An Excellent Remedy. GENTLEMEN,—We have used Hagar's Pectoral Balsam in our house for over three years, and find it an excellent remedy for all forms of coughs and colds. In throat and lung troubles it affords instant relief. JOHN BRODIE, Columbus, Ont.

The Rev. G. Monroe Royce, in the current number of the Forum, tells a very good story of the late Professor Jowett, the famous Master of Balliol College, Oxford. Jowett was the most tolerant and sympathetic of all men in questions of religion. And well he might be, for he had himself been the object—though happily not the victim—of the most blind and unreasoning religious intolerance and bigotry. But the "Master"—as he was always called—knew a genuine case of honest religious doubt from shallow scepticism or puppyish philosophic brag. A self-satisfied undergraduate who has a thin smattering of philosophy, together with a little knowledge of the "Ethnic Religions" met the Master in the "Quad" one day, and on the conversation that followed, gravely informed the famous heretic, as Dr. Jowett was sometimes called, that he could not find, in all his research, any positive evidence of God. "Indeed," said the Master, "Well, you may continue your search till four o'clock to day, and if you have not found God by that time, you will have to leave this college."

WOMEN'S CHRISTIAN TEMPERANCE UNION COLUMN. All Communications to this Column should be Addressed to Mrs. J. Stevenson, Secretary W. C. T. U., Richibucto. It is not for Kings, O Lemuell, it is not for Kings to drink wine, nor for Princes strong drink; lest they drink and forget the law, and pervert the judgement of any of the afflicted.—Proverbs 31, 4-5. "Rise up, ye women who are at ease; hear my voice, ye careless daughters; give ear unto my speech." "Many days and years shall ye be troubled, ye careless women; for the vintage shall fail, the gathering shall not come." "Tremble, ye women that are at ease; be troubled, ye careless ones"—Isiah, 32, 9, 10, 11.

District Convention. The annual district convention of the counties of Kent, Albert and Westmorland, met at Port Elgin on Tuesday, Jan. 23rd. The meeting was held in the Methodist church, and 28 delegates were present, Albert sending none. The first meeting was held at 3 o'clock Tuesday afternoon—when after reading of scripture and prayer by Mrs. Atkinson, of Moncton, president of the convention—a short business meeting was held and committee appointed. Mrs. Wood of Sackville, Secretary Treasurer of the convention, read a very interesting report of the work.

Tuesday evening a public meeting of welcome was given to the delegates. Addresses of welcome being given by the W. P. of the Bay Verte and Port Elgin Divisions by Rev. Mr. Thomas on behalf of the Methodist and Baptist churches. Rev. Mr. Lavers, pastor of the latter church being too ill to be present; Mrs. Atkinson of Bay Verte on behalf of their union and by W. W. Wells, M. P. P., on behalf of the citizens, the latter giving the members of the W. C. T. U. great credit for their zeal in having the bill for scientific instruction in schools pushed through the Legislature last winter. The children sang very sweetly a song of Welcome, and the choir furnished excellent music. Mrs. Wood replied in an appropriate and feeling manner.

Wednesday morning the meeting was opened by a consecration service of one hour, conducted by Mrs. Allen, of Richibucto, after which business was taken up, and committees reported. The afternoon papers of the department of work were read and school of method held. The reports show good work all along the line and we feel that the blessing of God has rested upon the effort put forth, and that the prayers of the white ribbon sisters have been answered.

Wednesday evening a mass temperance meeting was held in the Methodist church. Special hymns were provided. Mrs. Emma R. Atkinson, our president, presided. Mrs. Powell of Sackville gave the scripture reading, Mrs. Emmerson leading in prayer. Mrs. Humphrey, Sackville, gave a number of crusade sketches. Mrs. Emmerson a paper on women's suffrage. Mrs. O'Neil an address on need of work and workers, and Mrs. Atkinson an excellent and thrilling speech on the work of the W. C. T. U. and the scott act.

Thursday morning a short business meeting was held and in the afternoon a new union was formed at Port Elgin of twenty-two charter members, and so deep an impression was made that seven gentlemen put on the white ribbon and became honorary members. The best district convention which these counties has ever held, then came to a close by singing "God be with you till we meet again." And the delegates were driven to the station and bid good bye to the kind friends who had done so much to make their visit to their pretty village so pleasant and enjoyable. Seven unions were represented by the 28 delegates.

The Temperance Fight. Let us marshal the young hosts in the Sunday-schools and day-schools into the armies of this new crusade. We are told that Hamilcar, the Carthaginian general, made his little son Hannibal, at six years of age, swear, upon his country's altar, eternal enmity against his country's foes. The victorious march of the Carthaginian conqueror over the conquered Roman territory tell how faithfully that vow was kept.

In like manner the boys and girls, the youths and maidens, in our homes and in our schools, the young men and young women who will so largely mould the thought and the opinion of the future should swear eternal enmity against this foe of God and man in our land.

Here, as in every great moral reform, woman's influence can become almost supreme. She is the true regent of society. Her rebuke may cause intemperance with its associates vices to shrink abashed from her presence. Her co-operation will inspire the mightiest efforts for the extirpation of this sin against God and crime against man. The W. C. T. U. on this continent is, we believe, the mightiest temperance agency yet organized.

Let the boys and girls first be pledged in the Sunday-schools. Let temperance instruction be communicated, as it already largely is, in our public schools. Let temperance literature and information be widely diffused in the religious and secular press of the country. Earnest, unceasing importunate prayer should be sent up to heaven for the staying of this awful tide of intemperance. But prayer without effort is an insult to God. Prayer should be accompanied by the most earnest and persistent effort to build up God's kingdom in the world and to overthrow the ancient Bastille of intemperance and vice. Let the boys and girls urge and beseech their fathers and big brothers to fight against the drink traffic and vote for its prohibition on January 1st.

Suffering Children Our girl was a beautiful baby, fair and plump and healthy. But when she was two years old, sores broke out behind her ears and spread rapidly over her head and forehead down to her eyes, and into her neck. We consulted one of the best physicians in Brooklyn, but nothing did her any good. The doctors said it was caused by a scrofula humor in the blood. Her head became

She Suffered Fearfully with this terrible humor. Being urged to try Hood's Sarsaparilla we did so. We soon noticed that she had more life and appetite. The medicine seemed to drive out more of the humor for a short time, but it soon began to subside, the itching and burning ceased, and in a few months her head became entirely clear of the sore. She is now perfectly well, clear of evidence of the humor, and her skin is clear and healthy. She seems like an entirely different child, in health and general appearance, from what she was before taking
