

HAS HE BEEN RECALLED?—The would-be emigrant to the United States can go forward now without fear. An American officer named Mr. Heth was the cause of all the recent trouble at Vanceboro because of the carrying out of the regulations. Many desirable emigrants were turned back by him and the scare created prevented many more from attempting to enter the States. The result was bad for traffic and protests were numerous. The American government has solved the difficulty by recalling Mr. Heth, it is said. On the other hand, Mr. Heth says he has not been recalled, and that he only did his duty at Vanceboro.—Globe.

KINDERGARTEN SCHOOL.—There is a detailed account in the Kindergarten Magazine published in Chicago of the teaching in the Kindergarten School in Dartmouth, N. S., as a preparation for the Queen's birthday, Miss M. A. Hamilton, Principle of the School, which is admirably illustrative of the system of teaching in such schools. The happy children were told interesting stories of the childhood of Queen Victoria, of her mental and moral training of her coronation &c., in simple fascinating language. They were taught to make crowns for the Queen with suitable material. One of the children personified the Queen, when the ceremony of crowning her was performed. The children were also taught to make the British Flag with suitable paper, and instructed in its signification. Illustrations of the Queen's palace were shown, which deeply interested the children. Such teaching cannot fail to instruct the young, and impress them with a feeling of loyalty. The article by Miss Hamilton is well written, to which we cannot do justice unless we give it in full. We, however, may soon speak of the kindergarten system of teaching in general.

Misses Annie and Irene Black returned last week from Mount Allison Academy. Miss Florrie Caie returned last week from Sackville. Miss Janie English, of Boston, is visiting friends in town. Rev. Wm. Health Restored

ALL RUN DOWN No Strength nor Energy

Miserable IN THE EXTREME. HANDS COVERED with SORES.

CURED BY USING Ayer's Sarsaparilla

"Several years ago, my blood was in bad condition, my system all run down, and my general health very much impaired. My hands were covered with large sores, discharging all the time. I had no strength nor energy and my feelings were miserable in the extreme. At last, I commenced taking Ayer's Sarsaparilla and soon noticed a change for the better. My appetite returned and with it, renewed strength. Encouraged by these results, I kept on taking the Sarsaparilla, till I had used six bottles, and my health was restored."—A. A. TOWNS, prop. Rev. Mr. Aitken left Newcastle last Monday for a three months vacation, which his much attached people have gracefully granted him. A man of such general disposition will be much missed, even for a limited period in the community. May he return much invigorated by a well merited rest.

Prince Nazrulla, of Afghanistan, in proposing a toast to the Lord Mayor of London, recently, at Guildhall, said the friendship existing between the English and the Afghans rested upon a sure foundation. All of their old quarrels had been cleared up, and he hoped his visit to London would strengthen their bonds of union.

Cashmere was first made in Kashmir, north of Panjab, India. It is an all wool fabric originally woven from the fine downy wool of the cashmere goat, but since 1824 has been manufactured in Europe of soft, prime native wool. It differs from merino in being twilled on one side only, and from henrietta in being furnished with a more subdued lustre. Daniel & Robertson give an extensive list of black wool fabrics with their relative values in this issue.

Is not the time at hand for all self respecting newspapers to give that square-jawed, bullet-headed creation of humanity, "the puglist" the go by? asks the Boston Standard. The ability of one human brute to destroy the facial adornment of another has been the open sesame of fame long enough. Matters pertaining to him should be tabooed from the columns of all decent newspapers like all other useless matter that is daily spitted on the "dead hook."

Among those who visited Moncton Saturday for the purpose of hearing Sousa's band, our reporter noticed Misses Annie Conway, Lizzie Fraser, Mamie Lanigan, Ella McAlmon. An accident that came near having a fatal termination occurred on Thursday last near James Babane's canning factory. Two fishermen Manuel Poirier and a Rogerville man, in the employ of Daigle Bros. were recklessly overhauling some lobster traps in a heavy sea when their boat upset. They both succeeded in getting on the bottom of the boat, but Poirier was much exhausted he having got entangled when the boat overturned. The accident was witnessed from the shore and Mr. Babane immediately called for volunteers to rescue the men from their perilous situation, the rescue party consisted of Fred Blanchard, who was at the helm, Angus Robichaud, Jude Daigle, and Felix Como. They had extreme difficulty in forcing Poirier to relinquish his hold which was almost a death grasp. The boat, which belonged to Daigle Bros. was not recovered.

A Tribute to a Worthy Citizen.

A large number of gentlemen met at the Royal Hotel, Kingston, Kent Co., on Wednesday evening to entertain Oswald Smith, Esq., who is leaving for Fredericton. Rev. Wm. Hamilton, presided over the meeting composed of about thirty gentlemen. The following toasts were proposed by the Chairman, viz.:—The Queen and The Guest of the Evening. Other toasts followed and were drunk with enthusiasm. Among these were the following:—

Kent Co. responded to by Messrs. Geo. Jardine and H. M. Ferguson.

Mercantile and Shipping Interests responded to by Messrs. W. J. Brait, John Jardine, John A. Cameron and Martin Lanagan.

Medical Profession responded to in a humorous speech by Dr. I. W. Doherty.

Legal Profession responded to by Mr. H. M. Ferguson.

The Ladies responded to by Messrs. W. J. Brait and Hazen Russ.

The Clergy responded to by Rev. Wm. Hamilton.

The Chairman then in a few appropriate remarks asked Mr. Smith's acceptance of a beautiful gold-headed cane. Mr. Smith thanked his friends for their great kindness to him and expressed deep regret at parting from those with whom he had ever lived in such cordial relations and stated that he and Mrs. Smith needed nothing to remind them of a place where they had spent many happy years and of those who would ever rank among their friends. He however, valued their gift and would treasure it as a memento of his native place. The meeting closed at a reasonable hour by singing the National Anthem.

An Extended Ministry.

The Rev. Lewis Jack has been a minister in the Presbyterian Church for the long period of 50 years. His jubilee was held last Monday in the home of Dr. King his son-in-law, Bucouche. Many of his relatives met on such an interesting and happy occasion, among whom were Dr. King and family, Rev. Chalmers Jack, of Matland, N. S., his son; Mrs. Roseburgh, widow of the late Rev. Mr. Roseburgh, his daughter; Mrs. Saltz, of Chatham daughter; and many others.

The Rev. L. Jack came from Scotland to New Brunswick nearly 50 years ago. He was soon afterwards ordained and inducted into the Presbyterian congregation of St. James, Charlotte Co. After a 5 years pastorate he was translated to the congregation of Springfield where he labored with great success for upwards of 30 years, much beloved by all who knew him. Mr. Jack was one of the pioneers of the Presbyterian Church in New Brunswick. He is a truly evangelical preacher, and in the days of his vigor was an impressive and enthusiastic speaker. He is now 84 years of age, and still wonderfully strong. His saintly partner died a number of years ago. Her name is still very fragrant in Springfield where she greatly assisted her husband in the work of the Lord. Mr. Jack retired from the active duties of the ministry a few years ago, and is spending the remainder of his days in the hospitable family of Dr. King, his son-in-law. It is the ardent wish of many friends that he may be spared for many years yet, and that they may be as sunny as the past.
