ELECTION PROSPECTS.

Sir Charles Tupper affirms that the government's chances of a glorious triumph were never brighter. Messrs. Dickey, Foster, Angers, Haggart and Hugh John McDonald all confirm this forecast. It is true that Messrs. Laurier, Mowat, Cartwright, Longley and Co. are also prophesying a contrary result, but these prognostications are naturally discounted in the public mind by the fact that the same bright hopes were indulged by the Liberal leaders on the eve of the contests of 1878, 1882, 1887 and 1891 and in each case the Liberal party was "plunged in a gulf of dark despair" on the day that followed the election.

Just now we have a repetition of many of the old-time symptoms. In Winnipeg it was said a few weeks ago that Hugh John McDonald could not come within sight of winning. Betting was three to one against his chances, or even betting on 800 majority against him. But as the canvass went on this was all changed and now it is admitted that Mr. Martin, his opponent is "fighting for his life," while "Hugh John" is leisurely touring through the North west assisting his supporters, and counts confidently on carrying Winnipeg with "hands down."

It was said it was no use for Sir Charles Tupper to go into Ontario; that he was not wanted there, would not get a hearing etc., yet the premier met with a magnificent reception and received ovations wherever he showed himself. The usual campaign falsehoods have been set afloat, but are quickly disproved and only discredit their authors in the end. One of these was started, boldly announcing that Hon. Dr. Montague had resigned, that Hon. Mr. Haggart had given up his canvass and the government was in process of disruption! And yet it was wholly untrue, both Dr. Montague and Mr. Haggart are addressing the electors from the same platform with Sir Charles Tupper and denying the lying rumor.

Prudent electors will not be misled by such electioneering dodges. The ministerial party is led by cool, clear headed, able men, who are confident of winning the battle on 23rd of June, feeling that they deserve to win, and will leave no legitimate measures untied to secure that success.

SIR CHARLES NOT A MILLIONAIRE

Speaking at Petrolia in Ontario, on Friday, the premier met a slander that he had been used against him in one form or another. He is reported as follows:

In a spirited manner Sir Charles took up the charge made by the Toronto Globe, that he had entered public life a poor man and was now a millionaire. He also understood that Mr. Laurier had repeated that statement, which was a double-headed falsehood. The Premier said when he first entered politics in Nova Scotia he was a man of independent means, after fourteen years of practice as a medical man in his native county. Subsequently he had practised in Halifax and in Toronto and in Ottawa. In Halifax he was at one and the same time the editor of a newspaper, Medical Health Officer and also Premier of the province. It was not inconsistent to suppose that the ability and industry necessary to fill these offices would bring him a competency. That he was a millionaire, Sir Charles said, was a gigantic falsehood. Mr. Laurier had stated at Huntington that Sir Charles had stated that he (Sir Charles) was a millionaire from the practice of his profession.

"He nailed these falsehoods," he remarked, these monstrous and vile slanders to the Liberal leaders forehead. Sir Charles had never made any such statement as Mr. Laurier had given currency to. It was stated too, that Sir John A. Macdonald had died a poor man while Sir Charles was rolling in wealth. Well, to crush for ever this slander, Sir Charles would state that if he could leave to his widow and children what Sir John A. Macdonald had left his widow, he (Sir Charles) would be glad he was not a millionaire.

It is the duty of every elector to go to the polls and exercise the sacred right of franchise—a privilege for which our forefathers fought and bled. Vote! and vote right! If you vote for McInerney you will vote for the great national party—the Liberal-Conservative.

PURISTS INDEED!

Twenty-four supporters of the Liberal party were unseated for bribery and corruption in the general election of 1891. Further off, in 1874 thirty-one members of the Grit party were unseated for the same offence. How is that for the great party of purity?

VOTE FOR YOUR COUNTY.

Every Kent county man should remember that in the election he should not forget his own county. We may rest assured that in every other constituency west and east the electors will not forget their home interests. They are right in guarding their own; it is our duty to guard the good name, the material interests and general well-being of Kent county. Our late representative, Mr. McInerney, may confidently appeal for re-election if past services, distinguished talent and a high position among the other representatives of the people are to count for anything, as we are sure they will. Who can better advocate our varied interests? Who would be so able and influential a spokesman for our people?

Kent has already furnished many able men to the legislature of this province, as well as to its bar and bench. She has sent some strong men in the past to the Canadian parliament. The time has not yet come to lower our standard in that regard. Our fertile soil produces varied and abundant crops to reward the toil of the husbandman, but, after all, our best crop is our men! We may properly have we ought to have a pride in the clever sons who have grown up to manhood in our midst. This feeling, apart from politics,—we may say above politics—prompts to do just what the big majority will do on the 23rd—elect George V. McInerney!

Most electors like an outspoken candidate who makes his principles and intentions public. The so-called "independent" who hopes to steal into parliament first and declare himself afterwards is at a discount in these times. Tupper we know and Laurier we know, but what the alleged "independent" is or what he will do if elected, we do not know.

George McLeod, a stalwart son of Kent and formerly her representative under the Liberal regime is now doing yeoman's service for the Conservative candidates in St. John.

