Mr. P. Grey of Salsbury, was at the Kent Hotel, Tuesday.
Robbin's Circus will show in Richibucto on the 25th of July.
Mr. J. Ferguson returned Thursday from a trip to Shediac and Port Fligon.
The publication of "Eric Brighteyes," one of Rider Haggard's most popular novels, will begin in THE REVIEW this week. Read it.
Forest fires are raging in Kouchibouguac. On Monday it was feared that a quantity of hemlock bark would be destroyed but fortunately the fire did not reach it.
The I. C. R. summer time table went into effect, Monday. The accommodation for Moncton will leave Kent Junction at 11.57, the accommodation for Campbellton at 12.48.
The barn of Mr. Thomas Spencer on the north side of the Canaan Road was destroyed by fire on Sunday last week. It was insured for $150.00 in the Eastern Assurance Co.
The thermometer which registered 93° in the shade, Saturday forenoon, dropped very rapidly about noon, and in the evening it was cold enough for overcoats and fires.
The barque Valona, went outside, Thursday, to complete her loading. She will probably be loaded and able to proceed to sea this week. Her crew arrived from St. John.
It is reported Mr. Thos. Atkinson has received from Mr. Charles Fawcett, of Sackville, the contract for completing the Glenn building, adjoining the Central Hotel, Harcourt.
Two trains left Moncton, Monday evening with the St. Anne de Beaupre pilgrims. Mr. Henry O'Leary, of Buctouche, accompanied the party to report the proceedings for the New York Herald.
Dr. Olliqui, acting under the direction of the department of Indian affairs, has been vaccinating the Indians of Big Cove and Indian Island. Dr. King has been performing the same operation on the Indians of Buctouche.
Lobster packers at Richibucto Cape and other points along the coast are taking up their traps although the season does not close till the middle of next month. The catch has been very small and packers have been losing money.
Dry weather still continues and farmers are calling out for rain. Local showers have helped to relieve the drought along the coast, but up the rivers there has been no rain and the hay crop is very light. The grain crops look well but rain is badly needed.
Mr. R. P. Doherty and Mr. C. N. Cummings visited Tweedie's Brook Friday and returned with some fine trout. Mr. Cummings struck the trail of a bear and pursued it for some distance. Bruin, however, did not seem inclined to seek acquaintance with his visitors and the chase was given up.
President Carnot, of France, was assassinated in Lyons Saturday night by an anarchist. He was stabbed to the heart and died almost immediately. The assassin was arrested. The president left Paris on Saturday for Lyons, to visit the exhibition. He was leaving a Lyons theatre when stabbed to death.
The teachers of the Richibucto schools are busy this week grading the pupils. Grading examinations were held in the Primary department, Monday. Thirteen pupils were sent to the Intermediate department. Miss McRoberts sends the same number to the Advanced school. The schools close Friday, for the midsummer vacation.
The ten year old son of Mr. William Long had his arm badly bitten by a dog last Thursday. His dog and a dog belonging to Thomas Bradley were fighting and the little fellow was trying to separate them when the Bradley dog seized him by the arm, biting and tearing it fearfully. Mr. Bourque sewed up and dressed the wound. The dog was shot.
The Sackville Post says:—"The Athletic Concert last Saturday evening was a success beyond expectation. Mr. Frank Barber, gold medalist of last year is certainly a wonder. Probably no more skillful athlete amateur or professional has appeared on the stage in Sackville. Tumbling, in call thenics and in balancing alike he won round after round of applause. Mr. W. W. Costin for several years instructor in the Academy gymnasium and at St. Joseph's College is a type rather of strength than agility. Master Charlie Harrison, son of Principal Harrison of the Academy, is a veritable "infant phenomenon." He accomplishes feats with all the coolness and nearly all the perfection of his comrades."
The University Concert Company of Mount Allison, begins the season in Temperance Hall, Monday evening. This company is just starting on a tour through Northern New Brunswick, Quebec Ontario, and the West. Gymnasium work on the stage is the great feature of the entertainment and many novelties in this line are introduced. But in addition a very high class musical entertainment is given. Mr. J. McDonald, violinist, Mr. Robert Gordon, cornet soloist and violinist, and Mr. James Patterson, tenor soloist with banjo accompaniment hold first place among musicians of the Maritime Provinces. No doubt the anticipation of the tricks on the trapeze, high-bar, parallel bars and in tumbling by Messrs. Costin and Barber, will draw the house. Master Charlie Harrison, aged 10, son of Principal Harrison, with his wonderful feats in tumbling will also no doubt be a great feature. Reserved seats tickets are now on sale at R. Phinney's

