A FARCE.

The Quinn investigation has ended as everyone predicted it would end. Mr. Blair, backed by a phant majority, not only picked his own jury, but also formulated the charges, and had it not been for the statutory declaration of Mr. Quinn, the public would have been still in the dark as to the facts of the transaction. This declaration supported on the inquiry by the testimony that was not ruled out, proves conclusively that there has been a sale of a public office. The majority report of the committee of inquiry completely exonerates the Attorney General. This was expected. Nobody for a moment imagined that Mr. Blair would allow them to do otherwise. The legislature has approved of the finding by the usual government majority, but the public, the last court of appeal in this matter, has yet to be heard from. The declaration of Mr. Quinn, supported as it is by his own testimony and the testimony of his daughter, must convince any reasonable person that money was paid by Mr. Quinn to the government party in York in consideration that his son should receive an appointment to office. The evidence produced by Mr. Wilson to disprove the charge, has not been accepted by the committee or the public. The general opinion is that some "tall lying" was done in the inquiry, and that Mr. Quinn was not the liar. The evidence further goes to show that the Attorney General was indirectly connected with the transaction. He may imagine that the coat of whitewash applied by his followers in the legislature will completely exonerate him, but we venture to say that four out of every five persons in the province who have followed the proceedings, have come to a different conclusion. Mr. Blair was evidently impressed with the idea that his position was a little weak, and sought to strengthen it by asking his followers to express disapproval of the action of Messrs. Stockton, Phinney and Pitts in bringing the charges. The opposition members need not worry over the matter. The statutory declaration to which Mr. Blair takes exception, was their only method of getting the full facts before the public, and they can rest contented with the knowledge that the facts alleged there in have not been disproved or explained. No doubt the Attorney General would have ruled out some of the allegations if he could have taken it before a committee. He is evidently convinced that this statutory declaration has been the means of letting too much light on the whole transaction.

It seems that the law relating to the trial of municipal election petitions has not been changed. Mr. Phinney introduced a bill giving a petitioner a right to have an impartial trial before the Clerk of the Peace. There appears to be some doubt as to whether a County Council has the power to administer an oath to a witness, and the object of Mr. Phinney's bill was to take such matters out of the hands of the Council and leave them to the judgment of the Clerk of the Peace, who, as a lawyer would be better able to conduct a legal inquiry. The wisdom of such a law must be apparent to all who are familiar with municipal elections and election petitions in this county. The County Council of the County of Kent has, we believe asked for the enactment of such a law. The government members of the committee on municipalities have, however, refused to report favorably in the bill and it will therefore fail to pass. This was to be expected. A party that would steal a seat in Carleton cannot be expected to look with favor on any bill tending to promote honesty in elections.

Mr. Blair spent nearly $600 in printing copies of the proposed Judicature Act, and now coolly announces that it will not be introduced. At a meeting of the barristers society the lawyers were almost unanimous in their approval of the proposed measure but their opinions do not appear to have had any weight with the attorney general. He has been able to distribute six hundred dollars of the provincial funds among his favorites, and is apparently satisfied.

The Newfoundland government resigned last week, and the leader of the opposition formed a new government. The new government has not the confidence of the majority of the members, but the legislature has been dissolved to await the result of the trial of the election petitions. The new government hopes to carry a majority of the vacant seats and thus secure a majority in the house.

A PIONEER GOBE.

James Johnson Passed Away at His Home on Feb 24.

We clip the following from the Buckley Banner, of Buckley, Pierce County, Washington:—It is our painful duty this week to record the death of one of the pioneers of this community. James Johnson, of Boise.

On last Saturday evening about five o'clock he passed away. For some months his health had not been good and on Thursday he was taken suddenly ill and did not recover. The funeral was held on Monday afternoon and the procession was one of the largest that ever took place in this vicinity. Funeral services were held in the school house at Boise conducted by Rev. Mr. Garretson, Presbyterian minister from Buckley. The combined choirs of the Methodist and Presbyterian churches of this place assisted. At four o'clock the procession formed and proceeded to the Buckley cemetery where the interment took place.

