NOTARY PUBLIC,

A house with medium sized rooms, well arranged, neatly finished and suitable for small families, will always rent well, while a large house in many cases would not pay expenses.

Put your money in the right kind of a house and you will make a good investment.

A very good investment can be made by getting your doors and finish from the

- 400-Donahoe's for February.

None of the popular magazines appeals to a wider constituency than Donahoe's. In a recent number the purpose of the tion to this the other day by making a magazine was said to be to make people think. That's a big job ; but if the Feb. ruary number of Donahoe's doesn't accomplish at least part of the task, then it might as well be given up. First there beauty is brain. A man may have both, is a discussion of President Cleveland's political character and acts, by James Jeffrey Roche and John Ford. Both are ardent Democrats, but the latter hauls the President most unmercifully over the coals, while the former defends his official acts. A strong and lively article by James usually offensive in its means. Nerve is W. Clarke, on the ethics of boxing, shows how the golden rule is observed even in the prize ring, and how boxing promotes true manliness. Abbe Hogan tells a marvellous story about Parisian society women who serve as nurses in a cancer hospital. Jennie Rice Ware gives the of a hundred yards' dash compares with a results of the latest investigations in the sul ject of child labour in factories. Mary
