

THE GREAT SOUTH AMERICAN NERVE TONIC

AND Stomach and Liver Cure

The Most Astonishing Medical Discovery of the Last One Hundred Years.

It is Pleasant to the Taste as the Sweetest Nectar. It is Safe and Harmless as the Purest Milk.

This wonderful Nerve Tonic has only recently been introduced into this country by the proprietors and manufacturers of the Great South American Nerve Tonic, and yet its great value as a curative agent has long been known by a few of the most learned physicians, who have not brought its merits and value to the knowledge of the general public.

This medicine has completely solved the problem of the cure of indigestion, dyspepsia, and diseases of the general nervous system. It is also of the greatest value in the cure of all forms of failing health from whatever cause. It performs this by its great curative powers upon the digestive organs, the stomach, the liver and the bowels. No remedy compares with this wonderfully valuable Nerve Tonic as a builder and strengthener of the life forces of the human body, and as a great renewer of a broken-down constitution. It is also of more real permanent value in the treatment and cure of diseases of the lungs than any consumption remedy ever used on this continent. It is a marvelous cure for nervousness of females of all ages. Ladies who are approaching the critical period known as change in life, should not fail to use this great Nerve Tonic, almost constantly, for the space of two or three years. It will carry them safely over the danger. This great strengthener and curative is of inestimable value to the aged and infirm, because its great energizing properties will give them a new hold on life. It will add ten or fifteen years to the lives of many of those who will use a half dozen bottles of the remedy each year.

NERVOUS DISEASES.

As a cure for every class of Nervous Diseases, no remedy has been able to compare with the Nerve Tonic, which is very pleasant and harmless in all its effects upon the youngest child or the oldest and most delicate individual. Nine tenths of all the ailments to which the human family is heir are dependent on nervous exhaustion and impaired digestion. When there is an insufficient supply of nerve food in the blood, a general state of debility of the brain, spinal marrow, and nerves is the result. Starved nerves, like starved muscles, become strong when the right kind of food is supplied; and a thousand weaknesses and ailments disappear as the nerves recover. As the nervous system must supply all the power by which the vital forces of the body are carried on, it is the first to suffer for want of perfect nutrition. Ordinary food does not contain a sufficient quantity of the kind of nutriment necessary to repair the wear our present mode of living and labor imposes upon the nerves. For this reason it becomes necessary that a nerve food be supplied. This South American Nerve has been found by analysis to contain the essential elements out of which nerve tissue is formed. This accounts for its universal adaptability to the cure of all forms of nervous derangement.

CRAWFORDSVILLE, IND., AUG. 20, '86.
To the Great South American Medicine Co.:
DEAR GENTS:—I desire to say to you that I have suffered for many years with a very serious disease of the stomach and nerves. I tried every medicine I could hear of, but nothing done me any appreciable good until I was advised to try your Great South American Nerve Tonic and Stomach and Liver Cure, and since using several bottles of it I must say that I am now cured at its wonderful power to cure the stomach and general nervous system. If everyone knew the value of this remedy as I do you would not be able to supply the demand.
J. A. HARRIS, Ex-Treas. Montgomery Co.

A SURE CURE FOR ST. VITUS' DANCE OR CHOREA.
CRAWFORDSVILLE, IND., June 22, 1887.
My daughter, eleven years old, was severely afflicted with St. Vitus' Dance or Chorea. We gave her three and one-half bottles of South American Nerve and she is completely restored. I believe it will cure every case of St. Vitus' Dance. I have kept it in my family for two years, and am sure it is the greatest remedy in the world for Indigestion and Dyspepsia, and for all forms of Nervous Disorders and Failing Health, from whatever cause.

INDIGESTION AND DYSPEPSIA.

The Great South American Nerve Tonic which we now offer you, is the only absolutely unfailing remedy ever discovered for the cure of Indigestion, Dyspepsia, and the vast train of symptoms and horrors which are the result of disease and debility of the human stomach. No person can afford to pass by this jewel of incalculable value who is affected by disease of the stomach, because the experience and testimony of many go to prove that this is the ONE and ONLY ONE great cure in the world for this universal destroyer. There is no case of unmalignant disease of the stomach which can resist the wonderful curative powers of the South American Nerve Tonic.

HARRIS H. HALL, of Weymouth, Ind., says:
"I owe my life to the Great South American Nerve Tonic. I had been in bed for six months from the effects of an exhausted stomach, indigestion, nervous prostration, and a general shattered condition of my whole system. Had given up all hopes of getting well. Had tried three doctors, with no relief. The first bottle of the Nerve Tonic improved me so much that I was able to walk about, and a few bottles cured me entirely. I believe it is the best medicine in the world. I can not recommend it too highly."

