RAKINGS

—The schools opened Monday.

—The tea meeting and fancy sale takes place at West Branch to-day.

—Dr R. P. Doherty, dentist, will visit Kent on the usual dates this month.

—The Methodist Sunday School picnicked at the North Beach on Thursday last.

—Mr. H. T. Colpitts takes charge of the school at St. Andrews on the first of the month.

—The high wind the past few days prevented the mackerel fishermen from going outside.

—Mr. Donald Morrison, of Newcastle, is canning blueberries at Grumble Road on the K. N. R.

—Messrs. A. & R. Loggie's steamer, Mary Odell, took a load of blueberries to their canning factory in Miramichi last week.

—A unanimous call has been extended to the Rev. A. M. McLeod, Kensington, P. E. I., by the congregation of New Mills.

—Mrs. W. W. Graham, teacher, has been engaged by the people in Main River, to take charge of the school at that place.

—The R. C. congregation, Kouchibouguac, will hold a pic-nic at that place for the benefit of the church, on Wednesday next, 21st August.

—The man who stole a horse and buggy from Mr. Savage at Amherst recently was captured at Musquodobit and brought back to Amherst. He says he belongs near Shediac.

—The grand pic-nic at Buctouche on the 20th and 21st, will as usual be the event of the season and attended by the usual big crowd. The parishioners are making every effort to ensure its success.

—A pic-nic in connection with St. Aloysius church, Richibucto, will take place on September 3rd next. The committee in charge of the affair will make every effort to ensure its success.

—Messrs. Prescott & Co., are about to erect a steam mill intended to cut logs and shingles on River Benjamin, Restigouche Co., near to the site of the old mill. A number of mechanics have arrived and will commence operations immediately.

—A public meeting of the parishioners of St. Marys Episcopal church will be held in the parish church Saturday evening at 7 o'clock for the election of a rector to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of the Rev. Henry Hackenly late rector of said church.

—The Catholics of Notre Dame District, upper Cocagne River parish of Dundas, Kent Co., will hold a grand picnic on Tuesday and Wednesday Aug. 13 and 14. There will be amusements of all kinds. Proceeds for the benefit of the church building fund.

—The St. John, N. B., Exhibition buildings are being put in excellent order for the Fair which opens on Sept. 24th. Everything points to a splendid exhibition of live stock, products and manufactures of all the provinces, with a liberal sprinkling of the products of the neighboring republic.

—The notorious Wild West Show, which some of the people of Kent will hold in remembrance for some time, passed through Moncton on Sunday, having jumped from Windsor junction to Trois Pistoles, P. Q., being unable to get license at Moncton, Amherst and other places.

—The crops in the north shore counties have a splendid appearance. It is rumored in some localities that there are slight indications of potato blight. It is to be hoped that it will not spread, although the continuation of the damp weather which prevails at present has a tendency to foster the blight.

—Thieves entered the cabin of the bark Norman at Newcastle, Miramichi, Monday night, and stole $20 from Captain Gormley's trousers pocket. On Thursday night thieves walked into the bed room of Peter Archer, in the River View Hotel, Chatham, and carried off Peter's trousers, which contained $6.
