OBITUARY.—The death of the late Mrs. A. T. Smith, formerly of Kingston, but for the past year residing with her uncle Edward Walker, Esq., of Bass River, came with a sudden shock to the people of this town on Saturday morning last, after a short illness of about three days. The deceased was a daughter of the late David Wright and was born here fifty-six years ago. She leaves a family of eight children, three daughters, Mrs. I. B. Oakes, of Wolfville, Mrs. E. B. Todd, St. Stephen, and Mrs. A. B. Carson, Kingston, and five sons Nathan, David, Sheraton, Allan and John to mourn the loss of a beloved and loving mother whose whole life has been one of Christian spirit and sympathy. The funeral took place Sunday afternoon from her late residence, Bass River, and was very largely attended. Interment in Kingston.—Com.

THE SOCIAL CLUB CONVICTED.—The judgment of Police Magistrate McCully, in the Scott Act cases against the steward of the Chatham Social Club, squarely condemns the club as a device for violating the law. The steward is convicted of three offences charged, and fined $150 and costs, about $175 in all. Each member of the club is liable, according to this judgment, to be fined as a liquor dealer, because the employer is equally liable with the employe. Each member is a partner in the business, and the steward is his servant. It would make lively times in the Police Court if Inspector Menzies should lodge complaints against the whole two hundred and forty members! A general election would be a tame affair in comparison. He could, under this judgment. This is the meaning of the judgment.—Chatham World.

PERSONAL

Mr. Thomas Scott, of Jardineville, is dangerously ill.

Mr. Thomas Girvan of Galloway, who has lived in Kent for 75 years, looks as hale and hearty as most men at fifty. Mr. G. has been married 51 years and has raised a family of eight children all of whom are living. THE REVIEW hopes that Mr. and Mrs. Girvan may live many more years and continue to enjoy the best of health. Not many families can show a record like this.

Mr. Harry Smith, of Bass River, was in town on Sunday.

Miss Emma Amireaux, who is teaching at Main River, spent Saturday and Sunday at her home.

Miss Percy returned home last week from an extended visit to Moncton.

Mrs. David Cochrane arrived in town on Saturday, from Fort McLeod, Alta., to visit Mr. and Mrs. John Cochrane. Mrs. Cochrane's friends will be pleased to welcome her again, after an absence of three years.

DEATHS

TRAEER.—At Chatham, on Saturday, February 23rd, 1895, after a lingering illness, Leopold George Frederick Traer, a native of Exeter, England, in his 78th year, leaving a sorrowing wife and two children, to mourn their loss.

SMITH.—At Bass River, on March 2nd, Jane Wright, widow of the late Albert T. Smith, aged 56 years, 7 mos.

MARRIAGES

COULD HARDLY WALK ON ACCOUNT OF RHEUMATISM P. H. FORD —OF— Quachita City, La., After TWO YEARS Suffering IS CURED —BY— THE USE OF Ayer's Sarsaparilla

"For fully two years, I suffered from rheumatism, and was frequently in such a condition that I could hardly walk. I spent some time in Hot Springs, Ark., and the treatment helped me for the time being; but soon the complaint returned and I was as badly afflicted as ever. Ayer's Sarsaparilla being recommended, I resolved to try it, and, after using six bottles, I was completely cured."—P. H. FORD, Quachita City, La.

This is to be the greatest season for pretty cotton dresses that has been known for many years.

The dainty effects produced in the wearing, the beautiful tints and colorings, and the lightness and airiness of the goods make everyone exclaim when examining them.

Then the lovely fabrics for blouses too; just enough stiffness formed in the weaving to make the big sleeves stand out properly.

The satin ducks or suitings are entirely new this season and are the thing for Sailor Suits and Eton Jackets, the cloth is firm and will keep its shade—colors 10 shades—price 19c.

Write for samples now and get an early choice.

RAKINGS

—Cattle for sale. See ad. in this issue.
 —W. H. L's letter will appear next week.

—A McNair correspondent did not send name with notes.

—Read Messrs. T. Collins & Co.'s new advertisement on page 5.

—This is to be the greatest season for pretty cotton dresses known for many years. See what Daniel & Robertson have to say in this issue.

—Judge Landry has subscribed $500 towards the erection of a monument to the late Father Lefebvre, president of St. Joseph's college.

—Messrs. Manchester, Robertson & Allison, of St. John, paid $25,219.88 in duties on dry goods imported during the month of February.

—In the shooting match on Saturday, the prize, a double-barrelled fowling piece was won by Wm. E. Fortes. The match was held by Geo. Amiraux.

—The snow plow on the M. & B. railway was badly broken up recently and efforts to clear the track from the Buctouche end have been suspended. Work will be proceeded with from the Moncton end, but it will likely be some days before the train will be running.—Times, Monday.

—Last week Mr. Hiram Thompson was the recipient of a letter, pamphlets and testimonials from a manufacturer of patent medicine. One Burtin Hawkins of Bordentown, N. J., read in THE REVIEW about him suffering from rheumatism, so sent a letter, testimonials, etc., setting forth the wonderful cures his "Hawkins Specific" had made and asking for a trial.

—Banjo players will be particularly interested in a new musical instrument recently imported by K. Bezanon, of Moncton; it is called the Mandoline-Banjo, and while it possesses the pure, sweet Mandoline tone is tuned and played exactly like a banjo thus giving every banjo player a chance to play an instrument producing a tone exactly the same as the Mandoline.

