Piles! Piles! Itching Piles.

Symptoms—Moisture: intense itching and stinging; most of night: worse by scratching. If allowed to continue tumors form, which often bleed and ulcerate, becoming very sore. SWAYNE'S Ointment stops the itching and bleeding, heals ulceration, and in most cases removes the tumors. Advertisers, or by mail, for 50 cents. Dr. Swaine & Son, Philadelphia. East Galloway.

Mr. Robert Main, Mr. O. Lennox, Mr. D. J. Foster and others are busily engaged in extensive lumber operations.

The many friends of Mrs. E. Smith will be glad to learn that she is recovering from her recent illness.

Mr. J. Glendonning is receiving congratulations on the arrival of a son.

Mrs. Samuel Girvan spent a few days last week visiting her friends at Pine Ridge.

We are pleased to welcome in our midst Miss Marion Wather—our new teacher.

Miss Annie McLellan and Mr. James McNairn, visited friends in East Galloway last week.

Mr. A. Lennox, Miss Wathen, Miss Martha Girvan drove to West Galloway on Monday evening, and spent a very pleasant time at the residence of Mr. A. McNairn.

The many friends of Mr. Robert McLellan, are sorry to hear of his departure to New York. As we have so few young men in our locality, we can ill afford to lose one so genial, and so well known as our friend "Bob." The fair sex are inconsolable at his departure.

All are looking forward to a pleasant evening on Friday, Feb. 8th. On that evening a basket social and entertainment will be held in the school house here. A good programme will be provided. An organ has been engaged for the occasion, also two violins, so we are expecting a rich musical treat. All are cordially invited to attend. We hope that all our lady friends will come provided with baskets.

St. Louis Notes.

About 5 o'clock Monday morning, the house of Julien Guimond near St. Louis corner took fire. In less than half an hour everything was burned down to the ground. Some of the members of the family suffered much from cold before they could reach the neighboring house. Very few articles were saved.

Mr. H. Landry took the contract of keeping the sidewalk ploughed for the winter. Mr. L. is the right man at the right place.

At a smelt fisherman's meeting held last week at the Black land Gully Hotel, St. Louis Bay, after a debate of four hours it was decided that unless there would be a good haul of the little beauties between Friday and Saturday next, they would apply for an extension of time. Among those present were Lazoire and Larry, Gus and Fred, Prosper and Placide, Peter and Jean Baptiste. Placide presided.

Luc Guimond cut in one day last week, 54 marketable logs.

Mr. Luc Babin is soon going to take possession of the house formerly occupied by Jos. Cormier on Main street.

The St. Louis driving club assembled at Old Maggie's, Monday evening. After a long parlez-vous the motion was passed to have a horse race below the St. Louis bridge about March 15th, for a purse of $200.00. Enter your flyers, boys. SIMON.

Buctouche Notes.

JAN. 28.—Last Thursday evening, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Irving gave a very pleasant party at their residence. There were present, Mr. and Mrs. James, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Irving, Mr. and Mrs. Coates, Miss Ingalls, of Shediac, Miss Johnson, Miss Irving, Miss Chandler, the Misses Foley and Messrs. Hutchinson, Irving, Ross and Pearson. The evening was passed pleasantly by social games and carpet dancing, but the feature of the evening was unnetting the spider's web for which prizes were given. The long prize was captured by J. A. Irving and the booby prize by H. H. James. At eleven o'clock the party sat down to a sumptuously prepared supper. At the approach of low twelve o'clock the company dispersed.

During the past week the trains on the B. & M. have been very irregular. The engine ran out on Tuesday night to keep the track clear of ice, returning on its regular trip on Wednesday afternoon with one side of the engine broken, necessitating taking the engine to Moncton, Wednesday night, returning on Thursday afternoon.

F. N. Hall, local manager of the M. & B., was in town on Thursday night.

J. D. and R. A. Irving drove to Moncton on Wednesday.

Smelts are still scarce and are commanding good prices.

