First Lesson in Business.

"Now, my son," said the old merchant, "while you are applying yourself to the details of this business, learning how to buy and how to sell, how to gauge the taste and needs of the great public, how to avoid mistakes, how to seize opportunities—while you study these things keep always before you the fact that the basis of all true business success is absolute, uncompromising honesty."

"Father," said the young man, "your business has always been one of large sales and small profits, has it not?"

"You know what I advertise, my son; I buy everything directly from the manufacturer and I sell to the consumer at exactly 7 1/2 per cent advance from cost. Such a business I believe to be as beneficial to the public as any philanthropic institution. The people should purchase the necessities of life at a margin above first cost sufficient only to pay for the actual handling of the goods. That is a fixed principle of mine."

"But," said the boy, in a puzzled, hesitating way, "you had an invoice of lace curtains to-day at $3 a pair, and I heard you give instructions to mark them $4.69."

The old man leaned back in his leather-cushioned swivel chair, smiled blandly and told the boy to take pencil and paper.

"The expenses of this business last year," he said, were 10 per cent. of the sales. Add 10 per cent. to your $3."

"Three thirty."

"There is always possible a shrinkage in value of stock, always a percentage of bad debts, always a hazard of unforeseen contingencies. Add 10 per cent. more."

"Three sixty-three."

"Do you know how much it costs your father to maintain himself and his family? Have you any idea of the expense of educating and dressing three boys and three girls, paying their way in society, providing them and their mother with a country home and a city home, with servants and carriages and everything they desire?"

"I am afraid I have no idea, father."

"Well, it's simply frightful. It is, in fact, twenty per cent. of the entire sales of the house. Add twenty per cent. Never mind fractions."

"Four thirty-six."

"There. You have arrived by a process clear and open as day, and by the use of simple business rules, at the cost of those curtains billed at three dollars. Now add seven and a half per cent. profit."

"Four sixty-nine."

"That's what I'm going to advertise them at; and you will see a great run on them to-morrow, for the public has learned that all my announcements are absolutely reliable."—Harper's Weekly.

GOOD KIDNEY WORK.GOOD HEALTH—LIFE ITSELF DEPENDS UPON HEALTHY KIDNEYS.

The Lessons of Experience—Thousands Have Learned and Testified—Dodd's Kidney Pills Never Fail in Curing Kidney Disease.

Each particular organ in the body is put there to do a special work. The lungs, the liver and the kidneys all have their functions.

The stomach and bowels receive and digest the food on which we live.

Not everything in the food should go into the blood as blood material.

There is a separation effected by these organs.

But the chyle may have germs and poisonous matter in it which would wreck life if once in the blood, so it must be taken out.

The kidneys are at once and always filters.

Nineteen times out of every twenty when we are sick, it is because of weak kidneys. If anything goes wrong look to the kidneys first. Fast living, overwork, colds, or injuries may any of them weaken the kidneys so that they do not perform their important—their indispensable work.

It has been found that Dodd's Kidney Pills at such a time are exactly what is wanted to help the kidneys. If you have headache, restless feeling, tired feeling, chills, sallow skin, aching across the loins, coated tongue, rheumatism, cloudy urine, loss of flesh, shortness of breath,

Then you will find that one box of Dodd's Kidney Pills is worth more than its weight in gold, for they always cure.

An interesting incident in the reign of Queen Victoria occurs this year, in the fact that, if she survives, hers will become the longest reign of any sovereign of Great Britain and Ireland. Hitherto the longest reign has been that of George I. L., who occupied the throne for 59 years 96 days. Queen Victoria began to reign on June 20, 1837. In her case 59 years 96 days will expire on Sept. 24, 1896. Already she is the longest actively reigning sovereign, after several years before his death George III. was under a Regency.

Out of weakness comes strength when he blood has been purified, enriched and vitalized by Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Italian desirous of escaping military service are flocking into France by every train, and there is no diminution of their numbers.

WINDSOR, Ont., March 19.—The relatives of Margaret McPhail, who died near Blarville, Kent County, Ont., a few days ago, found $1,900 in bills sewed up in her clothing. They took the money to Ridgeway to deposit it in a bank, where it was discovered that $225 of it was of six different defunct banks in Canada, one of which was the Bank of Upper Canada which showed that she had started to hoard more than 25 years ago. There were also a lot of four dollar bills, which had been called in by the banks many years ago. They are good, but not now in circulation.

Hawker's balsam of tolu and wild cherry cures coughs and colds.

That is a simple statement of a well established fact. It concerns the reader and his or her friends, and should not be forgotten.

Hawker's balsam is a remedy easy to take because pleasant to the taste. Children like it and will ask for it. That is a great point in its favor.

Public speakers and singers have found it the ideal remedy for removing hoarseness. As a household remedy, always safe, always prompt and effective, it has no successful rival. PARALYSIS CURABLE.

Stricken Ones to be Seen Everywhere—This Form of Living Death cured by Dodd's Kidney Pills.

The most startling example of human helplessness is the paralytic.

The victim excites your commiseration, but resents your pity.

He of the palsied hand stiffly pressing the benumbed side is to be seen everywhere we go.

The most convincing proof that this pitiable condition is the outcome of kidney disease is the fact that Dodd's Kidney Pills cure it.

Not generally recognized as a kidney disease, it succumbs to kidney treatment. Did you ever know of a cure? Just think a moment!

If you do it must have been the work of Dodd's Kidney Pills, for no other medicine ever cured.

The Rev. J. C. Madill and Mr. Wm. MacLaren, an oil merchant, both of Sarnia Ont., while crossing on a ferry to Port Huron, Mich., got into an altercation over family affairs, which resulted in Mr. MacLaren striking the Rev. Mr. Madill on the nose, breaking it. He was arrested at Huron.

President Kruger, of the Transvaal Republic, has some queer notions of freedom. To a delegation who visited him not long ago and urged compulsory education, on the ground that it was the custom in other countries, he said: "Yes; education is compulsory in other countries, but so is military service. This is a republic, and people may keep their children in ignorance if they please."

We invite inspection of our large and varied stock of PUNGS and SLEIGHS, which we guarantee to be first class in every particular. Our prices are so low when the quality of our work is taken into consideration, that we are in a position to defy competition.
