Nomination Day Proceedings.

Returning Officer C. C. Carlyle opened Court as by law directed at 12 o'clock noon on Tuesday, 16th inst., when Messrs. George V. McInerney and Oliver J. LeBlanc were duly nominated to represent Kent County in the next parliament of Canada. After the customary two hours had expired, and after inexcusable delay in preparing a platform for the speakers, Mr. McInerney addressed the electors in an unusually forcible speech of over two hours. After having thanked the electors for the honor conferred on him in 1892, he discussed the political questions of the day. Speaking of his opponent, Mr. LeBlanc, he said that he had nothing whatever against him personally. But Mr. LeBlanc had no politics. If one party wanted him to be Liberal, he was a Liberal, if another party asked him to be a Liberal Conservative he could accommodate them also, and he again claims to be an Independent Conservative, but I venture to say that he will admit on this platform that he is prepared to support any party who may attain power. He said Mr. LeBlanc could not represent any elector except one who had no political ideas whatever. He gave his definition of an independent candidate.

Here he was interrupted by Mr. LeBlanc, but by the applause that followed, it was evident that Mr. LeBlanc got the worst of the controversy.

Mr. McInerney referred to Mr. Blair's version of an independent candidate. "There was no place in the present contest for independents." He spoke of Dr. Landry going over the County expounding the Liberal doctrine. He said the Doctor was a Liberal of only two weeks standing. He could have had Dr. Landry stumping the County for him if he had conceded to his (the Doctor's) request for a place and salary of $150 a year. He then read the Doctor's letter asking for the position of health officer at Buctouche. This request was refused and the doctor began canvassing against him.

Dr. Landry here denied having said that Revising barrister Hutchinson had doctored the electoral lists.

Mr. McInerney discussed Free Trade vs. Protection from a Conservative standpoint. Referred to the direct taxation in Free Trade, England, and playfully spoke of free trade beginning to reach this province in the shape of the dog tax. He spoke of the increased agricultural exports being due to the National Policy.

Mr. Harvey Atkinson, of Moncton, who came here for the occasion in the Liberal interests here interrupted Mr. McInerney, but he received such a severe castigation that he looked like a boy who was "sorry he spoke."

He next took up the assets of the Dominion comparing them with the public debt. He said if Canada had a large debt, she had something to show for it in her railways, canals, etc., and the debt had increased faster under Liberal than Conservative rule.

He then contrasted the high interest on the last loan effected by Sir Richard Cartwright 4 1/2 p. c. with the last one made by G. E. Forster at 3 1/2 p. c.

Referring to the Manitoba school question he said that it was not a matter of choice, but a matter of duty for the government to settle the grievance.

He again paid his respects to Mr. LeBlanc, referring to the difference in his French card published in the Moniteur Acadien and his English one published in THE REVIEW. In the Moniteur these words appear that do not appear in his English card in THE REVIEW: Selon la Justice.

He had asked Mr. LeBlanc if he (LeBlanc) had been in the House of Commons, would he have supported the Remedial bill?

Mr. LeBlanc said he would. McInerney then referred to Mr. LeBlanc resigning his seat in the Provincial Government.

Mr. LeBlanc said Mr. McInerney had spent a full hour in describing poor Oliver J. LeBlanc, but he had not in a single instance referred to anything of a local matter. A voice—a breakwater.

He said he was the choice of an Acadian convention and had not made up his mind to be a candidate until he saw there was no time to appoint another. He said that he was an independent candidate and could join any party that may attain power or in his judgment would do the best for the county.

He said Mr. McInerney admitted that he (McInerney) had never opened his mouth on the school question. He said that he (LeBlanc) would support the Liberal party should they attain power and that party would settle the school question as well as the Conservatives.

He was a farmer and as such he would do all in his power for that class of the community. He would endeavor to keep the farmers at home instead of spending thousands upon foreign immigration.

He would look after our harbors and abolish fishing licenses.

Would have a post office and custom house combined for the town of Richibucto. He asked where is Mr. McInerney's post office and custom house which he said he would have or never come before the electorate again?

He would have post offices in every part of the county where they were needed and did not now exist.

