MARK IT WELL.

A Development Peculiar to the Present Generation Dangerous and Often Fatal.

As each generation comes and goes it is marked by changes, developments and discoveries unknown to its predecessors. From a physical standpoint one of the most to be dreaded conditions and peculiar for its rapid increase during the present generation, is when the mind labors under the delusion of persecution, continual restlessness, pain in the back and head, twitching of the muscles of the face and hands, furred tongue, breath foul and heavy, nausea and further indications of stomach trouble. There may be delirium, convulsions or sinking spells. Medical authorities apply different names to the conditions that are unintelligible to the average reader. The actual fact is the demoralized and dangerous state of the system is due to the accumulation of "Body Poisons" in the blood that should and would be thrown off by the Kidneys if in a healthy condition. In order to restore health, strike at the root of the disease with Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, the only medicine known that will control the changes going on in the Kidneys, enabling them to furnish for the whole system blood free from disease-breeding poison, building up the shattered condition of nerves, and relieving mental depression. Price 25c., sold by all dealers. Edmonson, Bates & Co., Toronto.

IN DEEP DESPAIR.

A MONTREALER RELATES HIS WONDERFUL EXPERIENCE.

He Had Tried Foreign and Local Physicians and was Operated Upon Without Success—Dr. Williams' Pink Pills Cured When all Other Medicines Failed.

From the Montreal Herald.

Instances of marvellous cures by the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People are numerous, but the one related below is of special interest, owing to the peculiarity of the illness, and also to the fact that in the present instance the gentleman is well known in Montreal. Mr. Charles Frank, inspector of the mechanical department of the Bell Telephone Co., at 371 Aqueduct street, and who resides at 54 Argyle Avenue, in an interview with a Herald reporter, related the following wonderful cure by the use of Pink Pills. Mr. Frank, who is 25 years of age, is a Russian by birth, exceedingly intelligent, speaks several languages fluently, and is now apparently in good health. "My illness came about in a peculiar way," said Mr. Frank. "Up to three years ago I was in the best of health. About that time while in Glasgow, Scotland, where I was employed as a clerk in a hotel, and while sculling on the Clyde, a storm came up, and I had a pretty rough time of it for a while. I evidently must have injured myself internally, although I felt nothing wrong at the time. On my way home, however, I felt helpless on the street and had to be conveyed home in a cab, as my legs were utterly unable to hold me up. I was confined to bed for several days in the same helpless condition when I rallied, but found that my urine was of a strange reddish hue. I called in a physician, who prescribed, but did me no good. I then called on Sir George McLeod, M. D., who also prescribed and advised me to go to the hospital. I was averse to doing this, and he advised me then to try a change of climate, telling me that my bladder was affected. I acted on his suggestion as to change and came to Montreal. I did not do anything for about a year, as I wished to get cured. All this time my urine was tainted with blood, although I was suffering no pain, but this abnormal condition was a source of continual anxiety. I finally went to the General Hospital, where the physician in charge advised me to stay, which I did. After remaining there for five weeks with no benefit, a consultation of physicians was held and an operation suggested, to which I this time agreed. After the operation was performed I was no better, my condition remaining absolutely unchanged. From this out I was continually trying medicines and physicians, but derived no benefit from anything or anyone. I was in despair, as the physicians who had operated on me could not decide as to my trouble. I visited the hospital once more, and they said they would operate again; but I did not care to undergo a second and perhaps equally unsuccessful operation. Some physicians thought my trouble was consumption of the bladder, others that it was Bright's disease, but could not cure that strange bloody condition of my urine.

"Finally I went to work for the Bell Telephone Co., some two years ago, where I worked myself up to my present position. But I was in a state of constant anxiety, as I felt myself getting weaker all the time, and was listless and sleepy and weak in the legs. I was also pale and ill-looking, no doubt owing to loss of blood. From a naturally cheerful man I became morose, and gave up all hopes of ultimate recovery. One Saturday, some months ago, while walking along Bleury street, having seen the advertisement of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills in the Montreal Herald, I stopped at John T. Lyons' drug store, and bought a box. I had tried so many medicines that I said to myself, 'If they don't cure me I can't be any worse off than before.' After taking the first box I felt stronger and more cheerful, although there was no change in the bloody condition of my urine. But I felt encouraged and got three more boxes, determined to make a thorough trial of Pink Pills. After I had finished the second box I found my urine was getting clearer, so I continued the use of the pills, taking two after each meal. When I had finished the third box my urine was quite clear, for the first time in three years. I was delighted, and continued taking the pills until I had finished six boxes. I am strong now and have had no recurrence of the trouble, and as you can see, the flush of health shows itself in my face. To think that I was cured by the use of $3.60 worth of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills after trying a number of physicians and undergoing an operation in vain is a puzzle to me, and I am sorry that I didn't know about this grand medicine before. I would have willingly given $200 or $300 to have been guaranteed a cure by anyone."

