PRICE 25 CENTS.The Alexander Estate.

Mr. John Montgomery and C. A. Palmer, Q. C., acting for the Campbellton agent of some of the creditors, this morning obtained an injunction order from Mr. Justice Palmer in re the Campbellton Alexander estate. It will be remembered that Jas. P. Alexander of that place, made an assignment a short time ago. Tenders for the sale of the stock were called for and were to be opened at noon. A number of the Upper Canada creditors, however, were not satisfied and the application for an injunction is the result of their dissatisfaction. The names of these firms are S. Greenshields Sons & Co., James Smart Manufacturing Co., James Constine & Co. and J. B. Lablarte. The injunction is to restrain Mr. Alexander and S. H. Lingley the trustee from doing anything further with the estate and places H. F. McLatchy, referee in equity, in charge. Judge Palmer telegraphed the referee of his appointment, so that the information would reach him in time prior to the opening of the tender for the stock. The affidavit on which the injunction was granted declared that the trust deed was signed after Alexander had made a confession of judgment and after an execution for a seizure had been issued. It stated that Mr. Alexander at that time was in hiding, but that he appeared on Sunday January 21, and left on the night train for the west and has since been absent from Campbellton. On Tuesday following the store was open and John A. Flett, of Halifax, was in charge and selling goods. Business was carried on in this way for some days but finally some of the creditors had the store closed and for the first time stock was taken. When this was concluded the store was re-opened and selling continued for about a week. Then it was shut down again and tenders asked for the stock. The notice on the shop door stated it would be open again on Monday next. All these proceedings and the fact that Mr. W. A. Mott, the solicitor, is a brother-in-law of trustee, Mr. S. H. Lingley, and that the sheriff is the uncle of Mr. Mott, destroyed the confidence of the creditors and made them look upon the affair as a sort of family deal.—Globe, 17th.

Mr. W. A. Mott, M. P. P., of Campbellton, solicitor of the trustee of the Alexander estate, is at the Royal. To a Globe reporter he said it was intended to fight the present proceedings to oust the trustee. These proceedings he considered not in the best interests of the creditors, and said it was believed they were taken more on behalf of some local people than on behalf of the Montreal creditors. The Referee in Equity now supposed to be in charge, Mr. Mott said, was the law partner of Mr. Murray, at whose instance the proceedings on Saturday were taken, and if the estate went into his hands Mr. Murray would have control. The stock on hand, Mr. Mott said, was worth about $10,000, the book debts were about $10,000, and notes and paper represented $2,000 more. Against the estate was a judgement of over $9,000 and this with the depreciation, law costs, etc., would leave about fifteen per cent. for the creditors. Legal proceedings, if persisted in, will reduce this, Mr. Mott said, and Mr. Lingley, the trustee, had never really been in charge of the estate because the judgement was recorded and the sheriff in charge before the assignment was made. Mr. Lingley and the sheriff then made an arrangement by which Mr. Lingley undertook to sell out the stock and wind up the business, paying all his receipts to the sheriff. At the present time the sheriff's office is locked up in the store, and the officer of Mr. McLatchy, the referee, is walking the street in front. The estate will be called upon to pay expenses of both these officials. When asked about Mr. Alexander's leaving Campbellton Mr. Mott said he did not do so because such a move was necessary, but because, having made all his property over to the trustee and being penniless, it was necessary for him to go somewhere to earn a living. He is now in Eau Claire, Wisconsin. Mr. Mott has engaged Mr. Currey to act with him and the case will come up again on March 10. In the meantime the two officials will remain on guard. A great deal of the stock, Mr. Mott says, is only saleable in winter and the delay, therefore, depreciates its value. Regarding the trustee, Mr. Lingley, he said he had not sought the position and was to-day ready to resign in favor of anyone agreeable to the creditors.—Globe, 19th.

Bass River.