—The annual meeting of the stockholders of Rhodes, Curry & Co., (Ltd.) was held at Amherst on Tuesday last. A dividend of 7 1/2 per cent. was declared and a respectable sum added to the rest account. The following named gentlemen were elected officers for the ensuing year: N. Curry, president; N. A. Rhodes, vice-president; J. M. Curry, secretary-treasurer; J. C. Robertson, consulting director; J. M. Townsend, T. R. Black, M. P. P., Chas. Archibald, directors.

—The following appointments have been made by the provincial government in the County of Kent: Philip Arseneault to be a Commissioner of the Parish of Acadieville Civil Court. Joseph Coates to be a Commissioner of the Parish of Saint Mary Civil Court. Marc Bourque to be a Commissioner of the Parish of Saint Paul Civil Court, instead of the Parish of Saint Mary. George E. Irving, Basil E. Johnson, Aime Breaux, James Morton and Joseph Coates to be Justices of the Peace.

—Some of the widowers of Kent Co., and this town particularly, would do well to communicate with the lady in Chatham of whom we read last week as having satisfactorily secured a life partner for a Gloucester Co. widower in a very short time. There are a plentiful supply of widowers here who might get suitably mated did they entrust this lady with their ideals of domestic requirements, and I am sure did the widowers gain the smile of matrimonial bliss the bachelors would not be long in following their example.

—Quite a number of townsfolk attended the funeral, on Sunday, of the late Mrs. Albert Smith whose sudden death occurred at the residence of Mr. Edward Walker, Bass River, on Saturday morning. The interment took place in St. Andrew's cemetery, Kingston. There are those who have pleasant remembrance of the late Mrs. Smith from her early childhood, and others who were associated with her in her more mature life when she was a resident of this town some years ago. Her pleasing manner won many friends and she was always an affectionate and patient mother to her large family of sons and daughters, of whom nearly all survive her.

—At an early hour Sunday morning Dosithee Richard's barn was destroyed by fire together with all its contents. Besides the hay, etc., in the barn a quantity of shingles were stored therein. A cow and some poultry perished in the flames. The fire engine, which is a good one when properly taken care of, was in an almost useless condition, and as a hole had to be cut through the ice to get the water the engine was not got under way until all danger was past. The rain and snow of the previous evening, together with the strenuous exertions of the bucket brigade, prevented the flames from spreading to the surrounding buildings. The fire was started, it is supposed by hot ashes. Secretary W. J. Smith on Saturday last, called a meeting of the firewardens for Monday night. It is to be hoped that as a result of their deliberations the fire apparatus will in future be kept in a more serviceable condition.

—The local legislature was prorogued on Tuesday last.

—Total eclipse of the moon on Sunday night next, March 10th.

—Some correspondence, etc., unavoidably crowded out of this issue.

—W. R. Robertson, Boston—Thanks for portraits. They are "beauts" with a big B.

—Call on J. Y. Mercereau and have your photo taken. He is in the Leishman building, Queen St.

—Everyone interested in Sunday school and Sunday school work should read Rev. F. W. Murray's letter in this issue.

—It is said that John B. Gogain, M. P. P., will oppose George V. McInerney, M. P., in the approaching Dominion election.

—Circuit Court will meet on Tuesday next, 12th inst. Judge Tuck will preside. So far as we know there will be no business before the court.

—Mr. James A. McLelland, who lately removed from Kingston to Boston, has started a fish market and fuel depot in that city. His friends in Kent will be pleased to hear of his success.

—Mr. McInerney, M. P., wishes us to state that as a result of his exertions in the prisoner's behalf, Sylvania Gogain, who is now serving a term in Dorchester Penitentiary, will be discharged in a few days. Gogain, our readers will remember was concerned in the Cocagne shooting affair, on Hallowe'en, 1893.

—The case of A. J. Girvan vs. Sampson Thomas was tried before Commissioner John T. Caie and a jury Friday. The action was for $80.00 balance principal and interest due on a promissory note. The note was more than six years overdue and certain payments indorsed were claimed by the defendant to have been made on an outstanding mortgage between the parties. The defence was that the note was barred by the Statute of Limitations. The jury returned a verdict for defendant.

Rings at Weddings.

There is a popular idea that a ring made of gold is the only one that can be legally used in a wedding ceremony. This is, however, a fallacy. Any and every kind of ring may be used; and though gold ones are customary, there is no reason whatever why silver or any commoner metal should not be called into requisition. Numerous instances are on record of runaway matches in which a brass ring has played the all-important part, and the legality of the ceremony has never been questioned. In some cases a piece of hurriedly tied string has answered the same purpose, as have also circles cut out of card or paper. In not a few weddings where consternation has reigned on the discovery that the ring has been forgotten a door-key has been used instead, or a hastily-severed link of a silver chain. It is only required that a ring be used, but of what nature it is not stipulated.—London Answers.

Castoria.

"Castoria is an excellent medicine for children. Mothers have repeatedly told me of its good effect upon their children."

Dr. G. C. Osgood, Lowell, Mass.

"Castoria is the best remedy for children of which I am acquainted. I hope the day is not far distant when mothers will consider the real interest of their children, and use Castoria instead of the various quack nostrums which are destroying their loved ones, by forcing opium, morphine, soothing syrup and other hurtful agents down their throats, thereby sending them to premature graves."

Dr. J. F. Kincheloe, Conway, Ark.

Castoria.

"Castoria is so well adapted to children that I recommend it as superior to any prescription known to me."

H. A. Archer, M. D., 111 So. Oxford St., Brooklyn, N. Y.

"Our physicians in the children's department have spoken highly of their experience in their outside practice with Castoria, and although we only have among our medical supplies what is known as regular products, yet we are free to confess that the merits of Castoria has won us to look with favor upon it."
