Restigouche Notes.

The pioneers of Restigouche are generally remarkable for longevity. They are, however, rapidly passing away. During the last few months many have gone to their long resting place who had seen more than eighty summers.

The weather continues cold, which is suitable for those who have still a considerable amount of hauling to do in the woods; although the farmers would like to see more indications of spring.

A meeting of the congregation is to be held on the 9th inst., in the Presbyterian church in New Mills with the view of extending a call to a pastor.

The manufacturing of shingles is an industry which only commenced in Restigouche a few years ago to any great extent. There are now about 30 mills, some large and some small in operation in the County. Some of them are running night and day. Many hundred men are employed in cutting cedar in the forests, and in operating the mills. Almost at every station along the line of railway large quantities of shingles are constantly being shipped for exportation, chiefly to the States. Besides cedar being cut for shingles, large quantities are cut for telegraph poles and railway ties. It is a question how long the fine cedar will last at the rate at which it is being cut. In the meantime, however, there is great activity in Restigouche on account of these industries.

The grange mill in Charlo is one of the largest and best in the County. It has all modern improvements to save manual labor. It is heated by steam and will soon be lighted with electricity for night work. The proprietors are Gray, Lawrence & Co., Americans. The manager, Mr. Pottle, is well qualified for his duties. The clerk, Mr. W. Hayes, has the good will of all the employees, and the whole community.

Mrs. Thos. Reid died on the 23rd ult. at the residence of Mr. M. Reid, her son, Rockwood, Mill, Restigouche, aged 82. Her husband who still survives her, is well known in the northern part of the province in connection with the door and sash factory which he established and operated for a long succession of years in Bel River. Although he is nearly 90 years of age, is wonderfully active. He laments very deeply the loss of one whom he dearly loved. It is nearly 15 years since the worthy couple celebrated their golden wedding.

CURED BY USING
Ayer's Sarsaparilla

"Several years ago, my blood was in bad condition, my system all run down, and my general health very much impaired. My hands were covered with large sores, discharging all the time. I had no strength nor energy and my feelings were miserable in the extreme. At last, I commenced taking Ayer's Sarsaparilla and soon noticed a change for the better. My appetite returned and with it, renewed strength. Encouraged by these results, I kept on taking the Sarsaparilla, till I had used six bottles, and my health was restored."—A. A. Towns, prop. Harris House, Thompson, N. Dak.

RAKINGS

—The choirs are practising Easter music.

—The channel at the beaches is said to be free from ice.

—The population of London is now said to be 5,948,200.

—Several flocks of wild geese have been seen at the mouth of the harbor.

—Japan has now 2000 newspapers; twenty-five years ago it had but one.

—The lobster fishermen are actively engaged making preparations for the season's business.

—Mr. J. S. Currie, successor to F. W. Wisdom, has an adv. of interest to millmen in THE REVIEW.

—It isn't always the man who has the money who has a smiling countenance; it's the man who wants to borrow it.

—Mr. Robert Lennox, of Kingston, got a horse in the ice on Saturday, and it was with difficulty that the animal was saved.

—Messrs. J. & T. Jardine's barque, Sagona, Capt. Thompson, arrived at Limerick from Darien on Thursday last.

—A Lock Haven subscriber writes:—"I have received THE REVIEW regularly all winter and I am always anxious to get it."

—Sufferers in the Halifax fire has caused great delay, but all right now. See Daniel & Robertson's advertisement to-day

—Don't forget the performance in the new hall, Kingston, on Friday evening, doors open at 7.30, performance begins at 8 o'clock.

—Twenty-four years ago electricity as a mechanical power was unknown. Now $900,000,000 are invested in various kinds of electrical machinery.

—Just received by W. W. Short, the third repeat order of the finest quality Norwegian Cod Liver Oil—put up in full size 8oz. bottles at the low price of 20c. each—bottles refilled for 18c.

