NUGGE IS.

-Mr. J. D. Phinney, M. P. P., arrived home from Halifax, Saturday.

-The first number of a new paper, the Albert County Star, has been received. The issue is a very creditable one, being neat, newsy and well printed.

-Judge Landry was presented with a congratulatory address by the Charlotte County bar at St. Andrews on Thursday, and also with one by the grand jury.

-A fire was discovered one evening last week in the wood shed of the Central Hotel, Harcourt. It was extinguished before any serious damage was done.

-The funeral of the late Alexander Girvan of Kingston, took place last Thursday. Deceased was buried in the Presbyterian burying gr und, Galloway.

-Montreal has a smallpox scare. Mayor Villeneuve has issued a proclamation orderin; compulsory vaccination of all citizens and strangers flocking in from the states. An appropriation of $5,000 has been made for the purpose.

-The New York Fishing Gazette, in its Fulton Fish Market notes says :--Frogs legs have been in light demand, with unusually large arrivals, and as a consequence prices have dropped to a low figure, and will probably remain low till the opening of the summer hotel trade.

-Mr. James Flanagan, Moncton, has moved into larger and more central premises in the stone building opposite the city market. His store is heavily stocked with a superior lot of dry goods, and we have no doubt his already prosperous business will be largely increased in his new quarters.

-Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Thompson arrived in Richibucto last week from McAdam, where Mr. Thompson has been in the employ of the C. P. R. Mr. Thompson left Monday for Carleton, St. John, where he has secured work. Mrs.

-Capt. Geo. H. Long's schooner, the Minnie F. Moody proceeded to Kingston Saturday to load a cargo of timber.

-The barque Sagona, loaded a part of her cargo at Jardineville, and went outside the bar Monday, to complete loading.

-We have just received another supply of that 10 cent mixture that has become so popular, W. W. Short, Richibucto.

-Sale of stock, farm implements and household furniture at Hugh McEachrane's, Kouchibouguac, Wednesday 30th inst.

-Mr. Jonathan Dickinson and Miss Janie Dickinson arrived home from the United States, Monday, too late to see their mother alive.

-Rev. J. D. Murray, of Red Bank, Grand Worthy Patriarch of the Grand Division of New Brunswick, visited Richi bucto Division last Wednesday evening.

-We have to acknowledge the receipt of the initial number of the Family Record, a new weekly published at Moncton. It is in pamphlet form and is well gotten up. In politics it will be independent.

-Word has been received of the death of Rev. Wm. Murchie, at the St John hospital. Rev. Mr. Murchie's home is in River Louison, Restigouche County. He was formerly stationed at Kouchibouguac.

-The weather has been all that could be desired for farming. Cool days and dry weather have enabled the farmers to get in their seed earlier than for years past. In some localities seeding is nearly done.

-A correspondent writes :- Mis. John Mcfutyre, an old lady of Buctouche, has just finished a "Friendship quilt " which contains 3692 pieces, all done by her own hand. Some of the pieces are not a quarter of an inch large,

-Fire broke out Friday night in the lumber yard of W. W. Doherty's mill, Campbellton, and completely destroyed it and the grist and carding mills in connection. There was no insurance and Mr. Doherty's loss will be over $5000. It is not kn' wn how the fire originated but it is believed to be the work of an incendiary. -The attention of the Street Commissioner is called to the pile of dirt and refuse lying near the Custom House. This place is being used as a dumping ground for filth and refuse of all kinds. The Commissioner should see that the place is cleaned up and inform the parties who have been using it as a dumping ground that they will have to select another and less public place.

north end of Richibucto is in a disgraceful and dangerous condition, and has been so for some time. It is a shame that a bridge in the vicinity of the town and over which there is so much travel, should be left in time in the trim- the state it is. If the Government cannot afford to keep the Great Road Bridges in better condition, the provincial finances must be at a low ebb. We call Supervisor Guimond's attention to this bridge and, if he has not already done so, ask that he shall at once advise Chief Commissioner Emmerson of its condition, and have it repaired without delay before a serious black points, stands 151 hands, weight also, orchard and vegetable garden i
