DR. WILLIAMS' PINK PILLS.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills Succeed Where Doctors Had Failed for Thirty Years—The Sufferer One of Northumberland Co.'s Best Known Men.

From the Trenton Advocate.

Mr. John Frost's case is a most remarkable one. He is one of the best known residents in the county of Northumberland, being a retired farmer of most ample means, and having financial dealings with hundreds throughout the townships. We have known him intimately for over ten years. From him we gleaned the following facts in February last:—"I was born in England and at twelve years of age arrived in Canada with my parents, who settled in Prince Edward county and remained there for three years. We then moved to Rowdon township in the neighboring county of Hastings. For thirty years I was a resident of Rowdon, three years I resided in Seymour township and I am at present, and have been for the past ten years, a resident of Murray township. For thirty years I have been a martyr to rheumatism. During that time I have been treated by scores of doctors and found partial relief from but one. I have during the same period tried innumerable remedies, but all failed to cure me. Scarcely a month passes that I am not laid up, and frequently I am confined to bed six or eight weeks, unable to move hand or foot and suffering untold agonies. Two well known doctors told me one time that I would have to have an arm taken off to save my life. I tell you I have been a great sufferer in my time and I would give anything to find relief. My business causes me a great deal of driving and getting in and out of my rig is agony.

Knowing his story to be true and anxious that Dr. Williams' Pink Pills should have a severe test, we prevailed on Mr. Frost, much against his will, to give them a trial. He got six boxes and commenced to use them. At the start he smiled at our confidence in the pills. We saw him after he had used the first box and he admitted some relief and said he believed there was something in the remedy. He continued their use and by the time he had finished the six boxes he was as sound and proud a man as could be found in five counties. A couple of months have passed since the cure was effected and we deferred giving a history of the case in order that we could see for a certainty that the cure was permanent. We see him several times a week actively attending to his business and at all times loud in his praise of Pink Pills. All who know Mr. Frost know that his word is as good as his bond. Yesterday we said to him, "Now, Mr. Frost, do you really feel that you are cured of rheumatism? Do you feel any twinges of the old trouble at all?" He replied, "I am cured. The Pink Pills have thoroughly routed the disease out of my system and I feel a new man. The use of the pills has given me new life and I am telling everyone I meet about the cure." Such is the case, and having known Mr. Frost for years the sufferer he was, and seeing him now active, and almost youthful again the rapid change from suffering to health seems almost a miracle. However we are not at all surprised, for on all sides we hear of cures effected by the use of Pink Pills. The druggists remark their rapid sale and the satisfaction they give their customers.

Magnitude of the Universe.

A very vivid and interesting description of the immensity of space is given by M. Flammarion the great French astronomer. In describing an imaginary journey at the speed of light he presents a view of the universe which positively appals one.

He says:—"In a little more than a second we pass in view of the lunar world which spreads before us its yawning craters and reveals its alpine and savage valleys. We do not stop. The sun reappears, and permits us to cast a look at the illuminated earth a little inclined globe slowly shrinking in the infinite light.

"Venus approaches, a new earth, equal to ours, peopled with beings in rapid and animated motion. We do not stop. We pass sufficiently near the sun to perceive his tremendous explosions, but we continue our flight. Here is Mars, with its mediterranean, with a thousand indentations its gulfs, its shores its great rivers, its nations, its strange towns, and its active busy populations. Time presses; we cannot stop.

"An enormous Colossus, Jupiter approaches. A thousand worlds would not equal it. What rapidity in its days! What tumults on its surface! What storms, what volcanoes, what hurricanes in its immense atmosphere! What strange animals in its waters! Humanity has not yet appeared on the scene. Let us fly forever fly! This world, rapid as Jupiter, girdled with a strange ring, is the fantastic planet, Saturn, round which revolve eight globes of varied sizes; fantastic, also, appear to us the beings which inhabit it.

"Let us continue our celestial flight. Uranus, Neptune, are the last known worlds which we meet in our voyage. But let us fly, forever fly! Wan, disheveled, slow, fatigued, glides before us the wandering comet in the night of its aphelion; but we still distinguish the sun like an immense and brilliant star in the midst of the population of the sky. With the constant velocity of 186,000 miles a second, four hours have sufficed to carry us to the distance of Neptune. We fly, still fly—for four years!—before reaching the nearest sun, gravitating in cadence and pouring out around it in more intense light and heat than those of our own sun.

Let us imagine that we thus sail during 1,000,000 years. Are we at the confines of the visible universe? See the black immensities we must cross! But yonder new stars are lit up in the depths of the heavens. We push on towards them. Again a million of years; new revelations; new starry splendours, new universes, new worlds, new earths, new humanities! What? never an end, no vault, never a sky to which stops us! Forever space! forever the void! Where, then, are we? What road have we surveyed? We are at the vestibule of the infinite! We have not advanced a single step; we are always at the same point; the centre is everywhere, the circumference nowhere."

Could Hardly Speak.

SIRS,—Last winter my father had such a cough he could hardly speak. He was persuaded to try Hagar's Pectoral Balsam at last, and was completely cured by half of one box.

Wise Business Maxims

The following maxims are given by periodical issued by a manufacturing firm in Toronto:

Thou shalt sell goods but six days of the week, and on the seventh thou shalt take a rest.

Thou shalt not covet thy competitor's business, for he may be nearer bankruptcy than thyself.

Thou shalt not put more sail into thy business than thou hast wind to fill.

Thou shalt not blame thy clerk for thine own mistakes nor tax him for thine own neglect.

Thou shalt not sell goods for less than cost, unless the market has gone back on thee.

Thou shalt not trust a man to whom thou wouldst not lend ten dollars.

Thou shalt not use thy business capital to speculate with nor borrow from thy friends for that purpose.

Praised By Press and People.

As a cure for Dyspepsia, Constipation, Biliousses, Sick Headache, Kidney Troubles, and all disease of the stomach, liver, bowels and blood, Burdock Blood Bitters is praised by press and public alike. The reason is that it actually does all that is claimed for it.

Young Nevine, who was shot at Montague, Maine, on the 5th inst., is a son of John Nevine, of Bathurst.

Daniel Hatfield, convicted in 1886, and sent to Dorchester for life sentence, was liberated on Thursday, and will go to Houlton, Me., where he has a position.

A special train upon which Gen. Suarez Valdez was returning from Santa Clara, Cuba, was wrecked on Wednesday by an explosion of two dynamite cartridges placed on the track by rebels. Gen. Valdez was not hurt, but two of his party were seriously wounded and twelve bruised. A band of insurgents stationed alongside the track fired two volleys into the train as the dynamite cartridges exploded, but did not hit anyone.

MARCH 15th, 1895.

DEAR SIR,—My family have received great benefits from the use of the PELEE ISLAND GRAPE JUICE during the past four years. It is the best tonic and restorative for debility, nervousness and weak lungs we have ever tried. It is much cheaper and pleasanter than medicines. I would not be without it in the house.