—Under the fostering influence of the Scott Act, Moncton has forty-two bar-rooms; Kent County has not more than twenty, including a few kept by widows and orphans who are not required to pay license fees.

—It is stated that Great Britain, France, Russia and Italy will require the insertion of a clause in the treaty of peace between China and Japan, providing for the opening of the principal Chinese ports to European commerce.

—The Kingston Agricultural Society will hold their regular monthly meeting in the public hall on Saturday, 6th inst., at 3 o'clock p. m., when the report of the delegates to the farmers convention will be read. Every member should attend this meeting.

—Rev. J. D. Murray has just finished his thirtieth year in the ministry. During that long period he has not been out of the pulpit one Sabbath on account of sickness. Mr. Murray is a native of Pictou, N. S., and received his collegiate education at Truro.

—It is a wonderful thing that oysters, after they have been brought away from the sea, know by instinct the hour when the tide is rising and approaching their beds, and so of their own accord open their shells to receive their food from the sea, as if they were still at home.

—In another column will be found the advertisement of W. H. Sterling, of St. John, manufacturer of the Niagara Injector, pronounced by experts to be the best boiler feeder in use. It has a large sale in Ontario and Quebec. Millmen and others who need anything in his line would do well to give Mr. Sterling a trial.

—The minstrel show in the public hall, Kingston, on Thursday evening was well attended, showing that home talent is always appreciated here. The athletic exercises were well performed. The young men who took part in these exercises would make splendid athletes with a little more training. The farce, "Mrs. Tizzy's Lodging House," was not so highly applauded as other features of the show, but this was the fault of the play, and not the way in which it was performed.

—It was heard with general regret about town that Mr. J. H. Abbott, agent of the Merchants Bank of Halifax at Kingston, was shortly to remove to Moncton. While his friends were pleased to hear of his promotion, yet are sorry to hear of his removal after being associated with him in a business way for the past twelve years. Socially Mr. and Mrs. Abbott will be much missed in Kingston and as well by their town friends, many of whom have partaken of their hospitality and found them congenial company in their pleasant home.

—John McKelvie, of Memramcook, was killed at Dorchester railway crossing on Wednesday. Mr. McKelvie was attempting to drive across the track with a sled load of shingles, but seemed not to have taken into account that the crossing was bare which delayed the team, with the result that the engine struck the sled demolishing it and instantly killing the driver. The body when recovered was found in a horribly mangled state, the head being completely severed from the body. Deceased was a brother of Mrs. An Irew Hannagan, of Buctouche.

—The Noble house is for sale—see ad.

—One of our hotel men is an expert acrobat.

—Mr. Joseph Michaud is building a fine fishing boat.

—"A Girls Description of a Boy" will appear next week.

—American silver taken at the face in payment of subscriptions.

—Coun. David McAlmon is shipping potatoes to Halifax by rail.

—Miss Annie Dunn, Boston: Papers received all right. Many thanks.

—The ice is becoming unsafe, and navigation will probably open up early.

—The young folks enjoyed their Saturday holiday very pleasantly, skating on the fields being the attraction.

—Mr. Henry O'Leary has purchased a tug boat in St. John. She will be employed in towing in and around this port.

—The assessors Messrs. Smith, Lanigan and Richard are nearing the end of their work. They expect to finish next week.

—Mr. Geo. W. Robertson is getting his tugboat the Calluna, ready for the season's work. New machinery is being placed in her.

—The repairs to Kingston bridge have been completed, and the caretaker, Mr. Jonathan Forster, will in future fine any one who trots a horse across the bridge.

—Early morning walking parties are arranged by some of our young ladies, the favorite route is over the fields on the crust, the morning walk is delightfully bracing to the early riser.

—The departure of Mr. Aubrey Allen for Sackville, is a serious loss to the choir of the Methodist church, his good bass singing was much appreciated by those who attended the services.

