A terrible scene of savagery was enacted in a blacksmith's forge in Paris a few The aggregate amount of the money days ago. A master remonstrated with his assistant for cruelly ill-treating a horse which had been brought in to be shod. An angry discussion ensued, and shortly afterwards as they were fashioning a bar of iron, the assistant suddenly brought down his heavy hammer full on his master's head, killing him instantaneously. He then snatched up the lifeless body, and, raising it up above his head, was about to throw it upon the furnace when the blacksmith's wife, who had been a spectator of the scene, rushed up and dealt him a blow on the head with a hammer, compelling him to drop her husband's corpse, and felling him to the ground.
