"Monsoon" Tea is put up by the Indian Tea growers as a sample of the best qualities of Indian Teas. A dress does not make a woman, but often breaks a man.

The stamp of truth won't take a letter through the post.

Why shouldn't we speak of the driving clouds? Don't they hold the rains!

A man is as old as he feels, but not always as big as he feels.

"Although I'm stuck up, I'm not proud," as the fly said when he crawled out of the molasses pitcher.

Married life should be a sweet, harmonious song, and, like one of Mendelssohn's, without words.

The trouble with too many of you niggers, says Uncle Mose, is dat you wants to lib sinners and die Christians.

The more we know the greater is our thirst for knowledge; and the more we love the more instinctive is our sympathy.

Every woman is sorry for some other woman on account of something her husband told her about the other woman's husband.

There are some people who would sneer at the industry of the bee, because it doesn't furnish them with bread to spread their honey on.

The philosopher who said that all things come to him who waits, might have added that the man who goes after them gets them much more quickly.

Customer—"More than half those eggs I bought here yesterday were rotten, and yet you assured me that they were fresh-laid." Dealer—"And I had every reason to believe when they were laid they were fresh."

Dr. Hermann Weber has presented $10,000 to the Royal College of Physicians on condition that it is to be used as prizes for the discovery of a cure for consumption. The college accepted the gift with thanks.

For a moment there was an awful silence between them.

"This is final—you will not marry me?" he said at last with forced calmness.

"No, I will not," she replied firmly. He plunged his hand into his pocket and tightly clenched a six-chambered revolver, and then went round the corner and pawned it for a drink.

The Medical Press tells a story of a gentleman who went to visit a friend who was an inmate of a lunatic asylum. When he had been there about half an hour he looked at the clock and asked if it was right. The lunatic gazed at him with a look of compassion for a minute or so, and then said, "Do you think it would be here if it was right, you lunatic?"

An original sentence was given lately by a magistrate in Missouri. A man who did not know how to read and write, convicted of a slight offence, was sentenced to imprisonment until he could learn to read. Another offender, who had a good education, was sentenced to keep him company until he had taught him to read. After three weeks they were discharged, as they had both fulfilled their task to the full satisfaction of the magistrate.

A certain Mr. Harmon was trying a case before a Massachusetts judge for slander. His principal witness was an impetuous Irishwoman. She talked so fast that the judge could not write down her testimony, and attempted in vain to check her. "Stop! stop!" he cried again and again, rapping sharply on his desk; but the torrent of words went on. "Old woman, hush up!" he shouted, in exasperation. But it was useless. At last he threw down his pen, exhausted, and cried out: "There, Mr. Harmon, you set her going, now stop her!"

A well drilled in the northeast corner of Hamilton county, Ind., resulted in the development of a remarkable geyser. At a depth of 900 feet the drill apparently dropped through a crust of the rock and a rush of water followed that submerged the derrick and drove away the workmen. The drill was finally removed which gave the water an unobstructed vent, and ever since it has been escaping at a rate that threatens to submerge the neighborhood. The water escapes through a six-inch pipe and is thrown 130 feet high. The roar can be heard a mile. In the well there is no appearance of gas, and the motive power apparently comes from some other source, yet there is no elevation of consequence within a radius of many miles.

When the Queen was at Nice, she interested the people greatly by sometimes driving her handsome donkey with her own hands. Jocko is a great pet, all the more so because his kind hearted royal mistress rescued him from misery, and has had the pleasure of seeing him grow fat and sleek under her very eyes. She first saw him in charge of his owner an Italian peasant, and, noticing the thin, starved look of both, she asked the man what he had paid for him. The sum being named, the Queen doubled it, and told Giacomo to buy another donkey. This year Jocko's old master had the opportunity of seeing him again, and of noting the pleasant change in his appearance.

"Santissima!" exclaimed Giacoma, hardly able to believe his eyes, "how I wish I had sold myself to the Queen of those English as well as my donkey."—London Lady.

Cleveland for Third Term.

