BRUCE McDUGALL'S TRIAL.

The Jury Disagrees.

DORCHESTER, N. B., June 7.—The case of the Queen v. McDougall was taken up this afternoon at 2 o'clock. The first step was to empanel a jury. Out of the thirteen jurors called the counsel on both sides only objected to one. Those on the case are: Jas. Fillmore, Frank E. Maxwell, John Casey, Joseph Newcombe, Chas. Roberts, Clifford Chappell, Edward Babine, Joseph Trenholm, Terrance Sweeney, Edwin Copp, Alfred R. Leblanc and Cornelius Sullivan.

Mr. Chapman, crown officer, then read to the court the indictment against the accused found by the grand jury at the March session of the court.

Fred W. Sumner, mayor of the city of Moncton, deposed: I have seen the Plain Dealer in the city of Moncton. I got the copy before us, dated February 24, 1894, from Lee Dickson, a young man in Moncton. He handed it to me on 2nd March. I went up to McDougall's office several times to get a copy, but I could never find him there. I read the column on "Shipping Intelligence" and also "Random Jottings." The columns are of an obscene character. (The crown counsel then read the items contained therein to the court.) There are not any ships in Moncton having these names. The names refer to persons of ill-repute. I complained about this publication at the request of the ministers, W. C. T. U. workers and many private individuals of Moncton. His worship then told the court as near as he could who each of these articles referred to.

Cross-examined by Barry Smith: I had letters from several people requesting me to complain of this publication. I complained of the obscenity of the "Shipping Intelligence." I spoke to McDougall about his publication. He did not cease to publish it. I think it a very immoral and obscene newspaper. Mr. Smith then read over the different items contained under the heads of "Shipping Intelligence" and "Random Jottings," and with very few exceptions, the mayor swore they were of an obscene character. He also showed that the writer of these articles could not possibly have been writing about ships, as they would not be floating around the city's streets or any part of the city.

The next witness called was Lee Dixon. He was a clerk in Moncton. He had bought the Plain Dealer of the issue of February 24 last at the office of McDougall from Mr. Anderson, one of his employees and had given the same to Mayor Sumner.

The other witnesses called were John Gilder, Geo. McDermott and Marshal Foster. This evidence was very much the same as the other witnesses and no new facts were brought out.

The crown has only one or two more witnesses to call and then their case will be concluded.

W. Hazen Chapman and W. R. Chandler appear for the crown, and R. Barry Smith for the prisoner.

DORCHESTER, June 8.—The case of the Queen v. C. Bruce McDougall occupied the attention of the county court nearly all day. Sheriff McQueen was the last witness called by the prosecution. His testimony did not disclose any new facts. The defence did not call any witnesses and the prisoner's counsel began to address the jury.

W. B. Chandler, on behalf of the crown followed with a short address.

His honor made a very clear charge.

At 2 o'clock the jurors retired, and in about two hours returned. They did not agree on a verdict.

McDougall's bail was fixed at $1,000 for his appearance at the November term, but the supposition is that the case will not be tried again. McDougall has not accepted the bail as yet.

DORCHESTER, June 9.—Today C. Bruce McDougall obtained satisfactory bail and went to Moncton this evening, he furnishing a bond for $500 himself, and had two sureties, viz. his father, Peter McDougall, and Duncan Stevenson, in the sum of $250 each. It is thought that the case will not be tried again.

For pains in the stomach, bowels or kidneys use Johnson's Anodyne Liniment internally.

RUN DOWN WITH DYSPEPSIA STOMACH Liver AND HEART AFFECTED. Almost in Despair But Finally CURED By Taking AYER'S PILLS

"For fifteen years, I was a great sufferer from indigestion in its worst forms. I tested the skill of many doctors, but grew worse and worse, until I became so weak I could not walk fifty yards without having to sit down and rest. My stomach, liver, and heart became affected, and I thought I would surely die. I tried Ayer's Pills and they helped me right away. I continued their use and am now entirely well. I don't know of anything that will so quickly relieve and cure the terrible suffering of dyspepsia as Ayer's Pills."—JOHN C. PRITCHARD, Brodie, Warren Co., N. C.

"The Triumph of Love IS HAPPY, FRUITFUL MARRIAGE"

Every Man Who Would Know the Grand Truths: the Plain Facts; the New Discoveries of Medical Science as Applied to Married Life, Who Would Atone for Past Errors and Avoid Future Pitfalls, Should Secure the Wonderful Little Book Called "COMPLETE MANHOOD, and How to Attain It."

"Here at last is information from a high medical source that must work wonders with this generation of men." The book fully describes a method by which to attain full vigor and manly power.

A method by which to end all unnatural drains on the system.

To cure nervousness, lack of self-control, despondency, etc.

To exchange a faded and worn nature for one of brightness, buoyancy and power.

To cure forever effects of excesses, overwork, worry, etc.

To give full strength, development and tone to every portion and organ of the body.

Age no barrier. Failure impossible. 2000 references.

The book is purely medical and scientific, useless to curiosity seekers, invaluable to men only who need it.

A despairing man, who had applied to us, soon after wrote: "Well, I tell you the first day is one I'll never forget. I just bubbled with joy. I wanted to hug everybody and tell them my old self had died yesterday and my new self was born to-day. Why didn't you tell me when I first wrote that I would find it this way?"

And other thus: "If you dumped a cartload of gold at my feet it would not bring such gladness into my life as your method has done."

Write to the ERIC MEDICAL COMPANY, Buffalo, N. Y., and ask for the little book called "COMPLETE MANHOOD." Refer to this paper, and the company promises to send the book, in sealed envelope, without any marks, and entirely free, until it is well introduced.