I have not seen any notes from here in your last issue, so I thought I would make a few remarks this week to pass away the time, although it keeps us all pretty busy keeping the roads in condition for traveling. There is nothing but shovel and shovel again. The fields are not bare yet by any means. Almost every day we are greeted with a beautiful snow storm, but the worst of all fell last Saturday evening and Saturday night, when about 12 inches fell. The general comment of the weather is, "Well, I rather think we will have more snow," and everybody seems to be right. The young ladies are getting on to it too, but it is with snow shoes, and although snow shoveling is not a common thing among the ladies, some of those fair creatures are quite expert in that mode of traveling. They say it is much easier than going on foot.

We are all pleased to see W. W. R. stick to his post across the river.

Our new sleighs are no use to us this winter for we have no roads to drive them on, but by the way the sleds are being used I think we will have fine roads next winter.

Well, friend M., I see you do make an occasional visit to our side of the river. Well, we wish you success, but don't get too graceful in your movements.

We are living right in the midst of road surveys, fence viewers, constables, and hog reeves, but still the snow comes down. Folks say the winter is not half over. Perhaps it isn't, but there are about five feet of it under, and I don't know what we will do with the rest when it comes.

We were all very sorry, especially some of our fair ones, to part with our young friend D. Alphon. He has taken his departure for Sackville, where we wish every success.

TA-RA-RA.McNairn.

As the reporter has failed to send an account of the proceedings of this place for some time, we will try our hand at quill driving.

Miss Ettie Warren, of South Branch, St. Nicholas River, who has been visiting here returned home. Miss Warren during her sojourn here last summer made many friends.

Duncan McEachern has returned from Houlton (I so rumor says) concluding like a wise man, N. B. is a better place for young men who are willing to work than "over there," and decidedly more desirable for those who won't.

There was a surprise party at Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Johnson's. The attendance was smaller than it would have been in consequence of the inclemency of the weather, which prevented many from attending. Those who did assemble were well rewarded as they spent a most enjoyable evening with games, songs and social chat. Mr. and Mrs. Johnson acted the genial host and hostess so well that the hour to break up came all too soon. All acknowledged they passed a pleasant evening, and promised to come again.

Miss Lizzie McNairn, of West Galloway is spending a few weeks in this place, the guest of Mrs. James McNairn.

Miss May Johnson is visiting her sister Mrs. Murray, of Scotch Settlement, Moncton. Miss Johnson will be absent for a few weeks.

The mill of Johnson Brothers is kept busy, doing good work, giving satisfaction to its patrons.

Mr. William Johnson who has been a miller for a number of years, having made a study of a miller's work in every department is able to compete with any mill in the county. Oat meal and barley a speciality.

Hugh Cameron, Hugh Morrison and Jonathan Ward are working in the woods for Mr. Smith, of Shediac. McNairn, Feb. 12th, 1894.

Two Prisoners Married.

A marriage of somewhat novel nature was celebrated in the Cathedral at noon to-day. The principals were two prisoners who are at present confined in the county jail awaiting trial for larceny. Their names are Jean Onge and William Guthra, both French-Canadians by birth. They were arrested over a week ago for larceny of two rings from Mrs. J. Fred Seely's house, Germain street. The girl was a domestic in the house and Guthra was her lover. Soon after their arrest it was found that the girl would become a mother before many days. It was therefore deemed advisable that they should be married, and, as both were not only willing but anxious, Rev. Fr. Casey saw them and arranged to tie the nuptial knot. The only drawback that remained was the expense of a marriage license, which cost $5.00. Detective King overcame this difficulty by soliciting subscriptions, and this morning he secured the necessary document. He then took the prospective bride and groom from the jail to the Cathedral, where Father Casey made them man and wife. The detective officiated as best man. Mr. and Mrs. Guthra will not have to spend their honeymoon in jail, for when they were taken before the Police Court this afternoon Mrs. Seely declined to prosecute them and they were allowed to go.—Globe.
