

KINGSTON NOTES.

Mrs. P. A. (nee J. Jardine) is on her way home.

Cap. Faukner is sailing for St. John.

Miss Kate Doherty is home from her studies.

We have heard that Miss Main is going away soon.

Wm. Brait, Esq., was confined to his house for a few days, but is out again.

Mr. James McLelland is home from St. John. Rumor has hinted that his trip is to be a pleasant one.

Mrs. James Irving has been visiting in Kingston.

Mr. Cameron left for home on Saturday, accompanied as far as the Junction by Mr. Mary Main and Miss Smith.

Mr. R. S. Pridham is back again, and will remain, so the notice says, until Thursday.

Dr. Doherty, of Moncton, visited Kingston professionally the past few days and attended to our many aches. We are pleased to know that he has so much to do when here, which means that his work speaks for itself.

Many of our Richibucto friends the past few days in Kingston.

Mr. H. J. McGrath, bridge inspector, was here on Monday looking at our structure (7). We hope that his report may be favorable for a new bridge.

Hooking seems to be the order of the day, and whether some are preparing for a journey to a foreign land or for a peaceful and quiet home in our town, time will tell.

We were somewhat startled the other day by being informed that Moncton was going to rob us. "May be so, may be so, but he'll come back."

Dear me, this is nearly housecleaning time, when we have to carry things from one room to another, and oh, the stovepipes—All things come to those who wait, but when is the patent stovepipe adjuster coming?

Although Lent deprived us of our dancing, yet many pleasant evenings have been spent in other amusements. The snowshoe party returned safely from Richibucto (that is, with the aid of a team) and felt somewhat revived after partaking of the bounties of Mr. Dickinson.

Last Saturday evening many of our young friends were enjoying a coast on the hard crust. Larigan's mill seems to be the favorite place, and we would suggest that our friends use the "haul-up." There is considerable ice but no good skating.

The Play progresses slowly but surely. A lady arrived on Monday, and it seems to be a puzzle to derive who she may be. Won't someone tell them, or will the lady notify THE REVIEW?

Miss Annie Cameron, daughter of John Cameron, died on Wednesday, March 15th, with consumption brought on by a heavy cold. Deceased was a kind and bright young lady with a very promising future before her, and it is with the deepest regret that we chronicle the notice of her death. We extend our kindest sympathies to those who mourn her loss. The funeral took place on Friday, and was very large. Rev. Mr. Hamilton officiated.

JIM.

KENT JUNCTION.

MARCH 25.—We are pleased to welcome Mr. J. F. R. McMichael, whose long absence has been much regretted.

Mr. J. D. Phinney was here on Monday, en route to Fredericton.

Mr. J. W. Morton, accompanied by Miss Lizzie and Master Tupper, spent a few days of this week visiting friends in Richibucto.

Russell Thurott of Main River is a guest at the Depot House.

Miss Main, of Galloway and Miss Smith of Kingston were here on Saturday.

Miss Tina McPherson who has been quite ill for some days past, is able to be out again.

Rev. Mr. Hamilton was here on Monday.

Mrs. Cameron, of Seattle, was here this week on her way home.

Rev. Mr. Freeborn, of Harcourt, held service here on Wednesday.

Miss Wallwood spent Sunday at her home in Harcourt.

MAC

BASS RIVER.

MARCH 21.—As already noticed in your valuable paper, the home of Mr. John C. Howell was destroyed by fire and his family reduced to the verge of destitution.

The community here realizing the pressing need for immediate relief at this inclement season, acted promptly, and through a committee called for assistance. The response from all parts was most satisfactory, money, clothing and provisions being most generously offered.

A statement of the several contributions has been made and found to correspond with the lists of the collectors so that perfect satisfaction to all concerned may be assured. The aggregate amount collected was in the vicinity of $100.

The family deeply conscious of the gratitude they owe to the unbounded liberality of their generous benefactors desire to express their heartfelt thankfulness to all who so nobly assisted them in the hour of their need.

On the New Brunswick train the other day the mother of a family of five small children showed the conductor a couple of half fare tickets for her two children. The conductor after looking at her doubtfully said: "How old are they?" "They are only six and they are twins," Ah! and then, after a moment's pause, the man inquired: "And where were they born?" "This one was born in St. John and the other one in Boston."

PERSONAL.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Robertson, of West Branch, were in town Monday.

John T. Caie, Esq., arrived home from the United States Friday evening, accompanied by his son, Mr. W. S. W. Caie, who, it will be remembered, had one of his legs broken some time ago. The young man stood the journey well and is doing as well as can be expected.

Mr. E. M. Wilband, of St. John, was in town last week.

Mr. W. L. Blair, of Truro, N. S. was in town last week.

Mr. A. B. Weldon, of Kouchibouguac, was in town Saturday.

Rev. Father Carson, of New Ireland, Albert Co., has gone to St. John for a short rest after a severe attack of la grippe.

Mr. Tennant, of Taylor & Tennant, Amherst, was in town Monday.

Mr. A. E. Fawcett, of Sackville, was in town Monday.

Mr. Johnson, M. P. P., was in town yesterday, looking well, after his arduous legislative duties.

Mr. D. W. Puddington, of St. John, was in town yesterday.

Rev. Wm. Hamilton, of Kingston was in Moncton this week.

Mrs. Hannah left for Moncton Tuesday where she will visit her daughter, Mrs. Frank Curran.

Miss Maggie Leggatt arrived home Tuesday from St. John.

Mrs. James Forster formerly of Richibucto, but at present of Dorchester, is in town the guest of Mrs. D. J. Cochrane.

Inspired by the incident of the money found stitched in the clothing of the late Miss Doherty, of Fredericton, Mr. Mat Toomey, of that city, overhauled some old clothing belonging to his wife, and discovered $70 stored away. In an old skirt which he had thrown out he found $10 more. As he gave some of her clothing away, Mr. Toomey is speculating in his own mind as to what he might have had if he had kept them.

On Saturday afternoon, the ice on Lake Erie parted near the shore and started towards the Canada side with 200 fishermen. A stiff south wind was blowing and before the men were aware of their perilous position they were a quarter of a mile from land. Rescuing parties were quickly organized and boats overtook floating ice and by 8 p. m. all fishermen adrift were rescued.
