

VERY SAD.—Mr. George Jenkins received a despatch from Mr. George McAndrews at St. Stephen this morning stating that his daughter Mabel had died yesterday, and also that his eldest daughter Aggie took the matter so hard that she died from the shock. Mabel died from consumption. Both were young women. The many friends in St. John of Mr. and Mrs. McAndrews will be sorry to hear of their sad affliction.—Globe.

RICHIBUCTO A. D. C.—A bumper house greeted the Richibucto Amateur Dramatic Club on Tuesday evening in the temperance hall. The building was packed, many being unable to secure seats, thus giving evidence of the public spirit existing in Richibucto, the entertainment having been given for the benefit of the citizen's band Imogene or the Witch's Secret, a drama in four acts, was put on, all sustaining their parts in a highly creditable manner. The following is the cast:

Mrs. Mansfield.....Alice Vautour
IMOGENE.....Irene Jardine
 Susie, Mrs. Mansfield's maid }
 Mather Mundy the witch of }
 D'Amal Hollow.....Ida Hudson
 Snooks, a Newsboy.....Archie Thompson
 Charles Mansfield.....Dr. Bourque
 Dr. Harris.....Fred Phinney
 Deacon Austine, Mrs. }
 Mansfield Uncle.....Wm. Hudson, Jr.
 James Reed, an Attorney.....John McMin
 Dennis O'Brien Mans- }
 field's Valet.....Arthur E O'Leary

Miss Hudson, as Mother Mandy, was particularly good. Archie Thompson, as Snooks, proved a typical newsboy—the genuine street Arab variety. Several selections rendered by the band during the evening proved an agreeable surprise to the audience. The promoters are to be congratulated on the success of the affair. Over seventy dollars were realized. The entertainment will be repeated in the public hall, Kingston, on Friday evening next, and we trust the good people of Kingston, with their customary generosity, will fill every seat in their fine hall.

Mr. Auguste Leger and his sister Miss Sarah Leger, of Shediac, drove up from that place on Saturday to spend a day or two with their sister, Mrs. A. T. LeBlanc, of the Union Hotel.

WISE WOMEN!

Two Opinions Freely Given.

Wise women always use Diamond Dyes when the work of home dyeing begins. The majority of women know that Diamond Dyes produce the richest, strongest, and most brilliant colors. Two users of Diamond Dyes freely give their opinions. Mrs. A. Chittick, Windsor, N. S., says: "Have used Diamond Dyes for over two years and find them ahead of all others; they are the best for producing clear and lovely colors." Mrs. Jas. H. Coulter, Neepawa, Man., says: "I have always much pleasure in using Diamond Dyes; I think they are grand, and always make old things look like new."

It is our purpose to have the largest assortment of foreign goods that we have ever shown.

Our Mr. Robertson left New York by "S S Campania" on Saturday last for the European markets.

Novelties are what we are after, because so many people like to have a dress out of the ordinary run.

We hope to have our full line of samples ready about the 1st of March.

Those wanting dress goods should compare our samples before purchasing elsewhere.

The den contained a full grown bear and two cubs. The bear was killed and the two cubs captured alive. The cubs are now at Mr. Ouillet's house apparently well satisfied with the change in their abode.

A few of the friends of Mrs. George Jardine gathered at her house on Tuesday evening. Shortly after teams drove up to the door, and a drive in the moonlight was taken to Richibucto and back. The rest of the evening was spent in dancing and card playing and a fine time is reported.

We were pleased to see so many at the dance Friday evening. An alarm of fire was raised but no damage was done. The smoke pipe became red hot and then one of the registers began to smoke. We do not know the cause of the fire, as the fireman said the furnace was no fuller than usual, but someone had suggested that it was the sweepings in the pipe. During the evening a party of several teams drove past, but we trust that on the next evening they will stop for a short time.
