

Goes to Europe for Treatment

Suffering For Years from Insomnia and Nervous Debility—Prostrated, Exhausted—No Vitality—No Rest Until "Nature's Sweet Restorer," South American Nervine Tonic. Built up the Nervous Organism, and Gave Back to the Worn and Exhausted Nerve-Centres their Wonted Vigor.

ADOLPHE LABODIE, B.C.L., J.P., OF THE WELL-KNOWN LEGAL FIRM OF LABODIE & LABODIE, MONTREAL.

For four generations the remarkable family of LaBodie have been prominently identified with the legal and professional life of Montreal. A long line of active, intellectual men, whose ambition to rise to prominence meant a constant drain upon the nerve forces and a tremendous demand for brain power. Mr Adolphe LaBodie, B.C.L., J.P., etc., has for seventeen years been actively engaged in the legal profession, living, as the duties of intellectual men of this fast age demand, beyond the reserve limit of natural nerve force, requiring more of the nerve centres at the base of the brain than they can possibly fulfil, which always results in nervous prostration, dyspepsia, hot flashes, insomnia, constipation, and attendant evils.

Mr. LaBodie spared neither time nor money to obtain relief, went to Europe for special treatment, all to no purpose. His attention being directed to South American Nervine Tonic, he concluded to try it. Result—immediate relief from insomnia, and a perfect and permanent cure from all other disorders, with but five bottles of the Nervine.

Peculiarities of Love.

Difficult to believe in when you haven't it.

Not the real article when too unselfish. More engrossing than any other mental attitude, except vanity.

The greatest leveler, except death, of human distinctions.

Unpurchasable for any price, given too often for less than nothing.

Short to say, easy to write, hard to escape.

Denied to kings, and ignored by rich fools, the comfort, hope and salvation of poor men.

An advance loan of heaven—and other places.

Strongest in the strong, but not always best in the good.

A tyrant whose caprices take no account of men's desires.

A lottery which awards a prize and a penalty rolled in one.

A mystery, which none but a fool would seek to solve.

The indestructible phoenix of the emotions.

A prize too great either for man's earning or enjoyment.—New York Recorder.

I AM DYEING.

I am dyeing, Edith, dyeing,
Tints of crimson, bright and fast;
Shades, too, dark as Pluto's regions,
And they cannot help but last.
Let me tell you how I do it,
Let me whisper in your ear,
Diamond Dyes is all my secret;
You can do the same, my dear.

Though my clothes get worn and dingy
And with stains are spotted o'er,
Though they look as fit for nothing,
I can make them good once more.

Though I have not many dollars
To expend on garments new,
I can dress as well as any,
And I know that you can, too.

Let not fashion's servile minions
Scorn the garments thus made o'er;
'Twas no dyer's hand that made them,
I have done the same before.
I, who took my last year's dresses,
Washed and dyed, and pressed and turned,
Made them o'er for this year's wearing—
Gowns for which the heart has yearned.

Yes, I'm dyeing, Edith, dyeing;
No, you do not need to go;
You've not hindered me a moment;
'Tis not hard to do, you know,
Now, no more one need to wonder
How to make their dresses do;
When with such a little trouble,
'Diamond' makes them good as new.

The Romance of a Diamond.

The Imperial treasury of Austria contains the Florentine diamond. This is one of the finest diamonds of the world, and is noted for its lustre and brilliancy. It is said to be worth £90,000, and has a romantic history connected with it. It once belonged to Charles the Bold, Duke of Burgundy, who seems to have been rather careless in guarding his treasures. He went to battle one day with this diamond in his pocket, and the result was that he lost it. The diamond lay on the road, and a Swiss soldier picked it up and looked upon it as a piece of glass, and threw it down again, but as it fell the sun's rays caught it, and the soldier, thinking it a pretty trinket, concluded to carry it along as a pocket piece. Shortly after this he showed it to a priest. The priest admired it and gave him a coin, amounting to about two shillings, for it. The priest sold it to a jeweller for two and sixpence, and a rich merchant paid the jeweller £500 for it. The merchant sold it to an Italian Duke for £200 advance on his price, and the Duke sold it to one of the Popes, who paid £12,000 for its possession. After a number of similar adventures it came into possession of a Grand Duke who married the Empress Maria Theresa of Austria, and through her it came to this imperial treasure. It now belongs to the Royal Family, and has its place in what is considered one of the finest collections in the world.

