THE ONLY ADMITTED

READ RULE XV.

"Articles that are in any way dangerous or offensive, also patent medicines, nostrums, and empirical preparations, whose ingredients are concealed, will not be admitted to the Exposition."

Why was Ayer's Sarsaparilla admitted? Because it is not a patent medicine, not a nostrum, not a secret preparation, not dangerous, not an experiment, and because it is all that a family medicine should be.

—Dr. R. P. Doherty will visit Kent on the usual dates this month.

—Rev. James Murray occupied the pulpit of Chalmers Church on Sunday evening.

—WANTED at the Kent Hotel, Richibucto, a girl for general housework. Apply to Geo. A. Irving.

—Mr. Robert Phinney gave a few friends a very pleasant outing last Thursday afternoon, in the form of a drive to the Cape, which was much enjoyed.

—Rev. Mr. Smith of St. John preached very acceptably morning and evening last in St. Mary's Church of England. While in town Mr. Smith was the guest of Mr. Wm. Hudson.

—A board rule was lost by John Clarke at or near the Little Norwest bridge last week. The finder will confer a favor by returning it to the owners Messrs. McLeod & Atkinson.

—Orders in council have been passed to extend the lobster fishing season by 10 days in Nova Scotia, New Brunswick, P. E. Island and Quebec, and the close season for P. E. Island is extended from July 15th to December 31st in each year.

—Some miscreant cut all the belts in O'Leary's mill one day last week. Mr. O'Leary intends making an example of the perpetrator of the deed if he can discover who it was. When he is sent to Drchester for a few years he will have time to repent.

—Some evil disposed person, who probably thinks that the taxpayer is having too easy a time of it, has been amusing himself lately by tearing up the sidewalks in different parts of the town. Commissioner Flanagan should use all means in his power to discover the guilty party.

—The Arts Committee of the International Fair at St. John N. B. are arranging for a fine collection of pictures, the work of some of our best known artists. Good pictures from the hands of Amateurs will command attention. A visit to the Art Gallery will well repay visitors.

—Arrangements have been made by the St. John Exhibition Association with all the lines of travel for cheap freight to and from the International Fair, which opens on Sept 24th and closes Oct 4th. No one in the Maritime Provinces should lose the opportunity of attending the Fair.

—Mr. F. T. Whitcomb wishes to inform the public that he has opened a jewelry store at Kingston in the office lately occupied by Dr. Ferguson, where he will always keep on hand a fine selected stock of jewelry, etc. Watch, clock and jewelry repairing done with neatness and despatch. Satisfaction guaranteed. A share of the public patronage is solicited.

—A connecticut clergyman has distinguished himself by openly thanking God for the failure of the apple crop because there would be less cider manufactured, and the temperance cause would be benefited thereby. To be consistent, he should also pray for the total destruction of the corn, rye, wheat, and barley crops and thus leave his parishioners dependent on potato whiskey for their spirituous stimulants.

—Certain United States papers who gave their blessing to the Cornell crew in a voice choked with emotion, and got off a lot of shreds about Young America's awful brawn, and making fools of themselves by boasting before the event, have now turned to blackguarding the defeated crew, and telling them they did not know how to row anyway. If they had won, these same papers would have lost all self-control and respect for the fitness of things, and there would have been a whirlwind of bragging instead of an outpouring of gall.—Ex.

—Through the kindness of Capt. Eagle of the Steamer 'Eva' a number enjoyed a sail down the river on Monday afternoon, the heavy sea prevented the boat from going outside on account of some of the ladies having a feeling of sea sickness, but to make up for that the sail was extended as far as Kingston. The kindness of the boat hands was much appreciated by the party on board who included, Rev. Mr. Smith, St. John, Mr. and Mrs. Fred. Ferguson, Mrs. Wm. Barnett, Mrs. S. C. Weeks, Miss Kate O'Leary, Miss Jessie White, the Misses Ferguson and the Misses Hudson.

