her chin on her hand, and was gazing into Eric's eyes beneath the shadow of her hair.
 "Methinks my sister will look higher than to wed a simple yeoman, though he is large as two other men," said Bjorn, with a sneer. Now Bjorn was jealous of Eric's strength and beauty, and did not love him.

"Trust nothing that thou seest and little that thou hearest, girl," said Asmund, raising himself from thought; "so shall all thy guesses be good. Eric, come here and tell us how thou didst chance on Gudruda in the snow."
 "I was not so ill seated but that I could hear to stay," grumbled Eric beneath his breath; but Gudruda said "Go."

So he went and told his tale; but not all of it, for he intended to ask Gudruda in marriage on the morrow, though his heart prophesied no luck in the matter, and therefore he was not overswift with it.
 "In this thing thou hast done me and mine good service," said Asmund, coldly, searching Eric's face with his blue eyes. "It had been sad if my fair daughter had perished in the snow, for, know this: I would set her high in marriage, for her honor and the honor of my house, and so some rich and noble man had lost great joy. But take thou this gift in memory of the deed, and Gudruda's husband shall give thee another such upon the day that he makes her wife," and he drew a gold ring off his arm.

Now Eric's knees trembled as he heard, and his heart grew faint as though with fear. But he answered clear and straight: "Thy gift had been better without thy words, ring-giver; but I pray thee to take it back, for I have done nothing to win it, though perhaps the time will come when I shall ask thee for a richer."
 "My gifts have never been put away before," said Asmund, growing angry.

"This wealthy farmer holds the good gold of little worth. It is foolish to take fish to the sea, my father," sneered Bjorn.
 "Nay, Bjorn, not so," Eric answered: "but, as thou sayest, I am but a farmer, and since my father, Thorgimur Iron-Toe died things have not gone too well on Ran River. But at the least I am a free man, and I will take no gifts that I cannot repay worth for worth. Therefore I will not have the ring."

DEATH RATE REDUCED.
Gratifying Report of the Dominion Health Bureau—Canada last year fewer deaths in forty per cent than ever before.
 OTTAWA, June 25.—The last report of the Health Bureau here contains the highly gratifying intelligence that the death rate in Canada during the last year was lower than in any previous year since Confederation, being within a fraction of forty per cent. lower than the best year ever before reported. Closer examination reveals that the greatest decrease was in deaths from Bright's disease, Diabetes, Dropsy, Heart disease, Rheumatism and other diseases caused by disordered or diseased kidneys. Further investigation shows that where the cases of such diseases have decreased, the people have within the year made free use of Dodd's Kidney Pills. Consequently it is safe to say that the falling off in Canada's death rate is due to nothing but Dodd's Kidney Pills.

The Conversationist.
 Never talk shop.
 To contradict is coarse.
 The critic is not a converser.
 If you talk religion, be charitable.
 Inquisitiveness is wholly out of place.
 A moody person is a gloomy companion.
 When curiosity appears, good conversation ends.
 The eyes are the liveliest part of a conversation.
 Commonplaces are neither to be talked nor shunned.
 A crank cannot be a converser, for he must squeak.
 If you joke, laugh most heartily at the joke that hits you.
 A rich, mellow, winning voice makes any conversation a success.
 Success is won if the listeners think they are doing the thinking.
 Your associates must be assumed to know as much as yourself. You can never talk down to them.
 Chestnuts must be served only when they are freshly roasted, warmed by an occasion that makes it specially appropriate.

Pertinent Inquiries.
 Do you find it an effort to get out of bed in the morning? Does your back sometimes feel as if it would break. While not to sick to work have you that tired, all gone feeling as though you might break down at any minute? If so you are suffering from nervous exhaustion, and need a course of Hawker's nerve and stomach tonic and Hawker's liver pills, the greatest nerve restoring, health giving and regulating remedies before the public.

Depends on How You Look at it.
 "Look at this, will you?" exclaimed the real estate and house-renting optimist. "In this paper there's a record of 87 marriage licenses issued yesterday."
 "Well, what of it?" said his partner, the pessimist of the firm, who was leaning back in a chair, with his feet on the table and his hat pulled down over his eyes.

