Castoria.

"Castoria is an excellent medicine for children. Mothers have repeatedly told me of its good effect upon their children."

Dr. G. C. Osmond,
Lowell, Mass.

"Castoria is the best remedy for children of which I am acquainted. I hope the day is not far distant when mothers will consider the real interest of their children, and use Castoria instead of the various quack nostrums which are destroying their loved ones, by forcing opium, morphine, soothing syrup and other hurtful agents down their throats, thereby sending them to premature graves."

Dr. J. F. Kinchloe,
Conway, Ark.

Castoria.

"Castoria is so well adapted to children that I recommend it as superior to any prescription known to me."

H. A. Archer, M. D.,
111 So. Oxford St., Brooklyn, N. Y.

"Our physicians in the children's department have spoken highly of their experience in their outside practice with Castoria, and although we only have among our medical supplies what is known as regular products, yet we are free to confess that the merits of Castoria has won us to look with favor upon it."

Liquor Killed Him

On Tuesday evening, March 31st, a sad accident occurred at the C. P. R. station in Ottawa. Two young men had been drinking together pretty freely. By mistake both got upon the wrong train. One jumped off, landing safely, but fell between two cars and four wheels of one of them passed over his legs. He died next afternoon.

His Own Fault.

A curious case was recently tried in Montreal. Phileas Corbel had fallen from the deck of a boat while drunk and was drowned. His heirs sued the Manufacturers Accident Company for $6000, on two insurance policies. The Court dismissed the action on the ground that the man's death, being due to drink, was not covered by the insurance policies.

Drink and Death.

A terrible fatality occurred near Simcoe Ont. on the night of March 7th. David Cram and his father and brother went home from the town late at night in an intoxicated condition. David seems to have been the worst of the lot and was left by the others to sleep in the barn covered with a horse blanket. Next morning he was found frozen to death.

A Priest Silenced.

It is stated that Rev. Father Zurcher, the eminent advocate of temperance, who recently spoke in the Horticultural Pavilion in Toronto, has been ordered by his ecclesiastical superiors to keep silent upon the question in consequence of an attack made by him upon the brewing and selling of beer by monks. Archbishop Ryan states that he has issued the order in the interests of temperance. Father Zurcher has resigned the Presidency of the Catholic Temperance Union of Buffalo.

An Anti-Treating Law.

The House of Representatives of the Legislature of Ohio has passed an Act prohibiting treating. It provides that whoever gives or offers to another person any intoxicating drink in any place where intoxicating liquor is sold shall be guilty of a misdemeanor. The penalty is a fine of from one dollar to twenty dollars.

What Johnnie Did.

Before Johnnie began to go to the temperance school his father used to take a glass of beer every day. Johnnie learned what was in the beer, so he said one morning, "Papa, I am never going to smoke nor chew, nor take any kind of beer nor cider nor brandy. Now please papa, can't you do the same?"

"Why? Do you think it hurts to take a glass of beer once in a while?"

"Oh, I am sure it does, for it burns up the inside of your stomach."

"How do you know so much about beer, Johnnie?" said his papa.

"I saw our teacher put some into a glass bottle with a lamp under it, and the alcohol came out of the bottle and burned with a blue blaze, and she said it would burn the stomachs of those who drank it."

"Are you sure there is alcohol in beer?"

"Yes, indeed, papa, I am very sure, and that is why it makes men drunk sometimes."

"I guess you are right, Johnnie, and I am glad you have made up your mind never to take bad drinks. If you will stick to it I will join with you, and we will drink that best of all drinks, cold water, that never makes any one tipsy, nor never makes any one unhappy."

"Oh, I am so glad papa, for now you will save money enough to buy shoes for mamma and me, so that we can always go to the temperance meetings, and perhaps you will go with us. Will you, papa?"

His papa said yes, and now we are so happy, for the bad drink never comes into our house, and all because Johnnie learned so well at the temperance school and talked so wisely to his papa.—Water Lily.

Whiskey Did It.

A press dispatch says that the body of Thomas Gordon was found on April 7th in Martin's woods on the first concession of Mercier township, Essex Co., with a whiskey bottle by his side. He had been on a spree when last seen and is supposed to have lain down in that condition and perished. His face was much disfigured by rats. Another addition to the awful record.
