BARK CHRISTIAN WILHELM. - The bark Christian Wilhelm, bound to Richibucto was wrecked on the Irish coast in from. the late storm. A cable dispatch says :-The Norwegian bark Christian Wilhelm Your new dress from a continental port for a port in New Brunswick missed stays while trying to will be fashionget off the coast and was carried ashore. The heavy sea that was running caused her able, and not just to pound her bottom. She is a total wreck. The life boat men succeeded in getting everybody ashore safely. The Christian Wilhelm visited this port several times. She was here last summer. She was com manded by Captain Kverndal.

ACCIDENT AT BUCTOUCHE. - Mr. Edward Barnes, of Buctouche, son of Mr. James Barnes, the well known contractor, met with a very painful accident in Buctouche on Monday. The young man left home expedition, taking with him a Winchester just in. early in the morning on a goose shooting repeating rifle and a seven shooter. He discharged one cartridge, and was in the act of ejecting the shell when a cartridge which had in some unaccountable way forced itself from the breech lock, exploded, the powder flashing into the face of the young man, burning it badly, beside injuring one of his eyes. His injuries are not likely to prove serious .- Times.

MILLINERY FOR KINGSTON, RICHIBUCTO AND HARCOURT. - We have much pleasure informing the ladies of Kingston, Richibucto, Harcourt and thereabout, that our Miss Daly, who is at present in Boston visiting the millinery opening and getting new ideas, will be at Mr. Hebert's Hotel, Kingston, on Friday afternoon, May 11th, Saturday, May 12th, Monday, May 14th, and Tuesday, May 15, at the Eureka Hotel, Harcourt, Thursday afternoon, May 17 and Friday, May 18th. (New goods will be sent to Richibucto and Harcourt by express,) with Paris pattern hats and bonnets, untrimmed straw hats and bonnets and millinery novelties, latest styles, at 25c. and upward.

Trimmed straw hats and bonnets at $1.00, $1.25, $1.50, $1.75, $2.00 and up-in London and New York, accounts for our selling millinery at such low prices. We ask everybody to call on the above days and see the grandest display of millinery we have ever made.

Alba C. Storer vs George W. Robertson entered by proviso by defendant was next in the docket. The plaintiff not appearing to prosecute his suit, a non-suit was ordered to be entered; Phinney & Carter for defendant.

The next and last case on the docket was an Acadiaville case, Aime Maillet vs. Abraham Pineau. This arose out of the municipal election trouble there last fall. 1, and Pineau, one of the candidates, published a letter in the Moniteur Acadien, of Shediae, claiming he had received a maj rity of the votes cast and had been fraudulently counted out by Maillet. Maillet took exception to these remarks and brought an action for libel. Pineau justified the publication of the letter on the grounds that the fac's contained therein were true. The jury found a verdict in defendant's favor; C. J. Sayre for MONCTON, - plaintiff. Phinney & Carter for defendant. Court then adj urned sine die.
