In Loving Memory of H. Howard Atkinson. Born March 14th, 1875. Died Jan. 16th, 1894.

Our darling Howard has left us, Him on earth no more we'll see, When the thought comes in upon us, Oh, how very sad are we.

Oh how sudden in a moment, Did disease begin its work, Dread disease by death soon followed, Which around us all doth lurk.

How I hoped once more to see him, See and talk and sing with him, When I think he has gone and left us, How my eyes with tears grow dim.

To that Home prepared by Jesus, For his children here below, To that Home of joy and gladness, Our Howard has gone we know.

We must wait a little longer, Watch and work and trust and pray, God will give us Grace to serve him, He will guide us all the way.

Oh, our ever loving Saviour, Guide us on our journey here, Make us good and pure and holy, Be thou ever near.