He asked the electors to vote for him, not because he was an Acadian but because he was a British subject and would make no race distinctions in the representation of the County. Mr. LeBlanc then spoke in French.

Mr. LeBlanc's speech was very brief. Mr. Hutchinson in response to repeated calls addressed the electors in a ringing speech. He supported Mr. McInerney and said that the ballot box was the only convention he would recognize, because these conventions were often manipulated by wire pullers who had more regard for their own interests than for the welfare of the county.

He said his only reason for addressing the electors at this time was because he had heard of his name being maligned in reference to his revision of the voters lists. Dr. Landry had denied having made the accusation to day when challenged by Mr. McInerney. He said his revision was the best ever made in Kent County.

He said that the French people should be the last to accuse him of opposing their interests. He instanced P. A. Landry, Dr. Leger and Gilbert Girouard, the latter had caused the loss of his comfortable home. He had befriended him in time of need and was turned on the street for his generosity.

He said it was an absurdity to expect the authors of the grievance in the school question, the Greenway Government to settle the matter satisfactorily. He said Mr. McInerney had a large amount of money in the estimates for harbor improvements but as the estimates did not pass, this money did not come.

He asked the electors one and all to come to the polls and vote for Mr. McInerney if they could, or come and vote anyway.

Mr. Harvey Atkinson, who had been waiting for a chance to display his eloquence took the stand, but the audience did not feel disposed to be talked at by a stranger who didn't appear to have much to say and didn't seem very clever in saying it, therefore murmured their disapproval in so audible a manner that the speaker was frequently compelled to stop. Mr. McInerney here took the stand and advised the audience to listen to what the gentleman had to say and he would endeavor to reply. Mr. Atkinson was ostensibly talking for Mr. LeBlanc, but as Mr. LeBlanc is not a Liberal, it seemed "to awfully" inconsistent on the part of the speaker. The audience—or most of them seemed better informed on public questions than was Mr. Atkinson, and a large number would have expressed themselves better. When such men essay to occupy the time of electors, it is little wonder they kick.

Mr. McInerney moved and it was unanimously carried that meeting adjourn.

The day was beautiful and a very large number of representative electors from all parts of the county attended the meeting. The audience was almost wholly in favour of Mr. McInerney.

Geo V McInerney was nominated by the following

CARD

To the Electors of the County of Kent:

GENTLEMEN,—The Dissolution of Parliament again imposes upon you the duty of electing a representative at Ottawa, and the Electoral Writs summon you to the discharge of that duty on the 23rd of June next.

Permit me to thank you, heartily, for the confidence you reposed in me on the 6th of December, 1892.

The mandate you then so generously, confided to me, I return to you, unswayed. I have regarded it as a public trust, and have faithfully endeavored, within the measure of my ability, to discharge the obligations it laid upon me.

Believing that my experience of the last four years may be of some benefit to the Constituency in the future, I respectfully solicit a renewal of your confidence. I submit for your approval that Policy—truly national—which has advanced the credit of Canada, fostered native industries, conserved the home market for our agriculturists and manufacturers, increased our Foreign Trade, and engendered that spirit of union without which national greatness is impossible.

I favor:

- Preferential Trade within the bounds of the Empire;
- A Fast Atlantic Service;
- The Development of Agriculture;
- An Efficient National Defence;
- The Encouragement of Immigration;
- The Admission of Newfoundland into this Confederation, and
- Justice to minorities whether in Quebec or Manitoba.

I support Remedial Legislation because with Sir Leonard Tilley, "I look at it as a solemn compact between the Parliament of Canada and the people of Manitoba." It is the occasion of the highest Court in the Empire. It is a constitutional guarantee of the rights of Provincial minorities—Protestant as well as Catholic—and the highest patriotism inspires and compels respect for the letter and spirit of the Constitution.

I confidently await your enlightened and unprejudiced approval of the moderate attitude I have taken on this question. I will attempt, at public meetings, to discuss the political issues of the day, and endeavor to see as many of you, personally, as possible.

Again soliciting your support, I am, Gentlemen, Your Obedient Servant,
GEORGE V. MCINERNEY.
Richibucto, N. B., May 12, 1896.
