BUCTOUCHE NOTES.

FEB. 3.—Our friends in Uncle Sam's territory and elsewhere look anxiously to THE REVIEW for gleanings from home, and I am sure they must feel somewhat disappointed lately with our Buctouche correspondent. So in their behalf, I will endeavour to chronicle a few of the everyday happenings of our little town.

Regardless of the intense cold of last week, many took the advantage of the splendid roads and beautiful moonlight nights to indulge in sleigh-driving which is the only outdoor sport to be had in this rigid season. But we must not complain of the weather, for the young people enjoyed skating for over a month, which has not happened for several winters. If we wait patiently for the snow to have its turn we may fall in for better luck in the skating line.

Mr. Neil Ross left a few days ago for Toronto, in charge of a carload of oysters, belonging to Mr. Barnes, M. P. P.

Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Thompson and children have returned from a prolonged visit to relatives and friends in Moncton. Mr. Thompson leaves shortly for British Columbia.

Mrs. J. A. Irving and her baby girl are visiting Mrs. R. Doherty in Nicholas River.

Mrs. A. J. Coates is spending a few days with her niece, Mrs. Beverley Smith, in Moncton.

Mrs. Dr. Legere, of Memramcook, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Michael McLaughlin.

Mr. J. A. Bourque will leave shortly for Newcastle, where he has obtained a good position with a large firm in that town. He will be greatly missed by his young friends.

Mrs. A. Hannagan and Mrs. A. J. Dysart visited Moncton on Wednesday and returned on Thursday.

An impromptu dance was given at Mr. Charles McManus' residence on Friday night, and everybody seems to have enjoyed themselves thoroughly. Excellent music was furnished. Dancing and other amusements were indulged in until a late hour. Coffee and luncheon were passed around at 11.30. The young ladies present were, Miss Anna O'Leary, Miss M. E. Bourque, Miss Beatrice Sutton, Misses Mary and Maggie Hannagan, Miss Maud Bourque, Miss Kathleen McCullough and Miss Wilbur, the young men were Messrs. T. McManus, H. McCullough, J. Hannagan, J. Bourque, P. Wry, R. Sutton, A. McKee, P. Smith, A. McPhadden.

It is rumored that the Presbyterians intend giving a concert to raise funds for their church. As there has been a perfect lull in the concert line for these eight or ten months, no doubt a nice amount could be raised by getting up a good concert.

TRILBYANA.

THAT IMPALING CASE

MR. H. E. HUDSON, OF COMBERMERE, SEVERELY INJURED.

Protruding Knot Wound—Enters the Body Four Inches—Bladder Injury—Kidney Disease—One Box of Dodd's Kidney Pills.

BARRIE BAY, Feb. 3.—(Special).—Universal interest has been taken throughout this newly settled region in the cure of Mr. Hudson of Combermere, hunter, trapper and lumberman. Personally well known to every man, woman and child, his case, both before and since the cure, has created much talk.

The accident occurred over eight years ago when he fell upon a protruding knot in such a way as to enter the body from beneath, injuring the bladder and effecting the kidneys. Speaking of his sufferings and cure he says:

"I was confined to my bed for six weeks to commence with, having suffered from pain across the back, weakness and loss of time for over eight years.

"I have taken one box of Dodd's Kidney Pills, and since taking the first four doses have been free from pain.

"One box to me has been worth more than one hundred dollars, as only one was necessary to complete my cure.

"I have had not the least symptom of any return and am able to work as well as ever I could in my life."

Harcourt Items.
Millers' Tanning Extract Factory, having been closed for the past six or seven months, opened again on Monday. A large number of men are engaged in hauling bark to it, and a great deal is coming in by rail.

Miss Jessie Dunn and her little niece, Miss Dorothy, have returned from visiting Mr. and Mrs. Allen, Dalhousie Jc't.

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Brown left by Sunday morning's express for Boston, where they will be the guests of Mrs. Brown's sister; thence they will go to New York, where they will take the steamer for Edinburgh. They intend being absent three or four months.