There has been some boasting among the opposition of the two Liberal candidates elected by acclamation on the 16th. Both of them were in the province of Quebec and both of them are pledged to vote for the remedial bill. For this reason it was not thought desirable to oppose them. In the general election of 1891, though the Liberals were badly beaten they secured the return of three men in Quebec by acclamation—one of them Mr. Laurier himself. In the preceding election, that of 1887, the Liberals also got three seats without opposition, and these were out and out supporters of their policy. Yet the party was beaten. It should be known that in the present contest no straight supporter of Mr. Laurier has been elected by acclamation. The two Liberals who gained their seats in that way will not vote with Laurier on the school question.

Mr. McCarthy is not cutting the grand figure in this election that he expected. He has but a handful of followers among the candidates, and no assurance that half even of these few will be elected. He now probably wishes that he had remained true to the old party, of which he was once a strenuous supporter.

This point is to be observed:—Never was the Conservative party more assured of success on the eve of an election than in the present instance. And these assurances have proved true in six elections since 1867. The Liberal party is very Liberal in predictions that they will win this time. But they were equally confident in the six elections in which their hopes were afterwards blighted.

The St. John Sun, an able and judiciously conducted newspaper, which has not hitherto overrated the ministerial chances, confidently predicts that the Liberals will this time lose the two New Brunswick seats they held in the last parliament—Charlotte and Carleton!

George Robertson, who went from Richibucto to become mayor of St. John for successive terms, is a stalwart Conservative. Men of brains mostly are.

Father Richard of Rogersville Intervenes.

Father Richard gave the following answer to a canvasser the other day:—

"I am a Roman Catholic Priest, and as such I am in duty bound to preach and show respect and obedience for law and the constitution. I am a citizen of the Dominion and a British Subject; as such I must give an example of loyalty for the laws of my country and show due regard for the wishes of Her Majesty the Queen, uphold Her royal engagements and the decrees of the highest tribunal of Her Empire.

"Therefore, my duty in the present crisis, seems clear and evident; I will support the present Federal Government as representing these principles. I cannot see how any loyal subject of Her Majesty; any lover of his country and fellowman can act otherwise. 'To be or not to be, that is the question.' All other minor questions agitated in the Country which tend to lead the electors aside from the great issues in the pending election, appear to me inopportune and injurious to the best interests of the community. A noble example of fidelity to duty and loyalty to a sacred trust is given by the Roman Catholic Episcopate of the Dominion of Canada. For the sake of principle and respect for law and the constitution, the Bishops direct their subjects to follow 'Tupper,' a Protestant, rather than 'Laurier,' a Catholic, not because one is Conservative and the other Liberal; but because the former upholds the rights of minorities, guaranteed by the constitution, whilst the latter is on record as opposing that policy. This is well worthy of notice and of imitation."

It was a few weeks ago predicted by the Liberal press that Sir Charles Tupper would not go into Ontario during the campaign. But he did go, and like Caesar it might be said of him, "he came, he saw, he conquered." His tour through Ontario was like a triumphal progress. Not even in the palmiest days of Sir John McDonald was he, or Mr. Blake or any other of the native sons of Ontario greeted with such vast audiences. Sir Charles Tupper's name is to-day a power in every province of Canada.

The Advance of Medical Science.

Dr. Agnew's Successful Experiments in Heart Disease and Catarrhal Trouble.

The world has been of the opinion that where medical science can master such dreaded diseases as diphtheria and hydrophobia, yet when the heart is affected there is no hope for the patient save such as may come from easing his condition. The discoveries of Dr. Agnew have proven once again that there seems no end to the possibilities of science in its treatment of disease—even heart disease. In what is known as Dr. Agnew's Cure for the Heart is found a remedy that has practically given back life to those who were supposed to be beyond hope of recovery with heart trouble. One of the virtues of this medicine is its instantaneous effect upon the patient. It would not be worth much otherwise, for with heart disease prompt action is an absolute necessity. Mr. Aaron Nichols, of Peterboro, Ont., writes this of Dr. Agnew's Cure for the Heart:—"My wife was troubled for 20 years with heart disease. From the first few doses of Dr. Agnew's Cure for the Heart she obtained relief, and continuing its use she received more benefit from it than all the doctoring she ever did. The remedy acts like magic on a diseased heart."

With everyone catarrh is a most unpleasant trouble, and this is especially the case with preachers or speakers, or those whose duty it is to appear before the public. Among the strongest evidence produced of the successful character of Dr. Agnew's Catarrhal Powder is that which has come from prominent citizens like the Bishop of Toronto, the Right Rev. A. Sweatman, D. D., D. C. L.; from leading members of the faculty of Mc Master Hall, the Rev. W. H. Whitrow, D. D., a representative Methodist divine; Rev. Munro Fraser D. D.; of Hamilton's prominent Presbyterian, and other public men. These gentlemen have all over their signatures, told of the thoroughly effective character of Dr. Agnew's Catarrhal Powder in this very prevalent disease. Sold by W. W. Short.
