A Carleton Co. Miracle.

BACK TO HEALTH AFTER YEARS OF EXTREME SUFFERING.

Yielded to the Advice of a Friend and Obtained Results Three Doctors Had Failed to Secure.

From the Ottawa Journal.

Mr. George Argue is one of the best known farmers in the vicinity of North Gower. He has passed through an experience as painful as it is remarkable, and his story as told to a reporter will perhaps be of value to others. "I was born in the county of Carleton," said Mr. Argue, "and have lived all my life within twenty miles of the city of Ottawa. Ten years of that time have been years of pain and misery almost beyond endurance. Eleven years ago I contracted a cold which resulted in pleurisy and inflammation of the lungs. Other complications then followed and I was confined to my room for five years. The doctor who attended me through that long illness said that the reason I was unable to move about was due to the contracting of the muscles and nerves of my hands and feet through long confinement to bed. I could hobble around a little on crutches, but was well nigh helpless. At this stage a second doctor was called in who declared my trouble was spinal complaint. Notwithstanding medical advice and treatment I was sinking lower and lower, and was regarded as incurable. I was now in such a state that I was unable to leave my bed, but determined to find a cure if possible, and sent for one of the most able physicians in Ottawa. I was under his care and treatment for three years. He blushed my back every three or four weeks and exerted all his skill, but in vain. I was growing weaker and weaker and began to think the end could not be far off. At this juncture a friend strongly urged me to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. I yielded to his solicitations, and by the time six boxes of pills were used I found myself getting better. I used in all thirty boxes, and they have accomplished what ten years of treatment under physicians failed to do. Thanks to this wonderful medicine, I am able to attend to my duties and am as free from disease as any man in ordinary health is expected to be. I still use Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and they are the medicine for me and so long as I live I shall use no other. If I had got these pills ten years ago I am satisfied I would not have suffered as I did, and would have saved some hundreds of dollar doctor bills. It is only those who have passed through such a terrible siege as I have done who can fully realize the wonderful merit of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills."

Mr. Argue's experience should convince even the most skeptical that Dr. Williams' Pink Pills stand far in advance of other medicines and are one of the greatest discoveries of the age. There is no disease due to poor or watery blood or shattered nerves which will not speedily yield to this treatment and in innumerable cases patients have been restored to health and strength after physicians had pronounced the dreaded word "incurable." Sold by all dealers in medicine or sent by mail post paid, at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 by addressing the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont., or Schenectady, N. Y. Refuse imitations and do not be persuaded to try something else.

ITS FAME SPREADING.

A New Remedy in General Use in Manitoba and the Northwest.

WINNIPEG, MAY 27.—The effects of the regular waves of sickness which sweep over this portion of the Dominion in the spring are noticeable in the increasing amount of druggists' sales. There has been quite a run on the kidney remedy now so well known under the name of Dodd's Kidney Pills. The recovery from Bright's disease of Mr. Arthur Coley, of Somerset through their use, an account of which appeared in the papers, gave a considerable impetus to the sale, and the remedy has become indispensable in many Manitoba households, its fame having penetrated into the remotest parts of the province and North West Territories.

A woman in a western Ontario town purchased a new fangled-kettle from a pedlar. In the evening she showed it to her husband, a hardware dealer, who told her he had the same thing in his store for half the price she paid. "Well," she said, "why don't you advertise? Nobody knows what you've got for sale."

Free Us, Christ, Oh, Free Us.

AIR: "Scatter Seeds of Kindness."
Bend thine ear, oh Christ, and listen
To the ceaseless cry of woe,
Sent by all the hopeless thousands
From the saddened earth below!
How the very air is pulsing
To the million-tongued refrain;
'Give, oh give us grace, dear Father,
Our lost manhood to regain!'

CHORUS.

"Then free us, Christ, oh free us!
Then free us, Christ, oh free us!
Then give us, Christ, our freedom
From the fetters of the wine."

Lo! in yonder lighted tavern
Sits the father at his glass,
And among the merry comrades
Quick the circling goblets pass,
While at home in chilly darkness,
Waits the wife he vowed to love;
And his famine-wasted children
Send their piteous prayer above.

CHO.

Seest thou yonder poor, wretched manhood,
Staggering helpless through the street,
With a visage scarcely human,
Shunned by all whom he may meet?
In his youth he bore the promise
Of a soul to greatness born,
But the Tempter came and left him
Hopeless, friendless, lost, forlorn.

CHO.

Oh, the world is full of sighing,
Burning tears unnumbered flow;
Fairest lands are cursed and blighted
By the goblet's Hell-fire glow.
Millions in destruction's river,
Sinking in its gloomy wave,
Cry for aid,—and Thou, Christ, only,
Canst their helpless spirits save.

A Remarkable Cure.—J. W. Jennison
Gilford—Spent between $200 in consulting Doctors; tried Dixon's and all other treatments but got no benefit. The box of Chase's Catarrh Cure did me more good than all other remedies, in fact I consider myself cured, and with a 25 cent box at that.

Going to Bed Hungry.

Some time or other, away back in the course of time, the idea got into the heads of the human family that it was injurious to eat just before going to bed. This peculiar and unnatural whim has caused many a sleepless night and many a weary day. Just how it ever obtained its general standing among people might be an interesting study for some one who likes to delve after mysteries. As a matter of fact, going to bed hungry is about the most foolish thing that a sensible person can be guilty of. To be sure one should not eat heartily of indigestible food, but under no circumstances is the cravings for something to eat to be denied. Delicate persons, especially those who have little appetite, and who never eat heartily are frequently kept awake and pass sleepless nights on account of the demands of the stomach for something to work on. The digestive process continues during sleep and indeed are carried on in the best possible manner at this time, there being no other forces at work to draw the vitality from what is for the moment its most important business. It would be well if every family made some provision for this need and could keep ever ready milk, hot or cold, or a cup of broth or hot soup, says the New York Ledger.

Most coughs may be cured in a few hours or at any rate in a few days, by the use of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. With a prompt and sure remedy as this at hand, there is no need of prolonging the agony for weeks and months. Keep this remedy in your house.

How to Hear a Play.

Speaking of the young man who talks in public places, I heard a report made to him last Thursday night, which was so good I was surprised never to have heard it before. It was at the theatre, and the young man had seen the play before. He let everybody for four seats around know that, and he kept telling just what was coming and just how funny it would be when it did come. He had a pretty girl with him, and he was trying to amuse her. At length he said:

"Did you ever try listening to a play with your eyes shut? You've no idea how queer it seems."

A middle-aged man with a red face sat just in front. He twisted himself about in his seat and glared at the young man. "Young man," said he, "did you ever try listening to a play with your mouth shut?"

And the silence was almost painful.

MADE IN 1893.

DEAR SIR:—My family have received great benefits from the use of the PELEE ISLAND GRAPE JUICE during the past four years. It is the best tonic and sedative for debility, nervousness and weak lungs we have ever tried. It is much cheaper and pleasanter than medicines. I would not be without it in the house.