Ham and eggs.
I can smell it noon and evening;
Ham and eggs.
I can smell it, smell it, smell it,
If you read it or you spell it;
In whatever tone or language you may speak.

To allay the inflammation and soothe pain there is no remedy to equal Hawker's pile cure.

Hood's Sarsaparilla, acting through the blood reaches every part of the system, and in this way positively cures catarrh.

HAWKER'S LIVER PILLS, contain no mercury, are purely vegetable, safe, sure and effective. Do not gripe, small, easy to take. Sold everywhere.

A cynical old bachelor says that love is a combination of two diseases; an affection of the heart, and an inflammation of the brain.

Don't take whiskey to warm you up and break a cold. A little of Dr. Manning's German remedy diluted in hot water is much better and is not intoxicating.

The young lady who was blamed for allowing her glove to be discovered in a young man's pocket protested that she had no hand it.

Do not wear impermeable and tight-fitting hats that constrict the blood-vessels of the scalp. Use Hall's Hair Renewer occasionally, and you will not be bald.

Life is real, life is earnest,
And the moments speed away,
In a manner far too rapid
When we have a note to pay.

SORE THROAT.—The best cure we know of for sore throat is a gargle of Pain Killer and water—it acts like magic. Big Bottles twice the quantity in the old style.

"Robbie," said the visitor, kindly, "have you got any little brothers and sisters?" "No," replied Robbie, solemnly, "I'm all the children we've got."

In a bad case of catarrh the nasal organs become diseased, producing disagreeable discharges. Hawker's catarrh cure will positively cure the most aggravated cases. Only 25 cents.

"That's stuff," said the editor, as he handed the poem back. "That's tough," said the poet as he turned sorrowfully away. And yet the editor and poet did not agree.

For Sick Headache, Sour Stomach, Loathing of Food, Dyspepsia or Biliousness, take HAWKER'S LIVER PILLS. They will cure you. Recommended by leading Physicians as a most reliable medicine.

A curious barometer is used in Germany and Switzerland. It is a jar of water, with a frog and a step ladder in it. When the frog comes out of the water and sits on the steps a rainstorm will soon occur.

The folly of prejudice is frequently shown by people who suffer for years rather than try an advertised remedy. The millions who have no such notions, take Ayer's Sarsaparilla for blood-disease, and are cured. So much for common sense.

A peculiarity of the blind is that there is seldom one of them who smokes. Soldiers and sailors accustomed to smoking and who have lost their sight in action continue to smoke for a short while, but soon give up the habit. They say it gives them no pleasure when they can not see the smoke.

On payment of $300 a young man is excused from military service in Spain. The other day a man wrote to the Queen that he had already paid $3,000 to exempt ten of his sons, and begging her to excuse the other fourteen from service, as he had no more money. The Queen granted the request.

The education of man or woman shows itself most readily in conversation. Where the education is scant and the mind warped the subject of conversation turns upon persons and their defects: where the education is liberal and the mind noble, the subject of conversation turns upon things, rather than upon persons.

The Buddhist Magazine, of Japan, says: "The greatest movement of the twentieth century will not be a commercial one, not a military one, but the nations of the west will invade the east with great armies of Christian missionaries backed by the wealth of Christendom. We must arouse ourselves to meet them."

MARCH 15th, 1893.

DEAR Sir:—My family have received great benefits from the use of the PELEE ISLAND GRAPE JUICE during the past four years. It is the best tonic and sedative for debility, nervousness and weak lungs we have ever tried. It is much cheaper and pleasanter than medicines. I would not be without it in the house.
