

PASSED AN IRON TANK.—Bqe. Bessie Markham, Stewart, at Delaware Breakwater from Cienfuegos, reports June 4 passed a square iron tank, 25 by 12, twenty-five miles S. E. of Cape Canaveral, resembling a steamboat's boiler; also split lower topsail.

AN EDITOR'S WALL.—The St. Andrews Beacon tearfully published the following: "This is not 'original sin'—The wind bloweth, the farmer soweth, and the subscriber oweth, and the Lord knoweth that we are in need of our dues. So come a runnin'; this thing of dnnin' gives us the blues.

SCHOOL EXAMINATIONS.—The examinations will be held in the public schools of Richibucto, as follows: Primary Department on Tuesday, June 25, from 1 to 3.30 p. m. Intermediate, on Wednesday, June 26, from 1 to 3.30 p. m. Advanced, on Thursday, June 27, from 1 to 4 p. m. Grammar School on Friday, June 28, from 1 to 4 p. m. Parents and all interested should not fail to attend these examinations.

OBITUARY.—The death of Mrs. Israel Hicks, of Little River, has left a blank in that community which will not be again soon filled. She was a native of Dorchester, but for the last fifty years a resident of Little River, where she was known for her many good and benevolent qualities. She was in the 78th year of her age and the fifty-fourth of her married life, but she has finished the work the Lord gave her to do. All fondly hope she is reaping her reward on the heavenly shore. She will be sadly missed by all who knew her.—Com.

PIC-NIC.—The 3rd annual picnic in aid of the Kingston Public Hall will be held in Kingston, the second week in August. The committee will use every effort to make this one of the most successful affairs ever held in the county. The sports will consist of boat-racing, foot-racing, wheelbarrow-racing, base-ball, etc. A grand dancing pavillion will be erected on the grounds, a good platform guaranteed together with excellent music. Look out for posters later, giving full information with reference to sports and prizes.

A KENT CO. GIRL KILLED.—A terrible boiler explosion took place at Langley's loom harness factory, Fall River, Mass., on Friday morning last. Four persons were killed, viz: Lelia Horton, Adele Dube, Robert Murray and Adolph Bellefeuille. The first named, Miss Horton, daughter of Mrs. Julia Horton, formerly of Moulies River, Kent County, and was a bright beautiful girl, loved by all who knew her and held in the highest esteem by her pastor, superintendent and teachers of the Sabbath School at which she was a constant attendant. The body was brought to Moulies River for interment.

FACULTY OF PHYSICIANS AND SURGEONS OF GLASGOW.—At the monthly meeting of the Faculty held yesterday, says the Glasgow Herald of the 4th inst., Robert Jardine, M. D., (Edin.) 5 Clifton Place, having passed the necessary examinations and been duly elected was admitted a Fellow of the Faculty. Dr. Jardine, who is a Kent County boy, graduated Bachelor of Medicine and Master in Surgery in the University of Edinburgh (M. B. C. M.) in 1886, and in the same year he took the membership of the Royal College of Surgeons of England (M. R. C. S.). In '89 he obtained his M. D. from Edinburgh. He has now added the letters F. F. P. and S. G. to his name. The doctor's many friends on this side of the "pond," will be glad to hear of his success.

OBITUARY.—We take the following from the Taunton, Mass., Herald of June 10th: Mrs. M. Jane Grogan, wife of James Grogan, an employe of the Taunton Lumber Co., died last Friday at the age of 60 years, 11 months and seven days. Her death was due to heart trouble after an illness of a year. She leaves a husband and twelve children, all of whom were present at her death bed. Two of the latter are married, Joseph M., a well known machinist of Brockton, and Mary A., wife of Thomas F. Gillon, an employe of the Taunton street railway. The funeral was held from her late residence, 205 Bay street, at 2.30 p. m. yesterday and from the Church of the Immaculate Conception at 3 o'clock. Interment was at St. Joseph's cemetery. Rev. Father Little officiated. High mass of requiem was held this morning at 8 o'clock. Rev. Father Roach officiated and all the members of the family and many relatives attended.

Dearest mother thou hast left us, And thy loss we deeply feel, But 'tis God that has bereft us, He can all our sorrows heal. Yet again we hope to meet thee When the day of life is fled, When in Heaven with joy we greet thee, When no farewell tear is shed.

Mr. and Mrs. Grogan were well known in Kent, being natives of Kouchibouguac. Mrs. Grogan's maiden name was Currie. The hotel now known as the New Kent, at present owned by Mr. S. O'Donnell, was conducted by Mr. Grogan, for some five years previous to his departure for the States, where the family removed some fifteen years ago.

—Though Rev. Dr. McLeod got for his services on the liquor traffic commission $6,918, which was twice as much as the chairman received, and $3,000 more than any other member asked for, he still demanded $480 extra for forty-eight Sundays he spent away from home. It is a good thing for the treasury the commission was not made up entirely of prohibitionists, remarks the Montreal Gazette.

—After a little over a week's operation the Dundas cheese factory has reached over 3,000 lbs of milk every day. The popular manager, Mr. McLaughlin, is very much satisfied with his faithful patrons, and he says that in July the factory will reach over 5,000 lbs. Mr. McLaughlin is preparing to build at once under the plan of St. Joseph factory. The building which is now used was rented for a few months until time would permit to build. The farmers were so anxious to get all the benefit of the season that they prevailed on Mr. McLaughlin to operate at once in that large building, which would make a first-class factory if Mr. John Brooks would consent to sell.