 "What of it?" echoed the other. "Can't you see? Those 87 marriage licenses mean 87 marriages. The 87 marriages will lead to 87 inquiries for houses, flats or at least eligible apartments. It's stimulate business in our line and we'll get our share."
 "That doesn't follow at all. Those 87 licenses represent 174 persons, don't they?"
 "Yes."
 "Probably all adults?"
 "Undoubtedly. What of that?"
 "Nothing," growled the pessimist, "except that 174 persons who have hitherto occupied 174 apartments will hereafter occupy only 87. Go and soak your head. You give me a pain."

The Spring Medicine.
 "All run down" from the weakening effects of warm weather, you need a good tonic and blood purifier like Hood's Sarsaparilla. Do not put off taking it. Numerous little ailments, if neglected, will soon break up the system. Take Hood's Sarsaparilla now, to expel disease and give you strength and appetite.

Hood's Pills are the best family cathartic and liver medicine. Harmless, reliable sure.
Another Name for it.
 "No, Johnnie, I can hardly afford to give you that dog, for, in addition to our having become attached to him, he has a remarkable instinct."
 "Like enough he has, sir? But what is his instinct?"
 "Instinct, my boy, is a mysterious something which prompts a beast to some action, independent of any consideration on his part."
 "That's it, is it? Well our dog's got that, but we call it fleas."

"The Triumph of Love IS HAPPY, FRUITFUL MARRIAGE"
 Every Man Who Would Know the Grand Truths of the Plain Facts; the New Discoveries of Medical Science as Applied to Married Life, Who Would Avoid for Past Errors and Avoid Future Pitfalls, Should Secure the Wonderful Little Book Called "COMPLETE MARRIAGE, and How to Attain It."
 "Here at last is information from a high medical source that must work wonders with this generation of men."
 The book fully describes a method by which to attain full vigor and manly power.
 A method by which to end all unnatural drains on the system.
 To cure nervousness, lack of self-control, despondency, etc.
 To exchange a jaded and worn nature for one of brightness, buoyancy and power.
 To cure forever effects of excesses, overwork, worry, etc.
 To give full strength, development and tone to every portion and organ of the body.
 Age no barrier. Failure impossible. 2000 references.
 The book is purely medical and scientific useless to curiosity seekers, invaluable to men only who need it.
 A despairing man, who had applied to us, soon after wrote:
 "Well, I tell you the first day is one I'll never forget. I just bubbled with joy. I wanted to hug everybody and tell them my old self had died yesterday and my new self was born to-day. Why didn't you tell me when I first wrote that I would find it this way?"
 And other thus:
 "If you dumped a cartload of gold at my feet it would not bring such gladness into my life as your method has done."
 Write to the ENIG MEDICAL COMPANY, Buffalo, N. Y., and ask for the little book called "COMPLETE MARRIAGE." Refer to this paper, and the company promises to send the book, in sealed envelope, without any marks, and entirely free, until it is well introduced.

After the Grip

No Strength, No Ambition
Hood's Sarsaparilla Cave Perfect Health.

The following letter is from a well-known merchant tailor of St. George, N. B.:
 "C. L. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.:
 "Gentlemen—I am glad to say that Hood's Sarsaparilla and Hood's Pills have done me a great deal of good. I had a severe attack of the grip in the winter, and after getting over the fever I did not seem to gather strength, and had no ambition. Hood's Sarsaparilla proved to be just what I needed. The results were very satisfactory, and I recommend this medicine to all who are afflicted with rheumatism or other ailments caused by poison and poor blood. I always keep Hood's Sarsaparilla in my house and use it when I need a tonic. We also keep Hood's Pills on hand and think highly of them."

Sciatic Rheumatism

Capt. McCranahan Tells How He Was Cured.

"About a year ago I was taken with a severe attack of sciatic rheumatism and was laid off most of the summer. I went from here to St. John, N. B., in my packet schooner, and was so helpless and in such suffering that I could not get out of the cabin. The captain of another schooner came on board to see me, and wanted me to get Hood's Sarsaparilla; he said it had cured him when he was so bad that his wife had to feed him. I sent to Boston for two bottles, which did for me all I had been told Hood's Sarsaparilla would do. I gained rapidly and when I had taken the two bottles I was able to work. A great many people here have taken Hood's Sarsaparilla since it cured me, and all speak highly of it." CAPT. S.