No remedy compares with the South American Nerve Tonic as a curative agent for the stomach. No remedy will at all compare with South American Nerve as a cure for all forms of failing health. It never fails to cure Indigestion and Dyspepsia. It never fails to build up the whole system and wonderful in its effects. It cures the old, the young, and the middle-aged. It is a great friend to the aged and infirm. Do not neglect to use this precious boon. Nerve is perfectly safe, and very pleasant to the taste. Delicate ladies, do not fail to use this great cure, because it will put the bloom of freshness and beauty upon your lips and in your cheeks, and quickly drive away your disabilities and weaknesses.

New Brunswick.

We love thy thick forests,
Thy tall ancient trees,
That bend to the tempest,
Or sport in the breeze.
The surf beaten rocks
Where our forefathers stood,
And poured forth their souls
In thanksgiving to God.

The hills of New Brunswick
In grandeur they rise,
Her proud lofty hill tops
That tower to the skies.
Each river and streamlet,
Vale, woodland, and glade,
Returns to fend memory,
As oft we have strayed.

The homes of New Brunswick,
Ah! talk not of fame
But give me a cot
In New Brunswick again.
With bright smiling faces
That greeted me there,
And welcomed me home to
The old arm chair.

Religious Humour.

"Ah, parson, I wish I could take my gold with me," said a dying deacon, who was very wealthy, but very selfish. "It might melt," was the minister's consoling reply.—Exchange.

Not long ago, a London preacher indulged in a little bit of sarcasm over a small collection. And he did it very neatly in a preface to his sermon the following Sunday. "Brethren," he said, "our collection last Sunday was a very small one. When I look at this congregation, I say to myself, where are the poor? but as I looked at the collection when we counted it in the vestry on Sunday last, I exclaimed, Where are the rich?"—Exchange.

The English newspapers relate the following story of Bishop Temple of London: A lady was narrating to his lordship how her aunt had escaped from a railway accident. "Five people in the same compartment were killed, and my aunt alone escaped; wasn't it providential?" "Humph!" said the Bishop, "don't know your aunt; can't say!"—Exchange.

"Deacon," said a minister out West, after a heavy sermon, "I'm tired." "Indeed," replied the Deacon, "then you know how to pity the congregation."—Exchange.

A little girl met a little boy in the street crying. "What are you crying for, Edward?" she said. "Cause my mamma is gone o' heaven," sobbed the little fellow. "Oh, don't cry, Edward," she said, "perhaps she hasn't."—Exchange.

A colonel, commanding a British regiment in India, requested a drill-sergeant to ascertain the religious views of some new recruits. The latter were paraded, and the sergeant cried out: "Fall in, Church of England men to the right; Roman Catholic men to the left; all fancy religions to the rear."—Exchange.

For Children and Adults.

DR. LOW'S Worm Syrup cures worms of all kinds in children or adults. It contains no injurious ingredients. Price 25c.

A Somanbulistic Conductor.

One often hears of the sleepy-looking porter who is the sole support of an aged railway station, but it is seldom that the individual in question goes in for such violent exercise as somnambulism. A case in point: The wife of one of the employes down in the Midlands, missing her husband during the early hours of the morning, got out of bed to look for him, and hearing a noise in the kitchen became alarmed, thinking probably that burglars were in the house. She managed to summon up sufficient courage to ascertain the cause, and found her husband down on his hands and knees opening and shutting the oven door, and crying out: "Take your seats, please; take your seats. Stand back there!"—London Man of the World.

Spring Time Coming.

Before the advent of spring the system should be thoroughly cleansed and purified by the use of Burdock Blood Bitters, which purifies the blood and cures dyspepsia, constipation, headache, liver complaint, etc.

Baby or Cradle.

The following advertisement appeared in the "Exchange" columns of a New York city daily paper:

"Baby too big for the cradle will exchange for anything useful."

Poor baby! to be exchanged for "anything useful." Why not its owners keep it seven years? They say that there is nothing so insignificant that it will not come in handy if kept around for that length of time.

Minnie—"I never would marry a near-sighted man, would you?"

The Rev. Sam Jones recently preached to the colored people at Dyrresburg, Ky. The other day a man was knocked down by the buffer of an engine near Bray station, Ireland, while some wagons were being shunted. He was stunned for a moment, but very slightly hurt. The porters ran to his assistance. One of them said: "Bring him to the station at once." He thought they meant to take him to the station for "what do you want to take me to the station for?" said he. "You know who I am; and if I've done any damage to your confounded machine, sure I'm able to pay for it."—Exchange.

Rev. Melancthon Fish, a colored divine received a call from a colored congregation, provided he gave satisfaction. He preached his trial sermon. After it was over he walked home with Uncle Mose, who is celebrated for being the most candid nigger in Austin, Texas, where this incident occurred.

"Dat ar' congregation," said the Rev. Fish, patronizingly, "am composed of de finest looking body of men I eber saw."

"Ef that am your candid opinion you should neber have called 'em belubbed brecken," rema ked Mose, quietly.

"Why not, uncle Mose?"

"Bekase you don't look like you belonged to de family. You ain't fine enough lookin' to be more den a forty-second cousin, much less a brudder"