—Mrs. Wm. Connaughton passed quietly and peacefully to rest on Sunday last about noon. The deceased lady had been ill all the past winter, although not regarded seriously so, until within the past four or five weeks. Even then her wonderful spirit kept up to the last. Those watching beside her bedside scarcely realized that death was so near. Much expression of sympathy is extending to the husband and son who survive her as well as her other near relatives. It makes it particularly sad as Capt. Connaughton is on a voyage to Australia and knew nothing about her serious illness. It will be quite a shock when the news of her death reaches him. The funeral took place Tuesday morning the remains being interred in the R. C. Cemetery. The pall bearers were Dr. Bourque, Messrs. Henry O'Leary, M. Flanagan, D. McDermott, J. D. McMinn and W. D. Carter.

—The silver jubilee of Rev. M. F. Richard, will be celebrated at Rogersville on August 14 and 15.

—The Bank du Peuple, the leading French bank of the Province of Quebec, has suspended payment.

—It has been decided in future to hold services in the Episcopal churches as follows: Richibucto, 11 a. m. and 3 p. m., Kingstow, 7 p. m.

—It is expected that the finest collection of Horses and cattle ever seen in the Maritime Provinces will be at the coming Exhibition in St. John on September next.

—The committee of three appointed by the municipal council to meet and transact any urgent business that might offer convened Tuesday and got through with all the business early in the afternoon.

—Surveyor General Tweedie and Editor Crockett of the Fredericton Gleaner, had a set to at the Adams House, Chatham, Monday evening. Mr. Tweedie objected to some criticisms that appeared in a recent issue of the Gleaner.

—Mooney's bridge has had the finishing touches put on by contractor O'Leary who made a first class job in every particular. The Big Norwest and St. Louis bridges are in a dangerous condition and need immediate attention.

—A public meeting of the pew holders of St. Mary's parish church will be held in the said parish church, Saturday evening, 27th instant at 7 p. m., to consider the advisability of altering the pews of said church and making the seats free in the same. A full attendance of pew holders is requested.

—Frank D. Phinney, a recent graduate of the University of New Brunswick, left on Monday for Halifax to join the Dominion geological survey in Nova Scotia. The party is in charge of Messrs. Fletcher and Fairbairn of Ottawa, and will probably be engaged for some weeks in the survey of the country between Halifax and Yarmouth.

—Mr. Mersereau the photographer, has arrived in town and located in the Leishman building on Water St. We understand that he will devote special attention to views of buildings, groups and outdoor work generally, but will make sittings inside as usual. We would advise those requiring work done to call and make their engagements early as he cannot remain with us long.

—The Wyoming Historical Wild West Combined Shows gave two performances here yesterday, and we have never seen larger or better pleased audiences at any exhibition in the town. The Paris Hippodrome races are exciting and wonderful, and the reproduction of the Mountain Meadow massacre and a vivid and most realistic drama of life in the land of the setting sun, was well worth double the price of admission. The lassoing of wild buffalo and long horned Texas steer, the rifle shooting of Buck Taylor, the wonderful performance of riding and driving at the same time, 35 wild mustangs are all grand features. This show has the reputation of performing all it advertises. It deserves it.—Glenn's Falls (N. Y.) Daily Times.

—Two gay and festive youths hailing from the parish of Wellington registered at the Kent Hotel on Saturday on their way north. After partaking of the hospitality for which this house is celebrated they resumed their journey. But previous to their departure doubtless actuated by a desire to have host Irving keep them in remembrance, they took advantage of the absence of the hostler from the stable and appropriated to their use a nice new halter—not a hempen one, which by the way they may get some day if they do not lead better lives. When Mr. Irving discovered his loss he mounted a bicycle and started in hot pursuit overtaking them near St. Louis. After reading them a lesson on honesty in the shape of a sound drubbing during the course of which one of them tearfully remarked: "I told you if we stole that halter we would get in trouble," Boniface Irving returned triumphantly to town.