James Johnson was born in Shields, England, on the 16th day of April, 1814. In the year 1824 his parents removed from that place, crossed the Atlantic and settled in Prince Edward Island. Here they re-maintained for nine years when they again moved to New Brunswick. Mr. Johnson, then a young man, learned the trades of carpenter and millwright. He remained with his parents until his marriage to Miss Marion McNair in 1842, at Richibucto, N. B.

In 1872 the western fever which was then spreading through the provinces carried the subject of this sketch and his family to the then Territory of Washington where he located in Seattle, then a small village. Two and one half years of his life was spent in that city where he worked at his trades. He then removed to Boise where he has remained until his death. He leaves a wife who has stood by him in his long and useful life and seven children surviving him out of a family of twelve.

At Boise he engaged in farming, located on the homestead and building himself a home out of the timber, cut, sawed and dressed with his own hands.

As the country opened up he was found in the lead of the progressive men of the community and engaged in many enterprises which materially assisted in developing the country.

Born of English and Scotch parents Mr. Johnson received a careful education and training. The strong faith of the Presbyterian church became his in early life and through changes and time remained with him, steadily growing stronger until he passed away. The honesty, integrity and whole-souled kindness of men who have fought successfully the stern battle of life was peculiarly his.

The surviving children are Thomas and Anthony Johnson of San Francisco, Cal., John Johnson of Whetcom, Wash., Mrs. C. L. Smith of Osceola, J. H. Johnson of Boise, Mrs. D. S. Morris of Buckley, and Chas. Johnson of Boise. Eight grandchildren, being the families of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Smith and Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Johnson, survive.

The death of Mr. Johnson removes from our midst one of those pioneers of the country to whom their successors will ever owe many obligations.

THE NEW YORK EXAMINER says: Every mother and housekeeper must often act as a family physician in the many illnesses and accidents that occur among children and servants. For many of these cases I have used Davis' PAIN-KILLER, and consider it an indispensable article in the medicine box. In diarrhoea it has been used and effected cures. For cuts and bruises, it is invaluable. 25c. for the New Big Bottle.

ST. JOHN, N. B. Mayor Peters Will Seek a Fourth Term—An Interesting Statement.

ST. JOHN, N. B., April 2nd.—The approaching civic contest, when the new Tax Reduction Association will have a full ticket in the field, promises to be the most exciting held for many years. Mayor T. W. Peters, who has occupied the civic chair for three years with marked ability and dignity, devoting much time and effort to the advancement of the city's interests, especially in the matter of improved trade facilities along the harbor front, will again be a candidate for the mayoralty, though not the candidate of the T. R. A. He is personally very popular, as proved by his election for three successive terms. Mayor Peters has written the following letter to the Hawker Medicine Co.: "I consider Hawker's nerve and stomach tonic is no equal as a nerve invigorator, blood builder and appetizer, having had beneficial results from its use." In making this statement, Mayor Peters simply emphasizes what every person who has tried any of the Hawker stand out remedies say about them all. They have no equal. Hawker's nerve and stomach tonic is a perfect nerve restorer and invigorator, and blood and fle h builder, as well as a valuable stomach tonic and aid to digestion. It is a certain cure when faithfully used for all diseases arising from nerve exhaustion, weakened or impaired digestion, or an impoverished or impure condition of the blood, such as nervousness, weakness, nervous headache, sleeplessness, neuralgia, loss of appetite, dyspepsia, hysteria, and the prostrating effects of the grippe, or any nerve weakness of heart or brain arising from worry, overstrain of mind or body or excesses of any nature. Hawker's nerve and stomach can be obtained from all druggists and dealers. Price fifty cents a bottle or six bottles for $2.50.
