

GENERAL NEWS.

In the last three weeks or so there have been six suicides at Niagara Falls.

James McIntyre, of St. John, N. B., was fined $20 for allowing his daughter aged eleven to tend bar for him.

Lady Wilde is said to be dying of a broken heart, and her friend in London predict she will never see her son again.

Duncan Miller, son of Wm. Miller, of Sunnyside Settlement, Westmouche, was drowned in the Chippewa River, last Saturday afternoon.

There were 9,800 murders in the United States last year, and only 110 legal executions. This may account for the presence of Judge Lynch in 194 localities.

Men are becoming scarcer year after year. So says a German statistician, and he predicts that 3,000 years hence there will be only one man to 220 women.

In the colored Baptist church at Double Springs, Ala., on Sunday, while the Rev. Greenleaf Lee, a young man, was preaching on the torments of hell, he suddenly fell dead.

The seventy-sixth annual convention of the Protestant Episcopal diocese of Maine, in session at Portland, has voted to allow women to vote at the parish meetings for parochial officers.

An Intercolonial exhibition is projected this year in London. Displays will be made of the products of all the larger colonies. The colonial agents-general at London favor the scheme.

Indiana has a youthful murderer in Gilbert Lowsher, four year old, who killed Bernice Collins, a toddling infant. The authorities are puzzled as to what is to be done with the young criminal.

Life sentence was on Friday imposed in the Superior Court at Boston on Albert T. Abbott for felonious assault upon Veronica E. Hancock, aged five years, of Roxbury. Abbott is about forty-seven years old. He committed the crime May 13.

Queer things are happening in New York nowadays. A man has refused a $7,000 position as a municipal magistrate and another man has declined the position of city chamberlain, which is worth $25,000. This is an age of miracles.

Mrs. Harriet Beecher Stowe, authoress of "Uncle Tom's Cabin," celebrated the 84th anniversary of her birthday quietly at her home in Hartford, Conn., on Friday. She is in excellent physical health and has not apparently failed during the past year.

The police report of the boiler explosion at Fall River, Mass., on Friday shows there were seventeen people in the building. Of this number four were burned to death and seven more or less injured. The others escaped with little more than a severe shock.

William Farr, the C. P. R. engineer, who in order to marry another woman, attempted to cremate his wife and family, and who the night after his arrest, escaped from the police station, has been arrested at Vancouver, just as he was to take a steamer for Australia.

In Bath, N. Y., a cat was supposed to have died. It was sewed in a bag and buried in an ash heap. Several days afterward the ashes were carted away. The next day the cat came back badly bedraggled and covered with ashes, but with eight more lives in evidence.

In a mock duel with rifles between two members of the Third Regiment, National Guard of Pennsylvania, at Philadelphia on Saturday night, Robt. Cummings, aged 19 years, was killed by a ball from the rifle of Louis Carlin, same age. Carlin did not know the rifle was loaded. He was arrested.

Lee Spragg, a young man about 20 years of age, son of A. B. Spragg, of Springfield, Kings County, is supposed to have been drowned Monday night. He was out in a canoe. Tuesday morning his upturned canoe was found on some rocks, but nothing has been seen or heard of the young man.

The Canadian Gazette, London, is authorized to deny the story that General Booth, head of the Salvation Army, would send ten thousand emigrants to Canada in the autumn. An official of the Army will go to Canada to look for a location for an Army colony and negotiate with the government for procuring land, but further plans are incomplete.

At a funeral in the town of Rovigo, Italy, about one hundred persons were standing upon a platform upon which the body had been placed pending the religious services. The structure gave way, throwing everybody to the ground, together with the coffin. Eleven men and women were killed by the fall and twenty others injured, several of them fatally.

The case against Dr. Francis Jones, of Dunbligh, Ont., charged with finding and keeping a value containing $1500, which had been lost by Jas. McCready, of Amport, on the road between Renfrew and Shamrock, last March, was heard at the Assizes in Pembroke last week. A verdict of guilty was rendered and Jones was sentenced to three years in Kingston penitentiary.