A. McNairn, representing S. Hayward, of St. John, did Buctouche during the past week.

Jean Cormier is at the Bay View Hotel. N. J. Ross spent several days last week in Kingston.

B. S. Smith, of Moncton, was in town last week.

Miss Josie Sutton spent Sunday with her parents.

Miss Mary Hannagan, accompanied by Miss Terry and Mr. Fillmore, spent Sunday with her parents.

Miss Hannagan is visiting Miss Dysart of Cocagne.

Miss Florence Curren, of Kingston, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Ross.

Wm. Luggie drove to Richibucto, yesterday.

R. M. Foley drove to Cocagne, yesterday.

A. McNairn reports favorably on the lumbering operations up the river.

The Methodist Sunday-school children are to receive a treat on Thursday evening by some of their well-wishers.

Saturday's storm was short but could not be worse while it lasted. The Buctouche train did not get to the station until Sunday at noon, and started for Moncton at once. Word reached here last night that the snow-plow and engine were off the track at McKee's. At the time of writing it is impossible to say when it will be on as no word has reached here since. Later, the engine was got on Monday evening.

Jos. Michaud got one of his fingers very badly jammed last week between two logs.

Dr. P. Doherty is in town on his monthly business trip.

Cliff White, late engineer of the B. & M., is spending a few days among his Buctouche friends.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

"Several years ago, my blood was in bad condition, my system all run down, and my general health very much impaired. My hands were covered with large sores, discharging all the time. I had no strength nor energy and my feelings were miserable in the extreme. At last, I commenced taking Ayer's Sarsaparilla and soon noticed a change for the better. My appetite returned and with it, renewed strength. Encouraged by these results, I kept on taking the Sarsaparilla, till I had used six bottles, and my health was restored."—A. A. TOWNS, prop. M. OF R.

The Honorary President Gives Able Reasons for Membership.

BUCTOUCHE, Jan. 22.—At last night's meeting of the M. of R. the honorary president, not to be outdone by the new legal light that shineth within the parlors of the noble order, spoke as follows:

"Gentlemen, Oi wish to spake with ye to-night and make ye enthusiastic in behalf of the M. of R. Oi'm no' talented nor goitted in the languages. Oi no' talk Frinch, Loatin, Spanioish, nor Injun, but plain, blunt Oinglish. Oi am no arrater as our ligal luminary be, but as ye all know me, Oi'm a moim that loves his rist an' loves the min ov rist. Oi am no' in favor ov illegant words sich as moine lirmed friend gave last wick, an' ignorant moim loike meeself would conclude, after readin' sich an harangue, that insted ov bein' min ov rist, we were multi asini, yea, multi asellorum nequissimas, be japers. Why am Oi a M. of R.? Oi will tell ye me reasons. If Oi was a business moim Oi might be chatin' some one; if a farmer, Oi would hav' to work too dom hard; if a fishermin, Oi might git wit an' hav' the rheumatics an' that ain't noise to hav'; if Oi was a lawyer Oi might hav' to loie an' that would trouble me conscience; if Oi was a doctor Oi might pisin some one by moistake; if Oi was a preacher Oi would no feel loike expoundin' the gospil if Oi hit me finger woth a hammer; if Oi was a teacher about the only thing Oi could teach woth any degree of dirtainty would be how to do nothin'; Oi would no' want to be a sailer fer as loike as nout Oi would git sa-sick; nor a soldier 'cause Oi might hav' to go to war an' hurt sum-budy; and Oi always fought aggin bein' a carpenter fer fear Oi'd hav' to make me own coffin; an' Oi'd dispise meeself if Oi was a blacksmith 'cause Oi don't think it moimly poundin' away at a thoin' all the toime; oin short, gentlemen, Oi know ov nothin' to suit me capabilities an' Oi desires equal to bein' a member of the M. of R. Oi hav' finished spackifyin'." Ov R. roarious applause followed the above able justification of the honorary president's position as a member of the M. of R., and by unanimous vote he is henceforward allowed double rations of tobacco, and the meeting closed with singing "For He's a Jolly Good Fellow."
