'And are you glad to see me, my little man?' asked the bishop of Bobby.
'Yes, sir,' replied Bobby.
'Why are you so glad to see me?'
'Because it's only when you come that I have anything for dinner worth eating.'

'Now marry a girl with the idea you are going to reform her, my boy,' said the bishop. 'If she chews gum, she is a young woman, and she will giggle and chew gum when she is married.'

'I don't think I shall go abroad on the "Ten Cent,"' said Mrs. Perkins. 'George wants me to, but seems to me they must run her very carefully. She's always breaking her record.'

A woman who had escaped from a terrible shipwreck was asked by a lady how he felt when the waves dashed over him. He replied, 'Well, Madam—quite wet.'

'Take away woman,' shouted the orator, 'and what would follow?'

'We would,' said a man at the back of the audience, promptly.

'Wasn't the bride delightfully timid?' 'Very.' She was even shy ten years when it came to giving her age.

'Do you think you can read my mind?' asked the youth. 'Not unless some one discovers it for me,' was her answer.

Now comes the slender griddle-cake. By many names attended—
Slapjack or pancake, either take,
You're sorry when it's ended.

'My dear,' remarked Mrs. Smuggs to her husband, 'what do you think of the anti-theatre hat bills now under consideration by various Legislatures?'

'Well,' he replied, reflectively. 'I have not given them much thought, but if they are anything like the hat bills that come before me, I should unhesitatingly say that it will take immense appropriations to meet them.'

The class was being questioned on the difference between 'sins of omission and sins of commission.' One pupil gave it as his opinion that 'sins of omission' were sins you ought to have committed, but hadn't.

Servant—Your dog is outside, I suppose?

Caller—Dog? I have no dog.

Servant—Well, I didn't know. When I showed your card to Miss Angelina, she said:—Don't let the puppy in.

'Queer people, this,' said the rural editor.

'In what way?'

'Can't understand English. Merely advised them to give the new Mayor plenty of rope, and, bless my soul, they lynched him!'

Take things with tranquility—

Pain In the Side.

'Two years ago my mother was taken with pains in the side and back, and was also afflicted with catarrh. She became so weak that she was obliged to give up work, and a friend persuaded her to take Hood's Sarsaparilla, and after she had used one bottle she felt much better. She continued taking Hood's Sarsaparilla until now she is able to do her work and has a good appetite.' Maggie Morgan, Nasonworth, N. B.

Hood's PILLS cure biliousness, indigestion.

Anger is short madness. Is he not a madman that has lost the government of himself, and is tossed hither and thither by his fury as by a tempest? The executioner and murderer of his own friends? It does all things by violence, as well upon itself as others; and, it is in short, the master of all passions.—Seneca.

A Caution! A Warning!

If, on blowing the nose in the morning, lumps and flakes are discharged colored with blood especially on one side, lose no time in applying a remedy. Catarrh of the very worst kind has become seated, the walls are sore and full of small ulcers, and if not soon cured, will be hard to cure and eradicate. 'A stitch in time saves nine.' Use Chase's Catarrh Cure.

Intense love and intense hate like an 'illy focused lens' give a false picture of the object towards which they are turned, and like the lens the pictures they form soon vanish when the object is removed.

Unable to Work.

GENTS.—I was troubled with Liver Complaint so much that I was unable to work because of the pain and sickness it caused. The pain under my shoulders and in my sides was very severe. I am glad to say that one bottle of Burdock Blood Bitters completely cured me and I am now in perfect health.

E. DAGENAIS.

Ste. Rose de Laval, Que.

A Significant Departure.

With the departure of another year when a review is made of the condition of affairs, it is only right that some thought be given to the physical body which enables everyone to battle with life's problem and figure for themselves the profit or loss on the trial balance sheet. Though the bank accounts may be large and each one's material gain be great, it would not be surprising if it suddenly dawned upon many that good health has been greatly impoverished by the low condition of the blood. It is in this state that the lactic acid in the vital fluid attacks the fibrous tissues, particularly the joints making known the local manifestation of rheumatism. Thousands of people have found in Hood's Sarsaparilla the great blood purifier, a positive and permanent cure for rheumatism.

Hangesund on the West coast of Norway, midway between Bergen and Stavanger, has a remarkable prohibition record. When the town was incorporated, twenty-nine years ago, it was provided that no sale of spirits, either by wholesale or retail, should be allowed unless by permission of the King after a petition by the Town Council. The town has 6,200 inhabitants, is surrounded by populous parishes, and is a meeting place for fishermen, as many as 6,000 of these gathering there at one time. Nevertheless the question of having liquor sold in the town has never arisen while only the men voted, and is less likely to now that the women have a vote. No attempt has been made to smuggle liquor into the town.

Do Not Believe It.

Do not believe that Nerviline will cure neuralgia almost instantly. If your teeth ache console yourself with the reflection that pain cannot last for ever. Don't use Nerviline it might stop the pain. Rheumatism is often difficult to cure. Keep on rubbing the old fashioned liniments as a matter of respect to your grandfather's aunt. Nerviline is a new discovery that in itself ought to condemn it. Therefore cling to the old; suffer pain; avoid the use of Nerviline, the most powerful penetrating and certain pain remedy in the world.

The Northern Pacific steamer Tacoma, which arrived at Victoria, B. C., from Japan on Friday, brings news that her sister ship, the Strathnevis, which left Tacoma on Oct. 12, probably foundered in the hurricane of Nov. 15, which the Tacoma also encountered, and escaped destruction only by a miracle. The Strathnevis is now a month overdue at Yokohama.
