After Mr. Laurier resumed his seat the motion passed.

The report of the committee of public accounts, held over from yesterday, was then taken up and on motion of Mr. Tupper it was resolved that the committee be empowered to examine Joseph Pope and others touching the Barring of an arbitration accounts.

A few unimportant questions were then asked and answered, and the house went into consideration of private members' motion.

After recess the debate on Tarte's motion for papers connected with the Northwest school regulations was resumed by Mr. Brodeur, who spoke for two hours against the ordinances and abusing the government for not disallowing them.

He was replied to by Mr. McDowall, who spoke from a Northwest standpoint.

Then Mr. Legris spoke in French, putting all the blame on the Orangemen.

Mr. Taylor moved the adjournment of the debate and the house adjourned shortly before midnight.

OTTAWA, April 26.—In the house to-day Hon. Mr. Haggart, in answer to Mr. Wood of Westmorland, said that the total receipts at Memramcook station, I. C. R., were $5,800 for the last year, and for College Bridge station $2,300.

The adjourned debate on Mr. Tarte's motion for papers re the Northwest school ordinances was then resumed by Sir John Thompson. He first alluded to the remarks made during the debate concerning the Manitoba school law and the action of the government thereon. He showed that the action of the government had been strictly constitutional and consistent throughout, and that whether the result of the pending appeal to the judicial committee of the privy council was favorable to the minority or otherwise, the government had done nothing that was not prepared to defend before any section of the Canadian people. Turning to the Northwest school ordinances, he said that though the ordinances were passed in December, 1892, the first complaint the government heard of it was in October, 1893, and the first petition was received in November, 1893. These petitions contained, first, complaints of existing grievances; and, second, complaints of want of safeguards for the future. Strange to say nearly all the complaints of the present grievances related to regulations passed under the old ordinances. (Hear, hear.)

Archbishop Tache had declared that the old ordinances of 1888 were eminently just and satisfactory, yet the regulations respecting normal certificates for teachers and text books for separate schools were made under these ordinances. These constituted the two principal grievances now complained of. The only change in text-books had been to substitute books more in favor with Catholics. As to the fears of the future, which in Sir John's judgment were mainly responsible for the present agitation, the government felt that was not good reason for disallowance. It must not be forgotten that this parliament occupied a different position towards the Northwest territories than what it did toward the provinces. In the case of the provinces, if disallowance did not take place within a given time, the power of this parliament to interfere was at an end. It was not so with the Northwest territories. This parliament was still possessed of the power to wipe out any Northwest legislation (cheers), so that when the government refused to disallow the school ordinances complained of, but remitted them back to the Northwest council with recommendations for reconsideration of certain matters, it did so knowing that if at any time justice was done any portion of the people of the Northwest, this parliament possessed plenary power to afford the remedy. His speech, which occupied two hours, was listened to attentively by the whole house, and Sir John, in resuming his seat, was loudly cheered.

Mr. Laurier made a very non-committal speech, refusing to express any opinion of his own but finding fault with the government for not settling the matter at once.

Mr. Devlin closed with a characteristic speech, declaring that McCortly, the P. P. A., the Orangemen and the whole tory party were in league to persecute the Catholics.

Main River Notes.

Spring is here now without a doubt. The snow is rapidly disappearing, and farmers are beginning their spring work with every encouragement.

Mr. E. F. has bought the farm formerly owned by Mr. J. Mundle, this taken with his frequent visits to a certain quarter, looks a little suspicious.

The roads are drying very fast.

We are pleased to note that Mr. Wm. Clare is improving from his recent illness.

The Main River bridge is in a very unsafe condition. A certain young man who frequently drives across to the south side, is afraid he will have to discontinue his visits unless it is repaired.

The road between here and West Branch is almost impassable, in consequence of which the accommodation suspended regular trips. The most practicable mode of travelling is "John Gilpin" style.

P. K.

Gents Evening Wear.

The latest fashion notes state that gents vests are provided with two pockets for handkerchiefs; this is very convenient in these days when "cold in the head" is so prevalent. But better still is to cure that disagreeable cold in the head by the use of Hawker's Catarrh cure. It is safe, sure and effective and its application pleasant and agreeable. Only 25 cents, sold by all druggists.

SCROFULA

CURED BY

B.B.B.

MRS. JAS. CHASE.

Worst Kind of Scrofula.
DEAR SIRS.—I had an abscess on my breast and scrofula of the very worst kind, the doctors said. I got so weak that I could not walk around the house without taking hold of chairs to support me. The doctors treated me for three years, and at last said there was no hope for me. I asked if I might take B.B.B. and they said it would do me no harm, so I began to take it, and before three bottles were used I felt great benefit. I have now taken six bottles and am nearly well. I find Burdock Blood Bitters a grand blood purifier and very good for children as a spring medicine.

Surgical Operations and Best Medical Treatment Failed

An Almost Miraculous Cure by Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Mrs. Mollie Wendt.

"C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.:
"Beginning in February, '92, I was very sick for two months. Slowly I got better but was confined to my bed. A physician said I had a Pelvic Abscess in My Side.

After an operation I did not improve, the abscess continuing to discharge even more freely than before. In two months time three operations were performed and tubes inserted to carry off the impurities, but all in vain. Finally it was decided that my life depended upon another operation and that I must be removed to the hospital. About three weeks previous to this I had noticed an advertisement in the Daily News of a case where Hood's Sarsaparilla had cured a boy somewhat similarly afflicted in Trenton, N. J., and I decided to give it a trial. When the time decided upon for me to go to the hospital arrived I had been taking Hood's Sarsaparilla about two weeks.

I Was Getting Better
and the abscess had already begun to discharge less freely. I felt stronger and had a terrible appetite. Previous to this I had given up to die. When I had taken the second bottle I was able to sit up and accordingly I was not taken to the hospital and the final operation was deferred. Now I have taken six bottles and the abscess has entirely healed. I am well and go every where. My friends think it is a miracle to have me restored to them again so healthy and even younger in looks than before my sickness.

I Feel Better Than Ever
I did in my life and weigh over 130 pounds, the heaviest in my life. I do a big day's work and am gaining in strength every day. My mother worried and worked herself almost sick in caring for me since I had taken Hood's Sarsaparilla and it has done her much good. We praise Hood's Sarsaparilla to everybody, for

I Know It Saved My Life.
I am 27 years old, and a stranger to look at me now would not think I ever had a day's sickness. Even the doctors are surprised at the success of Hood's Sarsaparilla in my case. Mother and myself continue to take the medi-
