

LOCAL & GENERAL.

THEY ARE HUSTLERS—Perhaps the busiest men in Kingston this winter are Geo. and Edward Wilson, carriage and sleigh makers. Besides doing all the repairing brought to their establishment, they have completed a number of very pretty and stylish sleighs. Their sleighs are in great demand, and with their present limited facilities they cannot half fill their orders. One of their recent productions which is particularly worthy of note, is a single driving sleigh with carmine bottom and shafts, and white and gold box and seat. The upholstery is of maroon plush. It is quite a novelty and will no doubt prove a good advertisement. They intend placing machinery in their shop in the spring and hope in future to be able to fill their orders. Besides their sleigh and carriage work, they supply nearly all the coffins and caskets used about here. Their supply of these articles is procured from Philip & Eckardt, of Toronto, the largest makers of these goods in Canada.

A KENT COUNTY CASE IN EQUITY.—In the Equity Court at St. John on Friday, in Jas. D. Irving vs. Thomas McWilliam—Dr. A. A. Stockton, counsel, with J. D. Phinney for the defendant, moved for the dissolution of an injunction order. The matter was allowed to stand over, as a motion is to be made before Judge Hanington at Dorchester for a renewal of the order.

THREE CASES AGAINST THE SOCIAL CLUB.—Inspector Menzies has made three complaints against Wm. Coulson, steward of the Chatham Social club, charging him with the illegal sale of liquor—first, between Nov. 1st and 10th; second, between Nov. 10th and 20th; third, between Nov. 20th and Jan. 1st. The late Frank Griffin was in charge, with Coulson as his assistant during the period covered by the first two charges. The club has been reorganized since his death, and the lawyers who belong to it are of opinion that it is conducted in a perfectly legal manner.—World.

REWARD OF MERIT.—Mrs. Robert R. McLellan, of Kingston, who last year gave birth to triplets, all of whom are alive and doing well, received on Saturday last £3 sterling, bounty allowed by her Majesty, the Queen in such cases. The bounty was procured at the instance of Mr. Geo. V. McInerney, M. P., and was sent by the Marquis of Ripon to his excellency, Lord Aberdeen, who forwarded it to Mrs. McLellan.

Bass River.

JAN. 28th, 1895.—The dramatic performance in the hall, "Ten Nights in a Bar Room," was successfully carried out on Saturday night, the 19th inst., there being quite a large attendance.

Miss Mary Sullivan is about to take her departure for Berlin, N. H.

I wonder where the team with the pink cloud is. I suppose we won't see them again until there is preaching in the M. R. We hope that the next time there is preaching there it won't be so cold that the young gents will freeze their fingers and ears.

Who lost the fancy bowl? Be careful, F.

Where is the glittering reptile now? I suppose it has taken to the woods until the spring as there is no long grass for it to hide in.

Mr. Albert Campbell is recovering from a very serious illness.

It is a pity that everybody has not crab apple trees in their gardens so that they would not have to go to their neighbor's trees to sit beneath them in order to shade them from the light of the moon during midnight hours.

I wonder what has become of Double L. L. I think they must have given up their place to Hans and Gretchen, or else L. was afraid L. would let the cat out of the bag again.

NUGGETS.

—28,811 tons of hay were imported by England from Canada in 1894.

—An effort is being made to start another pulp factory in Chatham.

—Lord Randolph Churchill died in London at six o'clock Thursday morning last.

—Kouchibouguac people report an earthquake shock at that place on Friday night last.

—Manager Brown despatched a train over the K. N. R. Sunday to keep the road open.

—A thing of beauty—a pretty hand daintily gloved, see Daniel & Robertson's advertisement in this issue.

—Fresh sausages every week at W. W. Short's, Richibucto. Prime finnan haddies this week, 8 cents a pound.

—The Miller Tanning Extract Company are making preparations to start their factory at Mortimore early in February.

—Owing to the quantity of ice on the track, the K. N. R. train did not reach the junction in time to connect with the accommodation train on Wednesday last.

—Rhodes, Curry & Co., of Amherst, have been awarded the contract for building 300 coal hoppers, one first class passenger coach and one combination passenger and baggage car for the Dominion coal company of Cape Breton.

—The farmers of Molus River, Bass River, and adjoining districts are quite enthusiastic over the proposed new butter and cheese factory at Brown's yard. As this is one of the best farming districts in Kent, there can be little doubt as to its ultimate success.

—On Tuesday night last week the M. and B. train ran out about midnight to keep the track clear of ice and came in on Wednesday evening with one side of the engine broken, which necessitated running out on Wednesday night to change the engine.