—On Monday morning Mr. Wm. White, by the timely discovery that the roof of his kitchen was on fire, prevented what might have been a serious one with the aid of a few buckets of water.

—Empty is the box-stall, Benny's gone. Mr. Geo. A. Irving, the popular proprietor of the Kent Hotel, lost a valuable horse Tuesday morning. The animal which died of inflammation was only sick a few hours.

—To a St. John Globe reporter Sir C. H. Tapper, Minister of Justice, said that his reported resignation was untrue, and that the story was started by newspaper correspondents who had little or no regard for the truth.

—Mr. Henry O'Leary has engaged Mr. Hiram Thompson to take charge of the mechanical part of his mill for the summer. He is fortunate to get so good a workman, as Mr. Thompson is a machinist of no small order.

—A correspondent complains that gambling is openly carried on in Richibucto by "boys, young men and old married men," and has sent us a sermon on gambling for publication, hoping thereby to check the iniquitous practice.

—Our true lovers of sport are preparing for the season's wild goose shooting and for some weeks will be solely absorbed in matching their skill against the instinct and alertness of the birds. Some of the sportsmen intend being in the shooting ground this week.

—Mr. Henry Hackenley, rector of St. Mary's Church of England, preached his farewell sermon in Buctouche on Sunday morning. Mr. Hackenley, through ill health, has resigned his parish charge here which takes effect this month, when he goes to a neighboring province.

—We direct special attention to the new advertisement of Holman & Duffell, who carry the largest stock of fine wall paper, blinds, etc., in the Maritime Provinces. This enterprising firm do a large wholesale business, and north shore merchants not now doing business with them would find it to their advantage to place their orders with this firm.

—A large pig owned by Geo. W. Raymond, Kouchibouguac, was recently killed by hungry rats. It seems that the pigs, there being two in the pen, were attacked by large numbers of the little animals—several hundreds it is stated—resulting in the death of one and severely wounding the other. When discovered and driven off, they had almost devoured the dead pig.

—The St. John express collided with the Bangor and Aroostook train three miles east of Bangor on Tuesday morning. The fireman and engineer jumped from the train and all escaped with bruises except fireman Ward on the Bangor train, who was caught beneath the debris of the postal car and instantly killed. Two postal clerks and several passengers were severely hurt.

—O'Leary's store was burglarized some time during Monday night. A rear window was forced open by the thieves who succeeded in carrying off a quantity of goods and about seven dollars in cash, which had been left in the tills. Among the articles taken was a watch worth about $25. An attempt was also made the same night to effect an entrance into J. C. Vautour's store.

Castoria.
"Castoria is an excellent medicine for children. Mothers have repeatedly told me of its good effect upon their children."
DR. G. C. OSGOOD, Lowell, Mass.

"Castoria is the best remedy for children of which I am acquainted. I hope the day is not far distant when mothers will consider the real interest of their children, and use Castoria instead of the various quack nostrums which are destroying their loved ones, by forcing opium, morphine, soothing syrup and other harmful agents down their throats, thereby sending them to premature graves."
DR. J. F. KINCHELOE, Conway, Ark.

Castoria.
"Castoria is so well adapted to children that I recommend it as superior to any prescription known to me."
H. A. ARCHER, M. D., 111 So. Oxford St., Brooklyn, N. Y.

"Our physicians in the children's department have spoken highly of their experience in their outside practice with Castoria, and although we only have among our medical supplies what is known as regular products, yet we are free to confess that the merits of Castoria has won us to look with favor upon it."

Visitors to our rooms often express surprise at the good order and quietness prevailing. There surprise is increased when they understand that our Actual Business Course of Training requires that students shall not only be allowed but encouraged to communicate freely with each other.

Then, how is quietness possible? Just because our work is so interesting that each student's energies are absorbed in it; because each is treated as a gentleman (or lady), and, therefore is one; because each realizes he is preparing for future success.

Our Catalogue explains it. Send for one.
