THE WIDE WIDE WORLD.

Robert Littell, publisher of Littell's Living Age, died on Wednesday of heart disease at his home in Brookline, Mass. He was born in Philadelphia and was 64 years of age.

EVANSVILLE, Ind., April 9.—Thomas Hitch, a deputy constable, shot and fatally wounded Mrs. Ella Stamps at her home in Madison avenue last evening because she refused to get a divorce from her husband and marry him. Hitch then shot himself in the head, dying instantly.

A bridegroom of 90 was married to a bride of 68 in Meriden, Conn., last week. Each had been married twice before. A good deal of interest was evinced in the match, and the contracting parties made public announcement of a time for the ceremony. They were married a few hours earlier, and got safely and quietly away.

At Hot Springs, Ark., April 9, the six round fight between Jack McAuliffe and Harry Pigeon, lightweight champion of Canada, came off. It was a hot fight from all of time. In the second round McAuliffe uppeared Pigeon and floored him. Pigeon got up and coming at McAuliffe was floored again. There was no decision in the sixth round and the men decided to go on. The seventh and last round was a hot one, but McAuliffe outfought Pigeon and beat him so badly it was some minutes before he came to.

AMHERST, April 10.—A ghastly discovery was made at Tidnish, about eighteen miles from here, yesterday at noon. Mrs. Nellie Thomas, a widow woman being discovered lying on her bed with a terrible gash in her throat. Her son William, who went to Baie Verte early in the morning, found his mother slowly bleeding to death on his return in the afternoon. She died before medical aid could be got. The deceased was alone during her son's absence, and it is supposed that she committed the act herself. An inquest was held this morning, but no further particulars are at hand.

John Smith, the ex-hired man of the Stone family, three members of which were cruelly murdered ten days ago at Tallmadge, Ohio, has been arrested charged with the murder. Smith has confessed he killed Alvin N. Stone and wife and Ira Stillson, and inflicted severe injuries on Emma and Hattie Stone. His motive for committing the crime was to assault Flora Stone. He was discharged by Alvin Stone two weeks before the crime for paying too much attention to his youngest daughter, Flora. Flora was the only one of the family not injured by the murderer.

A San Francisco despatch states the British ship Blaimore while at anchor was struck by a heavy squall and capsized. Six of the crew were drowned, and the bodies are imprisoned in the hold. The dead are: Thomas Ludgate, chief officer; Samuel Kenny, steward; T. Rerabaum, sailmaker; H. Synastrand, H. F. Clark, both able seamen; R. E. R. Zeigle, apprentice. Nine of the crew were rescued by boats. Captain John Crow swam to a small boat lying astern and pulled to the landing. Blaimore arrived from Newcastle, N. S. W., with a cargo of coal about a week ago, making a voyage in fifty-six days, the fastest time on record.

SALEM, Mass., April 9.—There was a double tragedy at a house in Boston street this morning. At 4.20 the people living up stairs in the house smelled smoke and going to the room occupied by Miss Josephine Manning forced an entrance and found the bed on fire and the room filled with smoke. Across the foot of the bed a man was lying fully dressed and just gasping for breath. He was taken out but died before medical help arrived. In bed Miss Manning lay dead, her head covered with blood. The family up stairs reported they heard three pistol shots an hour previous and examination showed the woman had two pistol wounds in her head. The man, who was James F. Flynn, also had a bullet wound in his head. Examination of the premises revealed a watch, revolver, pocket book and a pack of cards on the bed. Flynn was a widower about 35 years old, and had been keeping company with the Manning woman, who was a dressmaker and about 25 years of age. It is supposed he killed the girl and then committed suicide. No one could tell when he went to the house, nor was anything known as to the cause of the shooting. Both bodies were somewhat scorched, but only the bed in the room was burned.

The powder from the revolver had set fire to the bed clothing. Flynn was a manufacturer of inner soles, etc., and was well known and respected. He had three children. Miss Manning's reputation was of the best and she moved in excellent social circles. Her friends who knew of her intimacy with Flynn supposed their marriage was to take place soon.

It is believed the tragedy was the result of drunken rage. Flynn was to take Miss Manning to a ball last night and called in a somewhat intoxicated condition and with working clothes on. A quarrel ensued and Flynn left the house, but returned some hours later, when the tragedy occurred.

MURDEROUS ASSAULT

A Love Crazy Girl Hacks a Woman Nearly to Death, and Then Tries to Poison Herself.

At Moncton on April 9th one of the most fiendish attempts of murder ever made here was made last night. For some time past a young man named Frank Sherwood, of St. John, an employe of the I. C. R. here, has been keeping company with a girl named Jennie McArthur. This girl for a time lived at the young man's home, but about three months ago was discharged and obtained employment at the residence of ex-Mayor Sumner. Jennie was madly in love with Sherwood, and the fact that about two weeks ago he told her they must part caused her to go almost crazy. She frequently wrote him letters asking him to come and see her, but he paid no attention to them and Sunday night the climax came, when he went to church with another girl. She wrote him on Monday, saying that she would have vengeance and would kill any girl he went with. Yesterday she telephoned, requesting that he call and see her at 7 o'clock last night. It is evident that he did not comply with her wish, for about 8 o'clock she left Mr. Sumner's residence, the family being absent, and with a carving knife secreted under her sack went direct to Sherwood's home on Elm street and knocked at the door. Mrs. Frank Cunningham, of St. John, daughter of Mrs. Sherwood, answered the bell, and was accosted by Jennie with, "I want to see Frank." Mrs. Cunningham asked her if she would come in. She said no. Mrs. Cunningham then said, "Frank is out at present," and the girl becoming abusive she shut the door in her face, which the girl pushed open again. Mrs. E. J. Sherwood, an aged woman of 66 partially paralyzed in the lower limbs, hobbled to the door. When Jennie saw her she pulled out the knife and rushed into the hallway, slashing at the two women. Mrs. Sherwood was knocked to the floor and her assailant sprang on top of her, slashing her with the knife. Mrs. Cunningham, with her two little children, rushed to a neighboring house, crying for help. In the meantime, apparently after the girl thought she had killed her victim, she coolly wiped the knife, still reeking with blood, on the doorsill, and saying "There, you old —, I have fixed you at last," with coolness characteristic of a desperado she walked to a house near by and asked if the woman and the two children were there. Answered in the negative she walked away and returned to Mr. Sumner's home. Mrs. Sherwood, who was badly gashed about the head, throat and body, had vitality enough left to crawl on her hands and knees through the rear door of the house into the yard, a stream of blood marking her progress, where she was subsequently found bathed in blood. Doctors were summoned who dressed the wounds, which are very serious. After reaching her place of employment the McArthur girl took a dose of carbolic acid and when found in the room was in a bad condition. Dr. White, who was summoned, administered emetics and worked with her all night. This morning about five o'clock, while everyone in the house was asleep, the doctor having gone, she quietly left and has not yet been captured although the police are searching. She belongs to Kings county and is married, her husband, Frost Carter, is still living in Albert county.—Globe.

Castoria is an excellent medicine for children. Mothers have repeatedly told me of its good effect upon their children.

Dr. G. C. Osceola,
Lowell, Mass.

"Castoria is so well adapted to children that I recommend it as superior to any prescription known to me."

H. A. Archer, M. D.,
111 So. Oxford St., Brooklyn, N. Y.

"Our physicians in the children's department have spoken highly of their experience in their outside practice with Castoria, and although we only have among our medical supplies what is known as regular products, yet we are free to confess that the merits of Castoria has won us to look with favor upon it."
