

Resuscitation of the M. of R.
 BUCTOUCHE, Jan. 19—Once more the joyous and festive holiday season is at an end, as is also the donations of Christie Biscuit Co., and Keith's Brewery Co. The M. of R. are once more sobered up. The secretary and supreme chronicler, who have been laboring so zealously in order to furnish the order with a plentiful supply of tobacco, are now resting from their labors. The meeting was called to order by the honorary president, and when the question as to the state of the order was asked, the newly initiated legal luminary arose amidst a death-like silence, and passing his pipe to the high marshal, and throwing back his noble head, expanding his chest and looking the noble embodiment of manhood that he is, he exclaimed, "Je suis pret, vea, I am ready to defend this noble order from the base onslaught of its enemies, I am ready to defend it jure humano, yea, jure divino and if our enemies are not hors de combat when I have finished it will not be the fault of my zeal. Honi soit qui mal y pense, that is the secret of it all (cheers), if our enemies were pure in heart they would see the nobility of such a grand order as this, they would be led to see what a grand thing it would be to be able to live without work, to live upon charity, they would see that there must be something grand and noble in our qualities to have sufficient friends to enable us to live a life of leisure and plenty and receive from our friends all things and repay only with that expression 'grand merci.' Yea, worthy brothers, I stand hoc loco, hoc tempore et expressis verbis challenge any person to point his or her finger at anything in our order unworthy true manhood (applause); in nunc, issimus verbi which they apply to our order is to be true to orders to which they belong, and I am sure when our order shall become thoroughly known it will be rightly appreciated as magna est veritas et prevalet (thunderous applause) and although no es todo oro lo que reluzo still is no tatu dignum that the M. of R. is the genuine article and me judice after having just once defended ourselves, after to-night let us be muret comme un poisson and live as becometh such an order (deafening applause). Hiro, I have said." As the orator resumed his seat the high treasurer thought the occasion worthy of something grand on his part and he passed around the cigars and all joined in genial hilarity.

For Sick Headache, Sour Stomach, Loathing of Food, Dyspepsia or Biliousness, take HAWKER'S LIVER PILLS. They will cure you. Recommended by leading Physicians as a most reliable medicine.

A WISE WOMAN.
 She Was Weak, Nervous and Dispirited and Found no Relief From Doctors Treatment—She Was Induced to Give Pink Pills a Trial and is Again Enjoying Health.

We are often asked: "Do you think Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are any good? Do you think it is right to publish those glowing accounts of cures said to be effected by the Pink Pills?" Of course we think the Pink Pills are good, and if we did not think it right to publish the testimonials we would not do it. Perhaps it is not to be wondered at that people ask such questions, when they hear stories of clerks being employed to write up fictitious testimonials to the efficacy of some cheap and nasty patent medicines. The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co. do not follow that dishonest practice as there are few places in the Dominion where the marvellous efficacy of Pink Pills has not been proved. Their method, as our readers may have observed, is to publish interviews which representatives of reputable and well known journals have had with persons who have been benefited by a course of Pink Pills, thus giving absolute assurance that every case published is genuine. Several such cases have come under the notice of the Canadian Evangelist, the last being that of Mrs. T. Stephens, of 215 Hunter street west, Hamilton. Mr. Hunter is quite enthusiastic in her praise of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and is very positive that they have done her a great amount of good. Her trouble was indigestion and general debility. For about a year she was under a physician's care, without deriving any benefit therefrom. About three years ago she was induced by a friend to give Pink Pills a trial. When she began their use, she says, she felt dreadfully tired all the time, was weak and nervous, had a pain in her chest and was very downhearted. Her father told her she looked as though she was going "in decline." She replied that she felt that way, whether she looked it or not. It was not long after she began to take the Pink Pills before she experienced an improvement in her health and spirits. The tired feeling wore away and her strength returned, the extreme nervousness vanished and her spirits revived. It is now about two years since Mrs. Stephens ceased taking the Pink Pills. She has had no return of her former troubles during all that time. She is now strong, healthy and cheerful and is very emphatic in declaring that she owes to the Pink Pills her present satisfactory state of health and has, therefore, no hesitation in recommending them to those afflicted as she was.

Concert and Xmas T. at Har our.
 The concert which was given up by the scholars and teachers of the Presbyterian Sabbath School, passed off most satisfactorily on the evening of the 25th Dec past. Although the evening was disagreeable and wet, a large number assembled. The tree which adorned the platform was beautifully decorated with wax candles and flags. J Neales Wathen acted as chairman. The programme consisted of the following:

Singing, Hark! the herald angels sing; Dialogue, What would he say? Bessie G. Ingram and Althea Wathen; Recitation, A world of trouble, Molly Spenser, Emma Beck and Ella Livingston; Recitation, Ersie Flett; Singing, Thanks and Glory, by Choir; Recitation, When we are men, John Keswick, Willie Neilson, Willie Smallwood, Robbie Smallwood, Norman and Jimmy McLeod; Recitation, Christ mas Wishes, Jimmy Wathen, Willie Smallwood, John Keswick, Willie Neilson; Solo 'Tis the King of Glory, Althea Wathen; Recitation, The Stylish Church, by Gussie Campbell; Recitation, The Model Church, by Kate M. Keswick; Carol, Clap your hands for joy Jennie F. Ingram, Gussie Campbell, Mary and Kate Keswick; Recitation, Potatoes and Prayers, Bessie G. Ingram; Recitation, Gifts for the pets, Mattie Livingston, Gertrude Ferguson, Jimmy Wathen and Agnes Perry; Recitation, Suppose, by Agnes Perry; Singing, In a manger laid so lowly, by Choir; Recitation, Good Boys, Master Melvin Dunn; Recitation, Be polite, Master Eddie Livingston; Dialogue, Use of Study, Annie Beck, Jennie Ingram and Bessie McIntosh. Mrs. J. N. Wathen, in her usual, genial manner, furnished and took charge of the singing, which was well received.

The tree was then unloaded of its delicacies by Mr. W. H. Campbell and Miss Annie Campbell, teachers, and L. E. Ingram, Secy., and distributed to each of the scholars. Miss A. Campbell, on being presented with a china cheese dish from her class, was agreeably surprised.

Mr. L. J. Wathen, Warden of the Municipality of Kent, being present, was called upon by chairman and responded by making a neat speech. Judging from the happy and smiling countenances of the audience which well high filled the building, they must have been well satisfied with the whole proceedings.

It was moved and carried that a vote of thanks be tendered to A. Dunn, Supt., for the interest he had taken to make the little ones happy. The entertainment closed by the Choir singing, Merry Xmas Bells and benediction by Supt.
