THE JUDICATURE ACT.

A meeting of the Barristers Society of New Brunswick will be held to-day in the city of Saint John, for the discussion of the bill submitted to the legislature last session by which it is proposed to simplify and amend the rules of practice and procedure in the Courts of the province.

Montreal Gazette: One of the oldest, as one of the ablest, of Canada's newspaper men has passed away by the death of Mr. John Livingstone. He was a vigorous writer, had a wide store of information, and understood every department of a newspaper's work.

Montreal Witness: Mr. Livingstone's name as a journalist was known throughout Canada. He wielded a ready pen as a political writer, and since his return to Montreal has been a frequent contributor to the columns of the Witness, his last article appearing on the day of his death.

St. John Sun: The Sun to-day has to perform the painful duty of announcing the sudden death of its first editor. Those who knew the Sun in the time of the campaigns of 1878 and 1882 do not need to be told that Mr. Livingstone was in those days one of the most vigorous and effective political journalists in the Dominion.

RELIEF IN SIX HOURS.—Distressing Kidney and Bladder diseases relieved in six hours by the "GREAT SOUTH AMERICAN KIDNEY CURE." This new remedy is a great surprise and delight on account of its exceeding promptness in relieving pain in the bladder, kidneys, back and every part of the urinary passages in male or female.

Black River and Kouchibouguac River. FEB. 13.—Having seen no notes from your correspondent in this part of the country, I thought I would let THE REVIEW readers know that the folks are all well in spite of the many snow storms.

Mr. Ruben Kelly lost a smelt net this winter. He looked for it a couple of days but could not find it. He dreamed about it a few nights ago, and went next morning but he got no net. Ruben says he doesn't believe in dreams any more.

THE result of the prohibition plebiscite has evidently alarmed the anti-prohibitionists and aroused them to action. The initial number of The Advocate a journal to be devoted to the interests of the liquor manufacturers and dealers has been received at this office. It is published in Toronto and is under the management of Mr. Louis P. Kribe, a German, who has been doing newspaper work in Canada for some years.

TRIBUTES TO MR. JOHN LIVINGSTONE.

The death of Mr. John Livingstone has called forth expressions of regret from almost every quarter of the Dominion. All the leading journals refer to him in the most kindly manner. The following are the editorial utterances of some of the leading ones:—

Montreal Herald: In the older generation of the Canadian newspaper writers of today, John Livingstone was among the first. His fame in New Brunswick preceded him to the west, where as editor of the Herald he made himself known to the whole Dominion. His work upon the Toronto Empire in the unkindly days of the infancy of the leading conservative organ, struck a tone of moderation which was not maintained after his departure for the northwest, and is only now in course of recovery.

Montreal Gazette: One of the oldest, as one of the ablest, of Canada's newspaper men has passed away by the death of Mr. John Livingstone. He was a vigorous writer, had a wide store of information, and understood every department of a newspaper's work.

Montreal Witness: Mr. Livingstone's name as a journalist was known throughout Canada. He wielded a ready pen as a political writer, and since his return to Montreal has been a frequent contributor to the columns of the Witness, his last article appearing on the day of his death.

St. John Sun: The Sun to-day has to perform the painful duty of announcing the sudden death of its first editor. no bargain about how long he was to have the net. Mrs. Robichaud's evidence corroborated that of her husband. Peter Fountain also gave testimony for the defence. Mr. Robert Murphy addressed the jury for the prosecution for over three hours and a half, and showed them some very good points of law. The jury retired at 1.50 and came out at two, with a verdict for plaintiff for $700 and all costs, which amounted to about $15 against Robichaud.

The Loban case came on next. It was about a gun he seized from David Daigle for taxes. Loban sold the gun and got three dollars and fifteen cents for it, just enough to pay Daigle's taxes and the expenses. Daigle therefore sued Loban for the balance of his gun, and got a verdict of five dollars against Loban. Loban defended himself. Mr. Robert Murphy worked hard on both cases and gained them both. Not too bad for a man that has just commenced to study law.

Fall River, Mass.

FEB. 13.—It gives us great pleasure to read the notes in THE REVIEW from correspondents, and perhaps it may interest some of your readers to hear something from this locality.

A severe snow storm began last evening and it is still snowing. About fifteen inches has fallen, and oh, such drifts!