An old couple living in Glasgow were in a very depressed state owing to the dull trade. Thinking their son in America would help them, they wrote, stating their trouble, and that if he did not help them they would have to go to the porchouse. A fortnight passed, and with it came a letter from their son, saying: "Dear mother and father,—Just wait a fortnight, and I will come home an gang in wid ye. Your affectionate son."

It is not safe to trifle with the courts of Ontario. A young man was discharged from a Toronto office lately and he proceeded to get even with the manager by having a writ issued charging him with breach of promise and other offences. The writ was in the name of a fictitious workman and the charge were imaginary. Chancellor Boyd ordered the writ withdrawn and sent the joker to jail for three months, for contempt of court, where he will have ample time to meditate on the limitations of judicial appreciation of humor.

A jury composed of the best men in the town of Perry, Oklahoma, has just rendered a novel verdict. It was a case of drunkenness and disorderly conduct, and the verdict reads as follows: "We find the defendant not guilty as charged, but we find the judge of this court guilty of the offence charged against the defendant, and that the costs in this case be assessed against him." Since this verdict was rendered the judge has been arrested for intoxication and the chances are that the best citizens will quickly get rid of him in true Oklahoma style.

Detective Murray, of Toronto, has reached Peterboro to make arrests in connection with the alleged murder of David Scollie, who, in February, 1894, was found in the ruins of the Grey homestead, at Otterabee, headless and his body burned to a crisp. The Greys were keeping Scollie for the balance of his life and had taken over his farm. After the fire they went to the States. Now it is alleged, a woman near the place has confessed that Scollie was given a sleeping draught, beheaded and the house set fire to hide the crime. The case bids fair to become memorable in the criminal records of Ontario.

Hints for Housekeepers.

Slamming of the door of the oven will make cake fail.

Castor oil is the best thing with which to soften leather.

Mink may be cleaned and freshened with warm corn-meal; and, as this is a short haired fur, without removing the lining.

Plunging macaroni for a single minute in a bath of cold water after it has been cooked tender in boiling salted water prevents it being "pasty."

A pinch of powdered sugar and another of cornstarch, beaten in with the yolks of eggs, will keep an omelet from collapsing. Beat the whites stiff and cut them into the yolks.

A half teaspoonful of chicory to one third of a cup of Mocha and two-thirds of Java gives the rich, dark tint and peculiar flavor of French after dinner "black coffee."

A couple of sheets of big newspaper wrapped about ice will keep it half as long again as ice that is uncovered. The paper is much more cleanly than a piece of blanket, as it can be removed daily.

It may not be generally known that when good meat is a little tainted by warm weather or overkeeping, washing it with lime water will restore its sweetness. Dredging powdered charcoal over it will produce the same effect.

Fretting.

A good many women are more fatigued by the work they fail to accomplish than by what they do—that is they fret, and worry over the thousand and one things that demand attention and the hurrying to get through present tasks in order to turn to those others, added to a mental performance which, even though it may never materialize, are as physically exhausting to a nervously organized woman as manual labor. Fortunately there are some who can see things in their rightful proportions, whose perception of perspective is accurate and to whom small things do not assume the undue proportions which characterize Japanese art. Some women can separate essentials from non-essentials. They can stand off a little way from the situation and get its general effect or see it as it really is, which is the first and most important step toward an adjustment of themselves to it. But this practical sense of perspective is a thing which most women sadly need to develop and cultivate. Its application to woman's work is no less important than to artistic effort.

Rosebery to Retire.

LONDON, June 16.—Many have been the assertions and denials that Prime Minister Rosebery was anxious to lay down the cares of office, but the first authoritative statement was made yesterday when Lord Rosebery confessed in a speech in the Clerkenwell district both his desire to retire from the Premiership and that the time was near when the government would be overthrown. He said that among many castles in the air in which he indulged was one for the day when he should be released from his post. This day, he added, was not remote, though its nearness might be over-estimated. He said: "I am making preparations for a long rest from official work after parliament rises. I intend to take a long absence from England and shall have time to return to my old studies."

The Country Newspaper.

