

HARD ON THE GAME.—The Bangor Commercial says further returns received by General Passenger Agent G. M. Houghton of the Bangor and Aroostook railroad give an addition of 592 deer used for food in camps, in the record published in the News on Friday morning, making the total 2,280 deer and the total of all animals killed 4, 280 in the three months.

FOUND DEAD IN THE WOODS.—Rev. J. E. Fillmore was found dead in the woods at Turtle Creek, Albert County, on Saturday. He had not been in active clerical work for some years owing to a stroke of paralysis from which he was suffering. On Saturday he went into the woods near his home, to do some work, and not returning a search was made and his remains found.

HE SENDS BILLS ON ASBESTOS AFTER THEM.—The postmaster of Bathurst writes us that Wm. Major, one of our subscribers there, has gone to the States. He left without paying his subscription, and it is not likely that this is the only debt he has left behind. A man who will cheat the publisher will cheat anybody. We occasionally get notice of the death of a subscriber considerably in arrears. In such a case the postmaster does not tell where the man went to, but we have our own opinion, and forward his bill on asbestos.—World.

SOME REASONS FOR THE WONDERFUL SUCCESS OF DANIEL & ROBERTSON'S MAIL ORDER BUSINESS.

PROMPTNESS.

This is a very strong point, and we are continually being thanked and congratulated on the way orders are executed. If it's possible for the goods to be shipped on the next train after the order is received, we do it.

CUSTOMERS' INTERESTS.

Some people have the idea that in sending a mail order they run the risk of getting old stock or a substitute, but we don't do this. We know that if a customer is well treated he or she will send again, so we give the benefit of every doubt and every advantage we can.

SAMPLES.

Our samples are acknowledged by every one who has had them to be the best sent out in the Provinces—great variety, good sized pieces numbered and priced—not merely clippings.

EXPERIENCED HAND.

In charge of our mail order department is a salesman of long experience, and his orders are to spare no pains in attending to the wants of mail customers.

ONE OF THE FIRM.

All orders are examined by one of the firm before being sent out, to make sure the goods are right.

ERRORS.

If an error is made filling an order we take back the goods at once and pay expenses. If the customer makes the error we do all we can to help the customer out.

CORRESPONDENCE.

In reference to orders is carefully attended to by one of the firm.

EXPRESS.

By prepaying express charges (orders of $5.00 and over) we land the goods at your door as free from cost to you as by delivery woggon.

THIS ALL MEANS

A great deal of work but we believe your people want the choice of a City Stock at City Prices. We are working for still greater growth in this business and it is surely and certainly coming to us, every mail tells us that, lots of new names and old customers stick to us.

Patterson arrived in town Sunday to make arrangements for the funeral.

The Case of The Utlanders.

The position of the "Utlanders," or English speaking residents of the Transvaal, in whose behalf the foolish Jameson raid was made, is clearly set forth in the following account. It is not an English paper, but the new York Tribune, from which we take it:

As for the causes of the trouble, it may be said frankly that the "Utlanders" are in the right and the Boers in the wrong. The former have been treated by the latter in a scandalous manner. They have a right to demand redress for their grievances; and, if they do not get it, they will have the sympathy of the civilized world in any efforts they may make for their own protection and welfare. It is entirely true that the Boers own the country. It is equally true that they opened it to immigration, and invited settlers to come in. The settlers did go in, by the thousand, from the United States and the British Empire and from Germany. They literally saved the republic from bankruptcy, and made it rich and prosperous beyond all dreams of its founders. They have fought its battles against the native tribes. They have built its railroads. They pay nine-tenths of all its taxes. And what do they get in return? They are denied all rights of citizenship. Neither they nor their children who are born on Transvaal soil are allowed to become citizens, to hold office, to vote, or even to gather together in public meetings. They are taxed, and heavily taxed, but have no representation in the government. They are taxed for the support of Dutch schools, but no English schools, or even English instruction, are granted to their children. They are not even permitted to conduct private schools for their children, at their own expense, except on condition that in them they will teach their children to speak Dutch. In such towns as Johannesburg, which has 60,000 inhabitants, they are not allowed to have a municipal government or an adequate police force. Some 300 Boer laborers are the only persons in all Johannesburg who are permitted to vote, and they send just one of their number to the national legislature! The 50,000 intelligent Americans and English, who built the city and pay the expenses of the government, are of no more account than 30 many sticks of wood.

How Big are They.

It is common to hear people speak of the possibility of the planets being inhabited, and the discussion of the question often brings out some curious ideas concerning the supposed planetary beings. The majority of people never imagine that it is possible that the great worlds which we know only as shining points of light can be peopled by others than creatures resembling the highest type of animal life on this globe.

Such persons, although they may be able to tell you the exact weight of the earth in tons, pounds and ounces, the minimum and maximum temperature of the surface of the sun at different seasons and the exact day upon which the moon became an arid waste never stop to think what would be the effect on stature of persons living on such gigantic worlds as some of the stars are known to be. The dark planet which accompanies the giant star Algol is known to be more than 1,000,000 times larger than the earth, but its density is so slight that it is only about 500,000 times heavier than our globe. You are now thinking that the inhabitants of this monster planet must be at least 5,000,000 feet in height, (if they are constructed on such a plan as the world upon which they reside), but such is probably not the case. The density of the planet would have a great deal to do when it came to a question of size both as a basis, Vogel came to the conclusion that the average man on Algol's companion world would be 2,434 feet in height and weight between 700 and 800 pounds, Arnold and Metterich both figured upon the same data, adding that of the intensity of gravity, and gave a string of "corrected calculations" in proof of the assertion that a man on that planet could never grow to exceed fifteen inches in height, but would spread out over a quarter of an acre of ground.

THE WM. S. BULL CASE

BLADDER-STONE OF WONDERFUL DIMENSIONS GOT RID OF.

An Easy Escape From Grave Danger—Great Recovery by Using Dodd's Kidney Pills.

FREDERICTON, N. B., Jan. 6.—(Special)—The people of St. Mary's, a usually quiet suburb of this city, are excited over a stone of unusual dimensions, now in the possession of a physician here. This stone passed from the bladder of Mr. Wm. S. Bull, after taking one box of Dodd's Kidney Pills. The facts as told by the sufferer himself are as follows:

"About a year ago I began to suffer with severe pains in my back, accompanied by lethargy impossible to overcome.

"Continuing for some time and gradually getting worse, I employed a physician who gave my ailment a high-sounding name, and I was greatly alarmed when in spite of treatment I began to urinate blood.

"It was at this juncture that a friend advised me to use Dodd's Kidney Pills, and it was after using about one box that I got rid of the stone mentioned.

"You may judge of my gratitude for an escape at such small expense from the terrible suffering caused by the passage of such a stone.

"The third box of Dodd's Kidney Pills effected a complete and radical cure, and for the past six months I have felt no return of any suffering.

"As I used no other medicine whatever since commencing the use of Dodd's Kidney Pills I am positive that I owe my recovery entirely to their virtue."

Dodd's Kidney Pills are sold everywhere at 50 cents a box or by mail from the Dodd's Medicine Company, Toronto, Ont.

KINGSTON, KENT CO.

DO WE USE REFERENCE BOOKS?

No, thank you, we do not need them. They went out with the birch stick and backwood's teacher. Normal schools were too much for them. And yet we hear of three business colleges in Canada trying to teach by means of them. One, however, has repented; the others will probably follow when they have learned to walk without crutches.

Our recent increase of business is a gratifying proof that the results obtained by adherence to sound principles are appreciated by the public. Which short-hand? Isaac Pitman's, of course.
