

PROVINCIAL APPOINTMENTS.—Gloucester. Wm. Gray, to be game warden in place of Henry Bishop, resigned.

THE LATE MR. COCHRANE'S WILL.—The will of the late John Cochrane has been admitted to probate. The estate, real and personal, amounted to $1896. $200 were bequeathed for repairs on the rectory, $300 to his adopted daughter Aggie and $100 to his granddaughter Victoria Cochrane, these amounts to be placed in the bank until the parties attain their majority; the residue goes to the widow. These figures do not represent the full amount of Mr. Cochrane's wealth. Not long since he gave $3000 to each of his three sons and about $10,000 was transferred to Mrs. Cochrane.

MIRAMICHI DRIVES SAFE.—Gleaner, Wednesday: A number of lumbermen from Miramichi waters to-day bring good news. The whole of Mr. T. Lynch's and M. Welch's cut, about 7,000,000 in all, are into the main southwest stream, where there is sufficient water to carry them to the corporation limits by the last of the week. All of the other parties lumbering on the Miramichi, including Mr. Richards, are making good progress, and the prospects are they will be into the limits in the middle of next week. The Miramichi lumbermen have been fortunate and as a result of their success business in that section is beginning to pick up very fast.

MILL BURNED.—On Sunday afternoon Mr. Nemoix Pineau's saw mill at Acadieville was destroyed by fire having caught from the forest fires which have been raging in that parish. The blacksmith shop and workshop in connection with the mill were also destroyed along with Mr. Pineau's barn. His residence was saved with the utmost difficulty. About 200 m. of lumber, over 100 m. shingles and a large quantity of shingle wood were burned. As this was the only mill in the parish the loss will be felt by everybody. Mr. Pineau has lost his all and is in absolute want. Any charitably disposed person would do well to send their donations, however small. The bridge over the Kouchibouguac is also destroyed.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—Last Wednesday, while Mr. Michael Vautour, of St. Louis, was driving from Burns's mill, Kingston, his horse took fright and began kicking, breaking the shafts of the waggon, and throwing Mr. Vautour violently to the ground. The injured man walked to the residence of Dr. Olloqui, and as the latter gentleman was absent from home, Drs. Doherty and Bourque were summoned and they discovered that two of his ribs had been broken and that he had received other serious internal injuries. About 10 o'clock Thursday morning the injured man was removed to the residence of his brother-in-law, Mr. Dosithe Richard, Richibucto. His condition did not appear dangerous during the day, but towards evening he was thought to be dying and a lawyer, Mr. W. D. Carter, was sent for to draw up a will, but before Mr. Carter reached his bedside he had expired. Mr. Vautour is a brother of Postmaster Vautour and Mrs. Dosithe Richard, of this town. He was one of the most respected and well-to-do farmers of St. Louis. He leaves a widow, 1 son and 3 daughters. He was 64 years old. The interment took place at St. Louis on Saturday.

DEATH OF REV. MR. MCKENZIE.—Just before we went to press last week we received word of the sudden death of Rev. Malcolm McKenzie, but owing to the short time at our disposal, we could not give full particulars. We herewith append a fuller account taken from the Globe of the 14th inst. The Rev. Gentleman's many friends in Kingston and Richibucto have heard with regret of his sudden demise, and heartily sympathize with the bereaved family: Monday evening, Rev. Malcolm McKenzie, of Tyne Valley, I. E. Island, drove to the Hotel Russ, Summerside, and put up his team. He was very cold and, on entering the house, took a severe fit of coughing. Mrs. Russ prepared a hot drink for him, after taking which he said he felt better. He complained, however, that his feet were very cold, and a hot bath was procured. He looked so bad that Mrs. Russ grew very anxious, and said, "I think you are dying, Mr. McKenzie." He replied that he thought he was. Mrs. Russ said she would call a doctor. He spoke against doing so, but Dr. Covey was immediately summoned. The doctor did everything possible for the sick man, but he could not save him, and about fifteen minutes after the doctor's arrival Mr. McKenzie breathed his last, less than half an hour after reaching the hotel. The cause of death was heart disease, to which the deceased was subject, and of which he had previously had several serious attacks. Mr. McKenzie was about sixty years of age, and was a native of the Isle of Skye, Scotland. He was for a number of years pastor of the Presbyterian churches at Richibucto and Kingston, N. B., and afterwards at Morden, Manitoba. He leaves a wife, one son, who is studying law in New York, and four daughters, two of whom are married and reside at Brandon, Man. The remains were interred in the Summerside cemetery on Wednesday, 13th inst., the funeral taking place from Hotel Russ, and was very largely attended.

Death Of Rev. Malcom MacKenzie
(Presbyterian Witness)

The sad and startling tidings reached us on Tuesday by telegraph of the sudden death of one of our ministers, Rev. Malcom MacKenzie, Tyne Valley, P. E. I. Rev. E. M. Dill, our minister at Summerside, furnishes us with particulars. Mr. MacKenzie arrived at Summerside on Monday evening, intending to proceed in the morning to a meeting of Presbytery at Charlottetown. He put up at the hotel kept by old friends of his from Richibucto. He appeared ill, and in answer to inquiry replied that he did not feel very well. Prompt measures were taken for his relief, but he sank very rapidly. With an expression of interest in home and loved ones and a prayer to God, he passed away in less than half an hour from the time he entered the hotel.—Mr. MacKenzie was born at Arran, Dec. 15, 1833. He was accordingly in the 63rd year of his age when he died. When 9 years of age he left home to attend school at Rothsay, and when 16 he entered Glasgow University, where he graduated in regular course. After spending two years as tutor, he studied theology in the U. P. College, Edinburgh. He was licensed by the Presbytery of Glasgow in 1860. In 1861 he came to Canada, landing at Montreal on the day of the union of 1861. On Feb. 12, 1862, he was ordained and inducted into the pastoral charge of Doon Hespeler in the Presbytery of Guelph. Subsequently he ministered to congregations in the Presbyteries of London and Quebec. About 1878 he was called to Richibucto in the Presbytery of Miramichi where he remained till Dec. 29, 1884. He was highly esteemed by his co-presbyters, and proved himself a hard-working and able minister of the Gospel. He made many friends throughout the Maritime Synod, who continued to feel awestruck in interest in him as long as he lived. In 1884 he responded to the call for Home Missionaries in the North West. He labored as home missionary at Rat Portage for a year and a half, after which he accepted a call to Morden, Presbytery of Rock Lake, where he remained 7 years. In 1893, on account of ill health, he resigned his charge and came to the maritime provinces. He supplied as opportunity offered a number of our vacancies, and his ministrations were highly prized. His health greatly improved, and in May 23rd of last year he was inducted into the Tyne Valley congregation, and here he labored till he died.

TO THE MARK.

In all diseases that affect humanity there is some weak link in the chain of health, some spot that is the seat of the trouble. It may be the liver, it may be the stomach; perhaps it is the bowels or the kidneys; most likely it is the blood. Burdock Blood Bitters goes straight to that spot, strengthens the weak link in the chain, removes the cause of the disease, and restores health, because it acts with cleansing force and curative power upon the stomach, liver, kidneys, bowels and blood.

With good red blood health is assured, without it disease is certain to come and Burdock is the only remedy that will positively remove all blood poisons. In ulcers, abscesses, scrofula, scrofulous swellings, skin diseases, blotches, old sores, etc., B.B.B. should be applied externally, as well as taken internally according to directions.
