a very appropriate address welcomed the Teachers to the Institute. He pointed out to them the necessity of Teachers keeping themselves abreast with the times by reading carefully, educational papers and by getting information from every event taking place around them in life.

The first thing on the programme for the second session was a "Nature Lesson." This was given to seven of her pupils by Miss I. J. Caie. She made it very practical and instructive to the Institute after which a discussion took place on the following topic, "Importance of the development of the moral nature of the pupil." The discussion was opened by W. V. Goodwin in an appropriate speech, and participated in by Miss Oulton, Miss Mary McLean, Miss Sutton, A. E. Pearson, J. B. Clarke, Charles Main, H. T. Colpitts and the President. All emphasized the fact that the moral nature of the child ought to be developed not so much by making morals a particular subject to be taught at stated periods, but incidentally as occasion may require.

The third session failed to materialize, as speakers to entertain a public audience for the evening, were not available.

The fourth session opened at 9 a. m. on Friday, with the vice President in the chair. "The value of dictation in early education," was the title of a good paper read by Charles Main. This was followed by a lesson on "Number," given to five small children by Miss Mary Chrystal for the benefit of the Institute. Her method of teaching this subject elicited quite an animated discussion, but was highly commended.

The fifth session was opened with the paper, "Compulsory attendance in schools," by A. E. Pearson. Mr. Pearson clearly shewed in his excellent paper that our schools can only be made efficient by children being compelled to attend school a certain part of the year at least. A discussion was then opened by J. B. Clarke on the "Practical utility and method of teaching Geometry in the 8 grade." Mr. Clarke gave some admirable hints with regard to how the young may be made to comprehend the difficulties of this subject.

The election of officers then took place with the following results: H. T. Colpitts, President; Miss M. Edgar, vice President; A. E. Pearson, Secty.-Trea.; Miss I. J. Caie and W. V. Goodwin were elected additional members of the Executive Committee. Votes of thanks were then tendered as follows: To the citizens of Kingston for their hospitality in entertaining the members of the Institute, to H. M. Ferguson for the special interest he took in aiding the Executive in their duties, to the Kent Northern and I. C. R. Railways for carrying Teachers to and from the Institute at one fare, to J. D. Phinney, Esq., M. P. P., for his kind words of interest and sympathy as expressed in the following letter which had been previously read before the Institute:—

H. T. Colpitts, Esq., Secty. Kent County Teachers' Institute: Richibucto, Oct. 17, 1894.

DEAR SIR.—I very much regret that I find it impossible to attend either the sessions of your Institute or the public educational meeting on Thursday evening. I require to leave for St. John, to-morrow, and will have to forego the pleasure which I have always had, and would no doubt again experience in attending the annual gathering of the Kent County Teachers.

Apart from the interest which every citizen should feel in the work of our Common Schools and the education of the young generally, I have a large measure of sympathy with the teaching profession in their important and, I regret to say, too often ill requited labor, and I would gladly do anything in my power to encourage them in their duties, and assist in arousing increased public interest in the work of our Common Schools, the importance of which cannot be over-estimated.

Please convey to your President, officers and members of the Institute my regrets because of my enforced absence from your meetings, and with best wishes for your success, and the prosperity of the Kent County Teachers.

Believe me, Very truly yours, J. D. PHINNEY. The Institute then adjourned to meet in Richibucto on the third Thursday and Friday in September, 1895.

Trust What Time Has Endorsed

Since A. D. 1810.

There is not a medicine in use today which possesses the confidence of the public to so great an extent as JOHNSON'S ANODYNE LINIMENT. For more than eighty years it has stood upon its own intrinsic merit, while generation after generation have used it and transmitted the knowledge of its excellence to their children as a valuable inheritance. The best evidence of its value is the fact that in the state where it originated the sale of it is steadily increasing.

I. S. JOHNSON, Esq., My Dear Sir:—Fifty years ago this month your father, Dr. Johnson, called at my store and left me some Johnson's Anodyne Liniment on sale. I have sold it ever since. I can most truly say that it has maintained its high standard and popularity from that time to this. JOHN B. RAND, North Waterford, Maine, Jan., 1891.

I have used your Johnson's Anodyne Liniment for more than fifty years in my family. I have used it for colds, coughs, sore throat, slings, cramps, sore stomach, rheumatism, lameness, colic, toothache, neuralgia, etc., and found it always good every way. I would not let my house be without it. I am a man 71 years old. I have used it in my family for sprains, coughs, colds, lame back, and consider it the best. THOMAS CLELAND, So. Robinson, Me. JAMES KNOWLTON, Newburg, Me.

BURDOCK BLOOD BITTERS. THREE RUNNING SORES PHYSICIANS FAILED BUT B. B. B. CURED

A SCALY ERUPTION UNENDURABLE ITCHING Suffered Three Years—Now Perfectly Cured by B. B. B. GENTLEMEN—I have used Burdock Blood Bitters for Skin Diseases, from which I have been a sufferer for three years. I have used six bottles and am now entirely cured. I tried other remedies, such as Donald Kennedy's Medical Discovery and the Cuticura Remedies, but all to no good. I doctored one year with the best physicians in the land; they pronounced me incurable, but I did not remove it. I could not get over my skin trouble, and it was intolerable, but I was now completely cured, and I owe it all to B. B. B. GEO. TRIBE, Stratfordville, Ont.