WASHINGTON, D. C.—The possibility of his party uniting on Mr. Cleveland for third term attracts increased attention here and his nomination, despite its exceptional character, is not an impossibility. Reciprocal trade relations with Canada and the admission in to the United States free of duty of that celebrated Canadian product, Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor, on account of its painless action and certainly, would be a plank in his platform. Use Putnam's Corn Extractor. Sure! safe! painless!

Is This Your Daughter?

She eats little.
She is dispirited.
She looks like a ghost.
Her blood has turned to water.
She is languid in mind and body.
Her symptoms are very like those of consumption.

Yet she is only a young girl just entering womanhood.

"Standing with reluctant feet,
Where the brook and river meet."

Ah! But that is one of the most critical periods in life. It is then, in countless cases, that parental neglect or lack of knowledge is responsible for permanent ruin of the daughter's health, if not for her too often untimely death. If at an age when she should be distinguished by alacrity of body, activity of mind, and joyousness of spirit, she suddenly grows weak, depressed, nervous, hysterical, listless, colourless, sometimes suffering from severe pains, appearing to have lost all her ambition in life, then, unless prompt measures are taken to renew the vitality of her blood, and so lead to a restoration of nerve force and bodily and mental energy; and give nature that assistance which this trying period so urgently demands, the results cannot be otherwise than disastrous. And if the parents fail to do their duty in the matter upon rests the terrible responsibility. There is within the reach of all an agency whereby a complete cure in all cases as that above outlined may be brought about.

Of all the wonderful cures wrought by Hawker's nerve and stomach tonic, none have been more remarkable than those in which young girls, whom their parents had almost lost hope for, were, by this great restorative and invigorating medicine brought back to perfect and permanent health. Hawker's nerve and stomach tonic is a perfect nerve restorer and invigorator and blood and flesh-builder, as well as a valuable stomach tonic and aid to digestion. It is especially adapted to the diseases of woman, such as nervousness, nervous head-aches, neuralgia, hysteria, pale and sallow complexions suppressions, anaemia, despondency, loss of memory, or any nerve weakness of the heart or brain arising from worry overstrain of mind or body, or excesses of any nature. It gives tone to the nerves and stomach, vigor to the mind and body and strength to the blood, restoring the bloom of health to the pale and delicate.

Hawker's Nerve and Stomach Tonic can be obtained from all druggists and dealers at fifty cents a bottle, or six bottles for $2.50

Marvelous.

Rev. John Roadhouse, Seeley's Bay, Ont., Can.:—"Allow me to tell of my high appreciation of the K. D. C. you kindly sent me last fall. The state of my stomach was affecting my throat, at times I feared the loss of my voice but K. D. C. brought such relief that I cannot but believe it to be a God-send. It is the best stomach medicine I have met with."

K. D. C. cleanses and heals the stomach restoring it to healthy action. Samples free, K. D. C. Co., Ltd., New Glasgow, N. S.

Don't Grumble.

Don't be a grumbler. Some people contrive to get hold of the prickly side of everything, to run against all the sharp corners and disagreeable things. Half the strength spent in growling would often set things right. You may as well make up your mind to begin with, that no one ever found the world quite as he would like it; but you are to take your part of the trouble and bear it bravely. You will be sure to have burdens laid upon you that belong to other people, unless you are a shirker yourself; but don't grumble. If the work needs doing and you can do it, never mind about that other who ought to have done it and didn't. Those workers who fill up the gaps and smooth away the rough spots, and finish up the jobs that other leave undone—they are the true peace-makers and worth a whole regiment of growlers.

C. Donnelly, prop. of the popular and well-known Windsor Hotel, Alliston, Ont. was troubled for years with Itching Piles. He was persuaded by Jas. McGarvey, Alliston, livery man, to use Chase's Ointment, which he did, was cured, has had no return of them and highly recommends this Ointment as a sovereign cure for Piles.

DEAR Sir:—My family have received great benefits from the use of the PELEE ISLAND GRAPE JUICE during the past four years. It is the best tonic and sedative for debility, nervousness and weak lungs we have ever tried. It is much cheaper and pleasanter than medicines. I would not be without it in the house.