The country newspaper is an important agency in the cultivation of public spirit, and however humble it may seem beside the metropolitan daily, it has a place in popular education which is too little regarded. While the editor is often not above the rank of a practical printer, there are many persons in most of the suburban towns, clerical men, lawyers, teachers and others, who have the leisure and the ability to use the paper as the vehicle of influence over their fellow-citizens. The country newspaper is usually local in its news and the very people who might make it fresh and suggestive are those who complain loudly of its meagre character. Short articles containing a local interest are always welcome in its columns, and the men and women who most desire to make home life in the country rich and influential can best do so by contributing freely to its columns of what they have in mind. In some places this has been done, and the result in the quickened life of the community has been gratifying.—Boston Herald.

Mohammedan women think it sinful to show their faces, but uncover their legs without hesitation. Chinese women consider it shockingly immodest to let anyone see their crippled feet. Hindu women hide their faces, whereas their figures are clearly revealed through their transparent gauze dress. To the Japanese, the sight of our ballrooms, where girls in décolleté gowns are clasped in the arms of their partners and whirled to the sound of exciting music, seems the wildest debauch imaginable; for in Japan, the sexes, except among the lower classes never intermingle. The whole matter is summed up thus. According to the Japanese standard, any exposure of the person that is merely incidental to health, cleanliness, or convenience in doing necessary work is perfectly modest and allowable; but an exposure, no matter how slight, that is simply for show, is in the highest degree indecent.

Little River.

Mrs. Israel Hicks passed away early Tuesday morning, the 29th of May, after a lingering illness of several weeks, leaving a sorrowing husband and daughter, who have the sympathy of the community in their sorrow.

Miss Lillian Wallace is slowly recovering. She is able to get out doors. Her many friends will be pleased to hear this.

Mrs. O. Weldon and Miss Louise McKee have returned home, after a lengthy visit to friends in Shediac.

Mr. Abram Gexner's handsome mare, Lady Tyler has dropped a fine colt which Mr. G. prizes very highly. It is a beauty.

We are sorry to hear that Mr. Sam. Allanach was obliged to kill his young mare last Sunday morning.

Struck by Lightning.

Chatham World: The air has been full of rumors since Thursday morning of four or five men having been injured by lightning at the South West Boom, one of them very badly. We learn that four men who were working together on the logs were knocked into the water. Three of them were only dazed, and soon recovered, but the fourth was unconscious and had not recovered at last advices. He was using an auger when he was struck. The top of his hat was ripped off and his shirt was torn. He is reported to have scrambled ashore in his unconscious state, thus saving himself from drowning, the others being too much dazed by the shock they had received to pay any attention to him. The name of the man is Charles Duffy and his home is at Indiantown. His breast was badly burnt by the electric fluid. He was alive this (Saturday) morning, but in a precarious condition.

THOMAS.—At East Branch, May 11th, Sarah A., beloved wife of Samuel Thomas, in the 50th year of her age. She leaves a husband, 7 sons and 3 daughters to mourn their sad loss.

"The Triumph of Love IS HAPPIER FRUIT OF MARRIAGE"

Every Man Who Would Know the Grand Truths: the Plain Facts: the New Discoveries of Medical Science as Applied to Married Life: Who Would Ascend for Past Errors and Avoid Future Pitfalls, Should Secure the Wonderful Little Book Called "COMPLETE MARRIAGE AND HOW TO ATTAIN IT."

"Here at last is information from a high medical source that must work wonders with this generation of men."

The book fully describes a method by which to attain full vigor and manly power.

A method by which to end all unnatural drains on the system.

To cure nervousness, lack of self-control, dependency, etc.

To give full strength, development and tone to every portion and organ of the body.

Age no barrier. Failure impossible. 2,000 references.

The book is purely medical and scientific, useless to curiosity seekers, invaluable to men only who need it.

A despairing man, who had applied to us, soon after wrote:

"Well, I tell you that first day is one I'll never forget. I just bubbled with joy. I wanted to hug everybody and tell them my old self had died yesterday and my new self was born to-day."

Why didn't you tell me when I first wrote that I would find it this way?"

And another thus:

"If you dumped a cartload of gold at my feet it would not bring such gladness into my life as your method does."

Write to the MEDICAL COMPANY, Buffalo, N. Y., and ask for the little book called "COMPLETE MARRIAGE." Refer to this paper, and the company promises to send the book in sealed envelope, without any marks, and entirely free, until it is well introduced.
