A RECOUNT ORDERED. - It is understood His Honor, Judge Wells, has issued an order for a recount in the Westmorland election, returnable at Dorchester at 11 o'clock to-day. The declarations on which the application was made were made by Mr. Amasa Tingley and Mr. J. T. Hawke op general grounds and by Mr. A. E. Wall on special grounds which applied to one poll. The declarations were based upon information collected from several polls. The papers in connection with the recount were served on Mr. Powell at Sackville this morning and also on Mr. Chapman.

CHURCH MEETING .- The annual meet. ing of St. Andrews Presbyterian church was held at Kingston Tuesday afternoon. Trustees for the ensuing year elected as folle: Wm. J. Brait, John Jardine, Robert Clarke, Edward Hannay, Robert Bell, George Lawson and John P. Bell. The report of James Glendenning, treasurer, acknowledged the receipt of one hundred and thirty-two dollars ($132) being proceeds of the bazar held in Richibucto on Nomination day, which after being deducted leaves a balance of seven hundred and fifty dollars due the pastor.