—The name of Geo. W. Raymond, proprietor of the Carleton House, Kouchibouguac, was accidentally omitted from the list of names of those who had been granted tavern licenses at the recent session of the municipal council, the report of which appeared in our last issue.

—Messrs. Huestis, White and McArthur of Sussex, have received their returns for $1400 worth of turkeys that they shipped to the English market some time ago, and while they have not succeeded as well as they expected, yet they have done fairly well and they hope with this year's experience to do better next summer.

—We are in receipt of a copy of a special edition of Copp, Clark & Co.'s Canadian Almanac for 1895, printed for the enterprising corporation of H. H. Warner & Co., Ltd., of London, England, who are now sole proprietors of Warner's Safe Cure. It is full of valuable information and reflects credit on the publishers as well as on the enterprise of the English Company.

—A Buctouche correspondent says:—One of the genial men of Buctouche, recalling youthful reminiscences recalled cold Friday. He was lumbering right back of Irishtown that winter and there were five men in his camp. That night they kept a roaring fire on but could not keep warm so he determined going out and running himself warm. He went out and run until he was out of breath, stopping to rest he found himself freezing. A happy thought seized him and grasping it quickly, dug a hole in the snow, crawled in and hauled the hole in after him, in other words, covered himself with snow and soon was comfortably warm, soon falling asleep, slept peacefully and quietly until next morn. On returning to camp he found all the men who stayed by the fire more or less frost-bitten. The squire says the fire must have frozen up and asked the narrator if the fire was slippery when it was frozen like that. Next!

—Last Wednesday, a well known youth of Kingston, "Donnelly" Woods, was brought to Kingston accused of having stolen a pair of trousers and seven dollars in cash from the residence of Mr. Thomas Whalen, Molus River. Stipendiary Richardson, who happened to be in Kingston when the culprit arrived, gave him a hearing and decided to send him up for trial at the next term of the County Court. But no constable could be found to convey "Donnelly" to jail, and while a constable was being sought, he skipped out. After considerable delay, W. H. McArthur was found and given the papers, but "Donnelly" is still at large. "Donnelly" has practised small thefts until he has become a "professional"; and while there is much sympathy for his parents, the public feel that a few years sojourn in Dorchester would be beneficial to the young man's morals. It appears that "Donnelly," who is frequently on the tramp through the country districts, came to Mr. Whalen's house, Tuesday night, where he was given his supper and lodged for the night. Being of an inquisitive nature he discovered a pair of pants, in the pockets of which was the sum of $7.00, both of which he appropriated to his own use and left without waiting for breakfast. Upon Mr. Whalen's discovery of his loss, he informed some of his neighbors who arrested "Donnelly" in an informal way and brought him to Kingston.

—Dr. Cadieux will lecture in the temperance hall, Richibucto, on Tuesday evening next, February 5th. The eminent lecturer was unable to keep his appointment for last Tuesday and the lecture was consequently postponed to the above date. Subject: "Women of to day, men of tomorrow."

—On Tuesday of this week some very fair hauls of smelts were made down river, indeed the best in this part this season. Fishermen report that there are large quantities of fish in the flats, and the ice is too thin to drive them into deeper water—or where they can be caught with nets. Some fishermen expect good hauls yet.

—Early Monday morning at St. Louis, Julien Guimond's house was completely destroyed by fire. The fire had gained such headway when discovered that the inmates, consisting of twelve persons, had barely time to escape with their lives. Nothing was saved but one or two beds. No insurance. Last winter Mr. Guimond lost a barn by fire.

—The first of a series of social dances was held in the Masonic Hall on Thursday last. Quite a large number were present and as is usual at such affairs, everybody was happy. The acknowledged belle is a young lady residing on Pagan street. The second dance of the series will be held on Thursday next. The music was furnished by Prof. John Fitzpatrick's orchestra.

—The funeral of the late Mr. Geo. Stephens, who died at Douglastown, on the 5th inst., was one of the largest ever seen in that place. Mr. Stephens was an elder of the Presbyterian Church, and had been a Son of Temperance for nearly fifty years. The society attended in full regalia and also the scholars of the Sabbath school where Mr. Stephens had been a teacher. His regalia as D. G. W. P. was placed upon his casket as well as a beautiful floral wreath. Rev. Messrs. McCoy, Watson, and Johnston, joined in the funeral services. Mr. Jas. Stephens of West. Co., brother of deceased, although in his eightieth year was present and also Miss Mary Stephens, of Boston, Mass. Mr. S. was very popular and highly respected for his sterling qualities as a man and a citizen.