"I am willing," said Mr. Frank, in conclusion, "to see anyone who wishes to verify this interview, as I consider it my duty to my fellow-men and a matter of gratitude to the marvellous cure their medicine has effected. I have come to the conclusion that Pink Pills are the best blood builders in existence, and I think everyone should try them."

GAINED A FOUND EVERY DAY.

Dyspepsia and Catarrh of the Stomach cured by B. B. B. after hope was given up.

GENTLEMEN.—For over two months I was very ill from what I believe was a malignant type of Dyspepsia. I at once consulted a physician who treated me for Dyspepsia without success. I then went to a specialist who diagnosed the case as Catarrh of the Stomach, his treatment also failed and I was getting worse every day. I could not rest at night and had to walk the floor to get any ease. I failed from 195 pounds down to 135 pounds and about gave up in despair when I heard of Burdock Blood Bitters as a remedy for dyspepsia. The first bottle made a change for the better, and I bought six more being delighted to find myself getting better. Under the use of B. B. B. I gained a pound a day. I took 18 bottles in all and am now nearly back to my old weight. I recommend dyspeptics to try the old reliable B. B. B. that always cures.

Mrs. Peaslaw—How on earth did you get yourself so dirty? Johnnie—I was in swimmin'.

"So your papa is willing to trust me with you, is he?" "Yes, he seemed sure you'd fetch me back to him."

She—Yes, I am very fond of pets. He—Indeed. What, may I ask, is your favorite animal? She, frankly—Man.

Mack—My wife made me a present of a $50 bill yesterday. Wylde—You're in luck. Mack—I don't think so. I have to pay it.

Bachelor—I am told that a married man can live on half the income that a single man requires. Married man—Yes, he has to.

Winks, who keeps house.—We had an old-fashioned potpie for dinner to-day. Minks, who boards.—We had an old-fashioned chicken.

"Some people," remarked the cannibal chief, as he passed his plate for a second supply, "have a mission in life while others only have a missionary."

Bragg—Oh you can't get ahead of me. Synnex—I don't know as I care to get a head of you if the one you exhibit is a fair sample of your stock in trade.

Dukane—So young Timberwheel has succumbed to Cupid and married the ugly Miss Roxgale. Gaswell—You mean he has succumbed to cupidity.

Clery—That gentlemen you sold a bottle of hair dye to three weeks ago was here again to day? Druggist—Was he after another bottle? "No, sir. He wanted to know if we kept wigs."

Guest, pushing them away from him—I don't like the way you cook eggs at this restaurant. Waiter—What's the trouble, sir? Guest—you don't cook them soon enough.

"Well," said the camel in the circus parade, "there's one comfort for me after all." "What do you mean?" "My hump is pretty bad, but it might be worse. I don't ride a bicycle."

Guest, angrily—What has become of the waiter I gave my order 'most an hour ago? Head Waiter—I don't know, sah, but most likely he's waiting on some gent wot tipped him, sah.

Hoax—That horse of mine sets a good example that some men would do well to follow. Jux—Why, the nag is no good. He interludes. Hoax—That's just it. He interludes, but only with himself.

Cobble—I don't think the landlord of the Ocean Bar House liked what I said to him before I went in bathing. Stone—What was that? Cobble—I asked him if there were any other sharks around.

MARCH 15th, 1895.

DEAR Sir,—My family have received great benefits from the use of the PELEE ISLAND GRAPE JUICE during the past four years. It is the best tonic and sedative for debility, nervousness and weak lungs we have ever tried. It is much cheaper and pleasanter than medicines. I would not be without it in the house.