A party of thirty, chiefly N. B., and P. E. I. boys and girls, hired a cutter and six horses a few evenings ago and drove to New Bedford about thirty miles distant, where a very enjoyable evening was spent.

I see by THE REVIEW that some of the Bass River gallants travel to Molus River. Wish them every success.

I would like to hear from Pansy No. 1, 2, or Calamity. I hope they are not snow bound. Silver-top appears to have left prose and taken to poetry. Good girl, give us some more.

Mrs. S. Allanach has returned from the west and is engaged teaching school. She is in the best of health and spirits.

Her sister, Mrs. J. Thurrot has done well since coming here. She has been promoted to the principalship of one of our schools.

We had a short visit last fall from Mrs. W. Hains. Her stay was short as business called her back to Chatham.

FEB. 15.—To-day it is pouring rain, and sleighing will leave in a hurry.

Mr. Wm. Mundle of St. Nicholas River, made a long visit to Fall River last fall. If the smelt business is a success he talks of returning.

DAISY BELL. Coal Branch.

FEB. 13th.—Judging from the number of teams employed here this winter, things look brisk, notwithstanding the deep snow and the cry of hard times.

Mrs. Andrew Burgeois, while returning home from a neighbors house during the heavy snow squall last Saturday evening, became bewildered by the blinding snow and lost her way. Her cries for help attracted the attention of the inmates of the house she had just left and Mr. Edward Sinton started to her assistance. He found her quite a distance from the road in an almost exhausted condition, and with difficulty assisted her home where she was cared for and is we trust none the worse of her adventure.

We are pleased to see that Mr. Robert Robinson, who was sick for some time at his sister's Mrs. James Little is able to be at work again.

Mrs. Wilson Spencer, who has for some time past been visiting friends in Mass, returned home recently accompanied by her daughter-in-law Mrs. Tom Spencer and family.

Miss Donnelly, of Moncton, is the guest of Mrs. Spencer.

Mr. and Mrs. Cassidy are just now receiving congratulations on the birth of a son.

SARAH JANE.

Marriage of Y. P. Reid. The St. John Gazette of yesterday's date says:—"Trinity church was the scene of a very interesting event at 2.30 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The occasion was the marriage of Miss Louise Fisher daughter of Mr. Wm. Fisher of Fredericton and sister of W. S. Fisher of this city and Mr. Fred P. Reid of F. P. Reid & Co., wholesale grocers of Moncton. There were only a limited number of invited guests present although a large number of young people assembled to witness the ceremony. The bride was attended by Miss Aline Harrison daughter of Prof. Harrison of Fredericton, while Mr. Jack Harris, of Moncton, supported the groom. The bride was attired in a handsome bridal dress of white silk. Arch Deacon Brigstocke performed the ceremony. The happy couple left in the 5.30 train for a tour to Montreal, Ottawa and Quebec. The bride is a most popular young lady and has a large circle of friends in this city where she frequently visits. The groom formerly resided here and his many friends will wish him and Mrs. Reid a long and prosperous life. Congratulations were received yesterday morning from relatives in England. The presents were numerous and costly and included a large amount of solid silverware including a handsome Silver Service. The groom presented the bride with a diamond ring. The happy couple passed through here last night. They were met by several of their Moncton friends and congratulations were in order.

Kent Junction.

The Kent Northern train arrived here Thursday evening from Richibucto, with a crew of sixty shovelers. They remained here over night and started next morning for Richibucto but on account of the engine being disabled Con. Murray decided to leave the train here for the remainder of the winter. Saturday morning the shovelers and train hands strated for home, broken down sports.

Mrs. J. W. Morton paid Harcourt a flying visit Saturday.

Two of our fair "ladies" seem to be greatly troubled about agents going to Rogersville to see two black eyes. Agents spend their sundays at church or reading, not gossiping and painting themselves.

Some of our ladies think it quite fashionable to dress in gents' attire.

Rumor says there is to be a basket social or concert in connection with the Sunday School here.

Bob says some fiddlers can play a tune on one string, but it never makes any one dance.

A story of a doubly sensational hanging comes from Melbourne, Australia. The execution was that of Mrs. Frances Knorr, a woman reported to have conducted on a wholesale scale the murder of infants in connection with a baby-farming scheme. There was great popular feeling against hanging a woman, and William Rerring, the public hangman, who had held office for ten years and conducted fifteen executions, cut his throat with a razor a week before the date of the execution.
