One Woman's Secret.

The other day I asked a successful housekeeper, says Johnstone Murray. Womanhood, how she managed to keep her table so plentifully and wholesomely supplied, to keep the boys in school and neatly clothed, to keep herself happy and well and her husband content; to keep her house tastefully furnished and still have enough left from her husband's not large salary, to buy an occasional book and keep on the sitting room table several of the best magazines, to pay her pew rent and her club dues—in short, to live the proper life of a middle class family, and not get in debt.

And she told me her secret—a very simple one, but one that the average woman may ponder with profit. She said:

"I study advertisements, and I know where and when and how to purchase the household supplies. My husband used to laugh at me for reading advertisements so carefully but he has long since learned that I save many dollars every month. I know of no better way to practice economy, and do you know, that it is a wonder how soon you learn to detect the real from the false, intuitively, almost? I do not think I have ever been 'taken in' by an advertisement; there is always something about the false ones that repels me. You hear a great deal nowadays about the practical pages of magazines and newspapers, but for me the practical pages are those containing the business announcements of reputable business houses. The housekeeper who takes advantage of the practical hints on those pages shows a great deal more common sense than does the one who tries to furnish a seven-room cottage with a lot of soap boxes covered with denim worked in fancy stitch, and to feed her growing family with never ending reminiscences of the meal that went before. To the economical housekeeper the advertisements are the most important part of any publication."

A Pleasing Theme.

Rev. Henry Helzinger, Neustadt, Ont. "It is a pleasure to me to write a few lines about your dyspepsia medicine—K. D. C. and if the English language were as easy to write as the German, I would like to say a good deal more. I used your medicine, and can say it is just what I wanted and needed. My sour stomach and heartburn after eating, and that gas which came from the stomach, is gone, and I am able to take cold water again, before I had to take the water hot on account of stomach trouble. I recommend K. D. C. to our people where I can, and to everyone who knows what weak stomach is."

The townspeople will no doubt have little trouble in recalling many incidents in which the Gang commonly called "Old Pete's Gang" took an active part a few years ago, and will it is thought be interested in reading something of its organization. By request we publish the following taken from the original Record as kept by the said gang.

Fidelis ad unum. Vive le Gang.

Old Pete's Gang organized Oct. 4th 1876, converted February 26th A. D. 1877 by the celebrated Evangelist Mr. Amos Wilt.

The undersigned are the members composing the aforesaid gang, Old Pete, the snake driver, "Captain of the gang," Sheet Anchor Tom, Buffalo Bill, Barnacle Bill, Lightfoot, Paul Jones, Rebecca and Long Rifle.

Dated at Richibucto in the County of Kent this 2nd day of September A. D. 1877 and in the second year of good Pete's reign. By Command.

BARNACLE BILL, Sec.

All the above were well known young men of the town, "one only of whom is now here," and who no doubt are all readers of THE REVIEW wherever they are at present residing.

A Caution! A Warning!

If, on blowing the nose in the morning, lumps and flakes are discharged colored with blood, especially on one side, lose no time in applying a remedy. Catarrh of the very worst kind has become seated the walls are sore and full of small ulcers, and if not soon cured will be hard to cure and eradicate. "A stitch in time saves nine." Use Chase's Catarrh Cure.

"I suppose that it would take a great deal of observation and experience to enable a man to pick the fastest horse entered for a race," she replied.

"Yes," replied the man of mournful experience. "But that isn't what you are trying to do. What you want to do is to pick the horse that is going to win."

Files! Files! Itching Files.

Symptoms—Moisture, intense itching and stinging, most at night; worse by scratching. It allowed to continue tumors form, which often bleed and ulcerate, becoming very sore. Swayer's Ointment stops the itching and bleeding, heals ulceration, and in most cases removes the tumors. At drug stores, or by mail, for 50 cents. Dr. Swayer & Son, Philadelphia. Lyman Sons & Co., Montreal, wholesale agents.

Mrs. Bellefield—I suppose that Mrs. Point Breeze was very glad when her daughter married Mr. Homewood? Mrs. Bloomfield—Not exactly. "No?" "As I understand it, Mrs. Point Breeze rather expected to marry him herself."

K. D. C. imparts strength to the whole system.

Mrs. K. (name of four months)—I think I'll take to cook while you are away, dear.

Mr. K. (name of four months)—I'll take the dog along with me, I guess.

"Give me one kiss at parting, dear," said young Mr. Dukane to his sweetheart.

"Give me but one and I'll ask for no more."

"But you won't be satisfied with one," replied the maiden.

"True, but I'll take the rest without asking."

The situations in which men frequently find themselves in dreamland was well illustrated by an Irishman who, when recently relating a remarkable dream he had, remarked: "Then I thought I was walking about naked, wid me hands in me pockets."

Elder Berry—What is your idea of faith? Joblots—Putting a nickel on the plate and expecting a crown of pure gold.

An Household Necessity.

You cannot be too often reminded that a neglected cold is the source of more serious and sometimes fatal disease.

If when suffering from a chill you would take a few drops of Dr. Manning's German remedy in a little hot water, the coming cold would be broken up at once and all serious results averted.

So simple a remedy should not be disregarded. Dr. Manning's German remedy as thousands testify, is also a marvellous pain reliever. Whether it be cramp in the stomach, the twinges of rheumatism, a bruise or sprain, or the pangs of neuralgia, this remedy affords relief and cure. No family should be without it, and the number of families that regard it as a household necessity is steadily increasing as its merits become more widely known.

There are so many mishaps, of almost daily occurrence, when such a remedy would be of the greatest value for instant use, that a bottle of Dr. Manning's German remedy should be always at hand. It is sold by all druggists and dealers at fifty cents per bottle and is manufactured only by the Hawker Medicine Co. (Ltd.) St. John, N. B.

"You are charged," said the judge "with disturbing the peace."

"May I ask how you make that out?"

"I have positive proof that you awoke the police, for at least three squares about."