The "Parlor Social" at the Rectory on Thursday evening last was a decided success, financially and otherwise. A very nice programme of vocal and instrumental music, readings, recitations and dialogues was carried out, and each and all received a well-merited applause. Lunch was then served and the remainder of the evening was spent in games, music, etc., and with such a hostess as Mrs. Freeborn the time passed all too quickly. This is the first of these socials we have had here, but trust it will not be the last.

Mr. John Wathen left on Wednesday for Mt. Allison Academy, where he intends studying shorthand and typewriting. On the eve of his departure his sister, Mrs. Dunn, entertained a number of his friends. It was a most pleasant party and enjoyed extremely by all. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. H. Wathen, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Tourber, Mr. and Mrs. Saulnier, Misses Marion and Trinda Wathen, Misses Minnie and Sadie Buckley, Miss Stella Bailey, Miss Lela Ingram and Miss Deveau; Messrs. W. Cumming, D. Saulnier, J. Wathen, W. Campbell, J. Buckley, and J. Cail.

Misses Ella Wellwood and Lily Morton, of Kent Jct. spent Thursday evening in town.

Miss Minnie Buckley has returned from a pleasant visit to Moncton.

Mrs. Hutchinson left a few days ago for St. John, where she will be the guest of her daughter, Mrs. McKay.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Atkinson, who have been spending the last six months with Mrs. Atkinson's parents in Merrill, Wis., are home again.

On Saturday evening a large number of our young folks enjoyed a very pleasant sleigh ride. After driving round the village to merry music from a small contingent of the Harcourt Cornet Band, they drove about eight miles down the country returning by moonlight.

A "Bread and Butter Social" was held by the members of the Epworth League on Monday evening. Though the weather was very unfavorable, a goodly number was in attendance and a neat little sum was realized.

St. Nicholas River Notes.

The storm of Sunday was the largest of the season, leaving the roads almost impassable.

Mr. Alex. Robertson is doing quite a stroke of lumbering this winter again.

Rumor says one of our fair ones is going to take up her abode on the North Shore. We wish her much happiness.

Mr. H. H. Warman, who has been spending a few weeks at home, intends going North next week again.

Warden Murray, Inspector of needlework, visited the sewing circles at West Branch and Main River last week, and reports a favorable prospect for the new year.

Mr. William Robertson, who had been fishing at the beach, moved his net up to Nicholas River last week and had the misfortune to lose it Saturday night. It is evident that the net had been cut clear.

Our friend John will find it heavy wading across the river now. We feel for him but we can't reach him.

FEB. 4th.—The Rev. Mr. Freeborn held service here on Wednesday evening and delivered an entertaining and instructive discourse on church doctrine.

Quite a number from our vicinity attended the Parlor Social at the Rectory Harcourt, on Thursday, and were well pleased with the evening's entertainment. The musical part of the programme being decidedly good, special mention might be made of the solo sung by Mrs. Freeborn, and the selections rendered by Miss Annie Black, of Richibucto.

The Drive, which was postponed on account of those who went to Harcourt on Thursday, took place on Friday evening. Five sleighs carrying a merry company drove to the "Hollow" and were warmly welcomed by the genial host, and his retainers, on their return a delightful supper was partaken of, and after a few games of whist the company dispersed.

On Thursday evening a pleasant little party was given by Mrs. E. L. Warman, the occasion being the birthday of Master Douglas. After indulging in a series of merry games, refreshments were served, and at 9.30 the party broke up, the evening being much enjoyed by the little folk.

John Morton, Esq. of West Branch, was here on Friday visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Morton.

Mr. and Mrs. McPherson's little daughter Edna has been quite ill for the last few days, but is slightly better to-day.

Mr. Wilmot Brown, manager of the K. N. R., was here this week.

Mr. J. D. Phinney, was here on Monday, also Mr. J. Scott, of Richibucto.

Miss Wellwood went to Rogersville, on Saturday and spent Sunday with her sister, Mrs. D. J. Buckley.

Master Charlie McKinnon, was at the Depot House on Saturday.

Miss Lily Morton has gone to Moncton to spend a few days with her sister Mrs. L. T. Joudry.