The New Glasgow Enterprise in giving an account of the work and volume of business done by the Hopewell Manufacturing Co., attributes a measure of the success of the Company "to the push and energetic tact of the manager, George McMinn." Mr. McMinn assumed the management last spring.
Mr. J. McDonald, of Miller Bros., Moncton, who recently won such flattering notice in the Moncton press concerning his wonderful feats on the violin in the Band concert, will assist in the entertainment given by the University Concert Company of Mount Allison, in Temperance Hall, Monday evening. No one can afford to miss it. Seats on sale at R. Phinney's.
The first copy of the Station Sheet drafted by the Methodist Conference, shows the following appointments for the Miramichi District:—Chatham—George Steel; Newcastle—N. McLaughlan; Derby—Harry Pena; Richibucto—J. S. Allen; Buctouche—Wm. C. Matthews; Harcourt—I. W. McConnell; Bathurst—Joseph Seller; Campbellton—W. A. Thomson.

Dalhousie is agitated over a stabbing case A. J. LeBlanc, who is a J. P. and county councillor, and is said to be an aspirant for legislative honors, has been committed for trial at the County Court for inflicting a severe wound on Geo. Barberie with a screw-driver. Barberie, it appears, went to LeBlanc's shop and asked for a drink. LeBlanc refused to give it to him, and then there was a fight, ending in LeBlanc cutting Barberie with the screw driver.—Globe.
The Campbellton correspondent of Progress writes:—"The first picnic of the season was given on Thursday last by Miss Sadie Sowerby, in honor of her guest, Miss Maggie Coates of Kingston. The party met at the "Lansdowne" at four o'clock and walked back to one of the prettiest nooks a short distance from the town, where a most tempting tea was, as it is in such cases, most heartily enjoyed. The picnicers returned home about eight, merrily discussing the delight of an afternoon spent in the cool and shady woods.

Abbie, or Mary McGrath, a Moncton Salvation army lassie, is suing one George Grey for a breach of promise. Mary is fifty years old, and several years the senior of her widowed lover, who deserted her for a damsel of eighteen summers. She claims to have loved not wisely, but too well, and for some time occupied the same dwelling as her lover, who removed his furniture to her house for a time. Grey is a young widower, employed in the Intercolonial shops. Mary claims one thousand dollars a year for her blighted affections.

Forster's Almont Wilkes

This horse is standard bred under rule 6, foaled 1890, is a beautiful bay with black points, stands 15 1/2 hands, weight 1000 lbs. He traces to "George Wilkes," the founder of the Wilkes family, through his sire Conns "Harry Wilkes" which is son of "George Wilkes" and sire of Forster's Harry Wilkes, who traces to "Almont" through "Gen Withers" 1157, through his dam "Isawood." Gen Withers is by "Almont and sire of "Isawood." "Almont" is by "Alexander's Abdallah" by "Rysdyk's Hambletonian." "George Wilkes" is by "Rysdyk's Hambletonian." A writer states that according to Clark's horse-review 628 trotters and pacers in the 2.20 list, trace to "Alexander's Abdallah" either through sire or dam, 214 of which are descendants of "Almont." Yet it is claimed the "Wilkes" family take the lead. Conns Harry Wilkes is sire W. Rosalend Wilkes, 2.14 and three others in the list. "Isawood" also traces to the "Messengers," her dam "Jen," being by "Young Eucanahan," 9898, 2.29 1/2, second dam by "Matchless," a thoroughbred with 2 in the list, third dam, by the sire of "Belle Strickland" by the "Witherell horse" by "Winthrop Messenger." Season ten dollars. For further particulars see posters. Wm. Forster, Galloway.

CITATION.

NEW BRUNSWICK COUNTY OF KENT.

TO THE SHERIFF OF THE COUNTY OF KENT, OR ANY CONSTABLE IN THE SAID COUNTY, GREETING:—

Whereas, Edward T. Gandet, Pierre A. Legere, and Elise Legere, executors and executrix of the estate of the late Edward H. Legere, deceased, have filed an account of the administration of the estate of the said deceased and have prayed that the heirs and next of kin and all others interested in the estate of the said deceased may be cited to attend the passing and allowing of the said account. You are therefore required to cite the said heirs, next of kin, and all others interested in the said estate to appear before me at a Court of Probate to be held at Richibucto in the said county, on TUESDAY, the SEVENTH DAY OF AUGUST, next, at 11 o'clock, a. m., at the office of the registrar of probates for the passing and allowing of the account of the said executors and executrix.

Given under my hand and the seal of the said court this twenty-first day of June, A. D. 1894. (Sgd) HENRY H. JAMES, Judges of Probate in and for the County of Kent. (Sgd) C. RICHARDSON, Registrar.
