The Forest FiresThe night was grim and still with dread; No star shone down from heaven's dome:
The ancient forest closed around The settler's lonely home.There came a glare that lit the north;
There came a wind that roused the night, But the child and father slumbered on,
Nor felt the growing light.There came a noise of flying feet,
With many a strange and dreadful cry;
And sharp flames crept and leapt along The red verge of the sky.There came a deep and gathering roar, The father raised his anxious head;
He saw the light, like a dawn of blood,
That streamed across his bed.It lit the old clock on the wall, It lit the room with splendor wild, It lit the fair and tumbled hair
Of the still sleeping child.And zig-zag fence and rude log barn, And chip-strewn yard and eelin gray, Glowed crimson in the shuddering glare Of that untimely day.The boy was hurried from his sleep; Wildly, wildly the father rode;
Behind them swooped the hordes of flame,
And harried their abode.The scorching heat was at their heels; The huge roar hounded them in their flight;
Red smoke and many a flying brand Flew o'er them through the night.And past them flew the wildwood forms—Far-striding moose and leaping deer, And bounding panther, and coursing wolf Terrible-eyed with fear.And closer drew the fiery death; Madly, madly the father rode;
The horse began to heave and fall Beneath the double load.The father's mouth was white and stern, But his eyes grew tender with long face-well;
He said: "Hold fast to your seat, Sweetheart,
And ride old Jerry well!""I must go back. Ride on to the river;
Over the ford and the long marsh ride, Straight on to the town. And I'll meet you, Sweetheart, Somewhere on the other side."He slipped from the saddle. The boy rode on;
His hand clung fast in the horse's mane;
His hair blew over the horse's neck;
His small throat sobbed with pain."Father! Father!" he cried aloud, The howl of the fire-wind answered him With hiss of roaring flames, and crash Of shattering limb on limb.But still the good horse galloped on,
With snout braced and strength renewed;
The boy came safe to the river ford, And out of the deadly wood.And now with his kinsfolk, fenced from fear,
At play in the heart of the city's hum, He stops in his play to wonder why His father does not come!CHARLES G. D. ROBERTS.
Windsor, Nova Scotia.The Age of Niagara Falls.The savants are having a very interesting time in determining the age of the Niagara Falls, and from the most recent papers on the subject it is quite evident that great diversity of opinion exists among those who have made it a matter of investigation. Life is full of problems The diversity of our common nature suggests equally interesting question. Why are things so? Why not otherwise? Now for instance the minor ailments that afflict us. Why should the ache not be agreeable instead of painful? Why should so many fraudulent and flesh-eating substitutes for Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor be imposed upon the people? Putnam's is sure. Putnam's is safe and painless. Putnam's makes no sore spots. Use Putnam's Painless Corn Ex-tractor.Women as Missionaries to China.The Chinese are bitterly hostile to foreigners, while they regard with special distrust missionaries living in what appears luxury accompanied by their wives and children. The massacres that have occurred at Wha-sang are proof of the danger of such family missions. Of course, reparation must be excited, but in future it is to be hoped that a different system will prevail. If a man is minded to go to China to convert the Chinese to Christianity, by all means let him. He takes his life in his hands, and he can count the possible cost. But it is always criminal on his part to allow his wife and his children to run such risks. And equally wrong is it for any society to subject the girls to them. If girls feel an irrepressible impulse to indulge in mission work, surely there is a sufficiently large field for it in India, where they might missionize to their hearts content without peril.—London Truth.CANNOT EASILY FOOL HIM.Mr. W. S. Smith Editor of The Toron-

FLED MEDICAL SKILL.A Speedy Cure for the Trouble at Last Discovered—The Particulars of the Cure of a Little Girl Who Was a Severe Sufferer.

From the Ottawa Journal.

In a handsome brick residence on the 10th line of Goulbourn township, Carleton Co., lives Mr. Thomas Bradley, one of Goulbourn's most successful farmers. In Mr. Bradley's family is a bright little daughter, 8 years of age, who had been a severe sufferer from St. Vitus dance, and who had been treated by physicians without any beneficial results. Having learned that the little one had been fully restored to health by the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, a correspondent of the Journal called at the family residence for the purpose of ascertaining the facts, and found the little girl a picture of brightness and good health. Mrs. Paulkner, a sister of the little one, gave the following information. "About eighteen months ago Alvira was attacked by that terrible malady, St.
Vitus dance, and became so bad that we called in two doctors, who held out no hope to us of her ultimate cure, and she was so badly affected with the 'dance' as to require almost constant watching.
About this time we read in the Ottawa Journal of a similar case cured by the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, which gave us renewed hope. We procured a couple of boxes, and before these were all used there was a perceptible improvement. After using six boxes more she was entirely free from the disease, and as you can see is enjoying the best of health. Several months have passed since the use of the Pink Pills was discontinued, but there has been no return of the malady, nor any symptoms of it. We are quite certain Dr. Williams' Pink Pills cured her and strongly recommend them in similar cases.Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are an unfailing specific for such diseases as locomotor ataxia, partial paralysis, St. Vitus' dance, sciatica, neuralgia, rheumatism, nervous headache, the after effects of la grippe, palpitation of the heart, pale and sallow complexion, all forms of weakness either in male or female. Pink Pills are sold by all dealers, or will be sent post paid on receipt of price, 50 cents a box, or six boxes for $2.50, by addressing Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont., or Schene-
