PRICE 25 CENTS.

Richibucto.

I stand by my opened window,
And the moon with a misty light,
Looks down on the frozen river
And the earth in her dress of white.
On the graveyard, where the pioneers
With sorrow laid their dead
The low, grey stones that for ninety years
Have guarded their lowly bed.

I see the horizon bounded by
The dark Canadian pines,
That reach like sentinels heavenward
In the moonbeams misty shine.
My eyes stray back and I see again
The graveyard lying near,
And through the birch tree's leafless
branch,
The village lights shine clear.

The friends that are to memory dear,
The quiet, narrow streets,
The hall where in the long ago
The "Templars" used to meet.
The church where we went to worship,
The square old-fashioned pew,
The silver headed preacher
All comes again to view.

The lights through the trees recalls the place
Where my sunniest hours were spent,
The peaceful homes and quiet ways,
Teach the lesson of content.
And as I draw the curtains back,
And close the window down,
I pray, God bless my native place,
God bless the dear old Town.

Adamsville, Kent Co.

APRIL 2.—Last week was a favorable one for the wood business. Snow storms at intervals with a piercing cold, which put the roads in a fair condition. The wood was hauled on an extensive scale.

Mr. William Basterache, our chief exporter of cord-wood, has lately gone to Moncton on a business transaction. In an interview with him he says that cord-wood is in great demand, and that he expects to ship many more car loads. Mr. Basterache has two men at work chopping for him.

Our young teacher, Master Ephraim D. Cormier, was very much surprised one morning recently on entering the school-room to find his chair occupied by Inspector of Schools. After a critical inspection, Mr. Smith took the accommodation for Harcourt.

Mr. Wesley McAnn of Moncton, paid us a flying visit lately. Mr. McAnn was once a resident of Coal Branch as "Station-master," but is now running a lumber business in Moncton. It is said his trip here was the result of a trick played on him.

Every Sunday evening, and sometimes in the week, a suspicious character with a black mustache is seen on the railway track, going south. Mr. Section-foreman, we would like to know if the Regulations of the Railway Act permit those walkings and "go and come" on the track. Look out for the cow-catcher, Mr. So-and-so.

Mr. Bonabriz, of this locality, has been ill of la grippe and sore eyes, for a few days. We wish him a speedy recovery. Mr. Bonabriz is one of our most enterprising young men, and a long serious illness would be very much regretted by our interesting parties.

One of our young misses, Miss O'Brien, has just come back from Harcourt where she has been part of the winter. We hope some others will follow her example.

WOOD-PICKER.

DEAR SIRS,—I had been using Burdock Blood Bitters for boils and skin diseases, and I find it very good as a cure. As a dyspepsia cure I have also found it unequaled.

MRS. SARAH HAMILTON,

Harcourt.

APRIL 2nd.—Mr. J. B. Humphrey, who has been confined to his house for the past week, is able to be around again. During his illness, his position as station master was filled by his son, F. J. Humphrey, of Campbellton.

Miss Watton and Miss Spicer, of Mount Allison, spent the Easter vacation with the latter's sister, Mrs. McConnell.

Mrs. R. Saubier's many friends will be pleased to hear she is recovering from her recent illness.

Mr. W. V. Goodwin returned from Bale

Verte, on Monday night, where he had been spending his short vacation. The good sleighing of last week was enjoyed by a number of our young people. We would suggest to some of our young men that they stick to the sleigh in the future.

Miss Loggie and Miss Wright, of Chatham, who were spending a few days at Wathena Cottage, returned home on Tuesday night.

Mr. Geo. Irving, of Providence, R. I., is visiting friends in this vicinity.

The public thank-offering entertainment in connection with the Women's Missionary Society, which took place on the evening of Easter Monday, was considered by all present a complete success. The programme consisting of music, readings, essays, recitations, etc., was both interesting and beneficial. Special mention might be made of Miss Watton's recital, "Genevieve," which was rendered in a manner that charmed the listeners. The collection and thank offerings amounted to something like $11.

Nicholas River.

Some of our enterprising farmers are about starting a cheese and butter factory at Nicholas River Bridge. Se wish them success.

Mr. Adam Stothart's saw mill will soon commence sawing, under the efficient management of Mr. Andrew Warren.

We hear that Mr. John McLean contemplates going West. We wish him success.

The public will be pleased to learn that Mr. A. Little has procured an agency for Egyptian tea, the wonderful remedy for dyspepsia.

Miss Lizzie Manzer caught a fine trout in the East Branch stream, weighing 24 pounds.

Mr. William Handrahen and Mr. John Mitchell have taken their departure for Nova Scotia.

Rev. J. S. Allen will preach at Mill Creek on Friday night, at 6:30; Sunday, Molus River, 10:30 a. m.; Kingston, 3 p. m.; Richibucto, 7 p. m.

Bass River.

APRIL 2, 1891.—Mr. W. W. Robertson and Mr. M. Hanson have taken their departure for Boston. Some of the fair sex are somewhat grieved over their departure.

The winter has seemed very long on account of the deep snow and the stagnation in the lumber business.

I think the mills around here will be idle a good part of the season.

Mr. John Pine and family have moved here and occupies the house lately occupied by Samuel Horton.

One of our young gentlemen visits Harcourt frequently with his black trotter.

MARCH 30.—A basket social was held here Easter Monday evening, for the benefit of Mr. Slipper. Quite a number were present, including some sports from Harcourt and Bass River. The highest basket was Miss Mina Cail's. The neat sum of $23.00 was realized.

Easter, as a general rule comes but once a year, but we are fortunate enough to have it two or three times a week especially since the social.

The crust is getting rather bad now, Jack, you can't take such long walks.

The snow balls were flying rather plentifully the night of the meeting.

Too bad, Abbie. How does it feel to be left?

Our teacher, Miss Chrystal, was not present at the social, as she was attending the Easter Ball in Newcastle. She returned to her school, Wednesday morning.

The ice is rather bad now for turning at the head of the tide.

Miss Elizabeth Batts is visiting Mrs. Robert Lawson.

Miss Sarah Lawson returned from her visit to Mr. Farrer's, in time for the social.

Miss Bertie Cail has recovered from a severe attack of gripe.

Mr. Erwin Hamilton is very sick with an attack of gripe.
